Miss J. Allen of Toronto is spending the vacation with her mother here.

The annual school meeting was held on the 26th. J. W. Blythe was re-elected trustee, G. M. Leeson auditor, while Mr. Wilton and Alb. McClinton supply the wood and Robert Pettigrew does the janitor work.

Mr and Mrs Chapman and daughter of Mt Forest spent the holiday with Mr Wm. Strass.

Dr. G. M. Leeson and family left Saturday for a visit to relatives at Ingersoll.

Mr and Mrs T. Grasby and family were Xmas guests of Mrs A. Vollett.

Miss Cassie Barnes came home from Toronto Tuesday for a short holiday.

Mr and Mrs Wilton had Christmas dinner with Mrs W. Dunn of Darham.

The Orange Lodge has added some terra firma to their property.

The Storrey family of town spent Christmas with Mrs Wm Caldwell.

Mr. Neil, of Mt Forest, is holidaying with the Morrison family.

The Christmas tree as usual was a decided success, the program being short and spicy. The proceeds amounted to $26.00.

Mrs Crawford spent Christmas with Mrs. Wm. Caldwell.

Mr. Pollock has bought the old hotel, and besides the post office has put in a limited supply of flour, candies, etc. so the former bar-room is serving a good purpose.

The election draws near with two candidates at this corner. Mr R Barber has proved himself worthy; this end has had but meagre attention before and we think Mr Barber ought to be re-elected. Mr. Leith promises to be a good candidate too.

Miss Annie Petty of Durham is visiting the Wilkinson families.

Several of our citizens who have ailments are going to a man in Mt. Forest to be charmed.

Mr. Herb Gray and bride ate Christmas dinner at the old home.

A number from this vicinity attended the nomination at Aytton on Monday.

Mr. Jas. Hoy has recovered sufficiently to be at work again. He and Mr. Monteith are cutting wood for Landels Marshall.

Dornoch.

"Brave and strong, Bright as Phoenix, has the young New Year, Out of the ashes of the old, leaped forth. To rule the world in triumph."

The old year, hoary with the snows of age, exhausted with the labors of its life and tottering under its weight of days, has passed away. Around the altar of many a rustic church or solemn cathedral and by many a peaceful fireside gathered God's children to watch the old year out and the New Year in. Peal upon peal comes the music from the various church spires, until an exultant chorus seems to fill the air and reverberate from the sky.

"The chorus of welcome to the new-born year. The passing year is full of solemn admonitions for it brings to our minds the rapid flight of time. A day, a week, a month, a year—what are they? They go by like shadows on a dial. Old Father Time seems to stand like an archer with his quiver full of days and shoots them by us with the speed of swift-winged arrows so that "we spend our days like a tale that is told." As the great bell of time, swinging in the dome of Space, tolls away our years, and one after another they ring out upon the air and float away into Eternity, let us be alert to every passing opportunity, associating our minds with the true, the noble and the pure, so that the world may be the better for our having lived.

Mr Robert Ledingham, a prosperous agriculturist of Moose Jaw, Sask., is home on an extended visit to friends in the burg.

Miss Ingersoll of Warton, has been engaged to teach the young idea in U. S. S. No. 4 Holland and Sullivan, succeeding Mr. A. J. MacCallum, who resigned to accept the school at Sunny Valley.

We had a pleasant chas. with Mr Wm Mills, of Valletta, Kent County, who arrived in the village on Saturday eve, for an extended sojourn in the community. Will's affable manner makes him a pleasant visitor at all times.

A charming society belle is Miss Minnie Gillen of the Queen City, who was a gifted acquisition to the social circles during the Xmas holidays.

"Tis our sad duty this week to chronicle the demise of Mr. Wm Vasey, one of the old pioneers of Sullivan Township, who peacefully departed this life on Tuesday afternoon, at the age of three score and ten. Mr Vasey had been ailing for a few days, but nothing serious was anticipated until suddenly the angel of Death arrived and called his spirit home. Mr Vasey was a man of genial disposition and peaceful temperament, while his character was beyond reproach. The remains were interred in the R. C. Cemetery on Friday. Rev. Father Sullivan officiated at the funeral solemnities. We extend our condolence to the sorrowing ones who

Hopeville

A branch of the Bible Society was organized here on Tuesday evening the 17th Dec. in the Hopeville church three ministers being present, the Rev Mr McInnes, Rev Mr Gibson and the regular travelling agent. A very fair attendance was present. The leading officers were elected as follows: Amosworth Jack, President; John Russell, Vice President; Wm Dingwall, Secretary, Angus Ferguson, Treasurer; J H Scott, Salesman.

The McArdle election meeting on Thursday 26th was a success. The hall was well filled and Reeve McArdle for nearly 2 hours gave a good explanation of township affairs and brought reports to prove his statements, and all went away well satisfied with him. There is talk of Walter Bell running against him. Several new men are spoken of for the Council.

Messrs McArthur and Dezell moved into the new store built by Wm Dezell before Christmas and are now rustling business.

Bert Love came up from Toronto to spend the holidays with his parents.

Lawyer McArdle of Markdale spent Christmas with his father here.

Priceville

The wheels of time have again revolved and brought us to the close of another year. In reviewing the year that is now to be numbered with the past, it recalls to memory many of the events that have transpired since its infancy. It reminds us that another year has been added to the age roll of our pilgrimage. Our years are like the rolling tide, for step by step we have journeyed on till we have reached the topmost step in the ladder and only halted to give a view of the waning tides of the ocean of life, when we were forced to retrace our steps downwards till finally we reach the bottom step on the other side. Those who are only beginning to ascend this ladder and those just half way up think it a long time till they reach the top, but if they are spared, they will get there sooner than they expect and descend far faster than they ascended. Again the closing of the old year and the beginning of the new year acts in a two-fold manner. To many a home this Xmas and New Year has brought glad tidings, for the son or daughter away for years has arrived at the old home and the good old mother has killed the fatted turkey, while the father has prepared something else. A happy reunion has taken place around the old family table and joy and pleasure are again indulged in.

But alas there are two sides in life. The dear old father and mother (in many instances) who embraced the son and daughter at the last Christmas and New Year, have passed away to join the innumerable throng to partake of the everlasting feast in the kingdom above. Again many a poor mother and father who had the pleasure of having sons and daughters partaking of the feast prepared at the beginning of the year and now have only as a reminder, like the woman of old, the garments which they wore.

But we must pass on. Those of us who are old enough to remember the manner Xmas and New Year were kept in the days of our youth will find quite a contrast in passing over fifty years. The old fashioned feast consisted not of fat turkey, goose, pudding, fruit, cake, or any such refinery, but simply a big loaf made in the old fashioned bake oven with hot ashes and coals placed on the top lid. The loaf generally was from 10 to 12 inches deep and good bread at that. As for extras to make the feast a little different from other days, the good mother prepared a good large set-ten bannock on the old fashioned frying pan and for an extra good touch to the feast made a few dozen small cakes. Then on the same pan she prepared and fried some fat pork. After which she called her good husband, sons and daughters to partake of the good feast prepared for them. And perhaps there were some invited friends who came not in dandy cutters drawn by spirited horses in gay harness, but in the ancient sled made of material taken from the woods by the owner, who in general was his own mechanic. They were drawn by the good old oxen which were familiar with all the turns and crooks on the highway then travelled through the woods, and not on macadamized roads as we have these Christmas and New Years' days of 1908.

Mr and Mrs Neil McKinnon of the post office here attended the funeral of Mrs McKinnon's uncle, the late Arch McLean of Bentinck. Mrs. McKinnon, although sorry for the purpose that brought her there, was delighted to visit the place of her birth and see many of the old friends of her childhood days.

The sick people are getting better. Malcolm McInnes is able to be about now after a spell of some weeks of sickness, also John Burnett is able to sit up now and a week or two will bring him to his normal health.

Mr. Arch McMillan who is visiting at the old home from the West took a trip to see friends in Vaughan township before he returns.

Mrs Rose of Bruce is visiting at her brothers, Mr N McIntyre of the south line, to see her aged mother who is yet unwell.

Mr Donald McMillan was again re-elected trustee for Priceville school for the coming term. At Top Cliff, Bernard Hartford and Wm. McLeod Jr were elected, Mr McCaig having tendered his resignation on account of running for municipal honors.

Miss Bella McKinnon of Toronto is spending a while at home on the South Line at present.

The late rains have caused water to be more plentiful, as in some places water was getting into scarce.

Before this gets into print we expect Wedding Bells to be ringing of which we hope to give an account in next issue.

Mr. Donald McMillan, Jr. is home from the West. Its 3 years since he was home last and intends to stay all winter.

Dan McKechnie of Toronto Junction paid a short visit to see his mother, Mrs McKechnie, of this town on Xmas and returned Thursday.

Dr and Mrs Hutton of Durham paid a short visit to our town on Saturday last. The Dr has always some warm feelings towards the citizens of Priceville and vicinity.
