Dornoch.

Miss A—, of St. Mary's, arrived in the town on Monday to take charge of the Separate School for the present year. We welcome her to our midst and trust that her efforts may be crowned with success as she labors for the moral and mental advancement of the young idea entrusted to her care.

Mr John Hunt, a prominent agriculturist of Antler, N Dakota, spent a few pleasant days in the village visiting his brother, Mr. H. Hunt, our general merchant. He left the burg on Monday for Owen Sound where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Wm. Leflar.

Mrs Wm Smith arrived on Saturday from Brandon, Man, where she was attending the obsequies of her daughter, Mrs. Jas Grant who succumbed to pulmonary trouble a short time ago. She and her daughter Miss Alice miraculously escaped instantaneous death on the homeward route, being passengers on the ill fated train which plunged over the embankment near Chapleau on Friday morning.

Rev. N. A. McDonald, our esteemed pastor spent a pleasant New Year's holiday with friends in Saton and the Queen city.

Mr George Ledingham of South African fame, accompanied by his estimable life partner, arrived a fortnight ago from Vancouver for a pleasant vacation with their many friends in the vicinity.

Hale and hearty as of yore are Messrs Frank Skene and Arch. McDonald of Sunny Alberta who are renewing acquaintances around the scenes of their nativity.

Mrs Raymond of Qu'Appelle, Sask. accompanied by her two daughters, arrived in the village on Saturday evening and will spend a month or two with friends and relatives in the immediate vicinity.

Mr C. R. McIntosh left on Saturday morning to resume his duties as Principal of the Model School at Perth, Lanark Co.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in the Presbyterian church here on Sabbath next. Rev. Mr. Farquharson will conduct the preparatory services on Friday afternoon.

'Tis our sad duty to chronicle the death of Miss Hannah Tinkham who departed this life at her home north of the village on Sunday evening last. Miss Tinkham as will be remembered was severely burnt in O. Sound last May while using kerosene in igniting the furnace fire and although everything possible was done to alleviate her suffering, it ceased not till her spirit winged its early flight. Miss Tinkham's genial disposition and pleasing winsome manner made her a favorite among all with whom she came in contact, and her demise while in the bloom of young womanhood is an extremely regrettable occurrence. May the Divine comforter give balm to the aching hearts and help them to say, 'Thy will be done.'

Dromore.

Well Mr Editor the rush and bustle of the Christmas season is over, students have all gone back to school and the village is quiet again.

Sarah and Archie McMillan, Priceville, visited their brother Colin last Thursday.

At pre-communion service last Friday morning six babies were baptized and six young people joined the church.

Mr Ed. Watson, son of Peter Watson, who has spent the past three years in Winnipeg, is renewing old acquaintances around this locality. Great rejoicing in Dromore Monday night when word came that Geo. L'Abian stood head of the poll for councillor and Walter Haskie and Walter Ferguson still held their positions as Reeve and Deputy Reeve. The boys were all well treated to candies, oranges, and nuts.
