Rev. Mr Farquharson's pulpit was supplied on Sunday by a Rev. Mr. Smith, who came as a substitute for Rev. Mr. Haddow of the Presbyterian. He preached loud and vigorous sermons and touched many hearts.

We have to acknowledge with thanks an invitation to the annual gathering of the Grey County Old Boys in Toronto. Long may they cherish the memories of their native county. We wish them a very pleasant time.

Mr J. Caesar was unwell for several days last week but recovered and was around on Monday. Tuesday morning he took a fainting spell while in the stable among his horses and being discovered unconscious, but unhurt, was removed to his house where he is receiving best attention and is recovering.

ENLARGED REGISTRY OFFICE—Mr. Neil McDonald, Reeve of Sydenham, was in town on Friday last. He is chairman of the County Property committee and in conjunction with Reeve Saunders of Durham, Hastie, Egmont and Schenk, Normandy, forms a committee to conduct the enlargement of S. Grey Registry office. The two last named were unable to be present, but Mr. McDonald after looking over the situation thinks of employing an architect to make necessary plans and have the work undertaken at an early date.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT—This attractive entertainment, postponed on account of the storm, will be held in the Town Hall, to-night, Thursday, 20th inst. Rev W. J. Spence, lecturer. F. A. Webster, soloist, are the performers. Don't fail to attend the stupendous reduction sale where bargains await you

At the Big Store,
Dr But, eye and ear Surgeon, of O Sound, has returned and resumed practice after walking the hospitals in New York for several weeks.

The Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways estimate that the recent storms cost them one million dollars in loss of traffic and cost of clearing the lines.

THE STORY—The missing chapters of the story that but for railway delay should have appeared two weeks ago, will be found on our inside pages this week as well as the regular installment.

EXTENDED TILL FEB. 20—In order to allow an opportunity of attending this sale to those who have been kept from town by bad roads. Plenty of bargains, come with the crowds to Mockler's Monster Sale.

As most headaches as well as many obscure diseases are due to eye affections, it is important that all spectacles and eye glasses are scientifically fitted. Consult Chas. J. Western, Eyesight Specialist in Darling's Drug Store, Thursday, March 5th.

C. O. F. BANQUET—The Can. Order of Foresters will hold their annual banquet in their hall, Calder's Block, on Thursday evening, March 5th, commencing at 7 p. m. Good program and refreshments. Admission to brethren 50c, which includes wife or lady friend.

LIBRARY CONCERT—The third of the series of Library concerts will be held in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, 27th inst, when a varied and interesting program will be presented. The last was a great success and the committee will allow of no going back. Mark the date.

At the recent meeting of Bruce County Council, a copy of every local paper published in the County was ordered to be sent to the House of Refuge at Walkerton for use of the inmates. This was a commendable act and may throw a ray of sunshine into the monotonous and cheerless life of Bruce charity fed inhabitants.

LIQUOR AND HOTEL ACCOMMODATION—In 1880 Fargo, Dakota, had a population of 5,000 and forty saloons. Today it has 17,000 people and no saloons. Fargo business men do not want the liquor shop to return. Their former fear that prohibition would kill the town has been proved to be groundless. The place has excellent hotel accommodation, but a new hostelry is to be erected at a cost of $150,000. This shows that hotel-keeping is a profitable business without the revenue from the bar.

APPRECIATED—At the last meeting of the Executive Board of Directors of the Grey and Bruce Mutual Fire Insurance Co., the following resolution was moved by Mr Arch. McCuaig, seconded by Mr Robert Richardson and unanimously passed: "that we place on record our high appreciation of the services of the President, Daniel McDougall for his valuable and untiring services for the advancement and best interest of this insurance company and his straightforward mode of doing business and valuable knowledge of the risks in general and the policy holders, as well as his courteous manner as president of this board of directors."

Disastrous Fire.

Cream Separator Works Destroyed.

Alarming at any time is the fire bell, but when it rings at 3 a. m. in midwinter as it did on Monday morning last, it is especially alarming, for first thoughts run to the possibility of a home being destroyed with accompanying human suffering and loss. A heavy snow fall was in progress, deadening the sound of the bell, yet many citizens were soon on the streets to learn that the danger was at the Cream Separator Works, just lately put into operation by the Sirs Bros. Fire was first noticed by the G. T. R. engine caretaker about 2.30 a. m. He blew his whistle vigorously and soon help was on the spot. Wind was in the northwest and as the fire started in the east wing in the packing room, it was thought the frame extension to the south end of the east wing was doomed, and some stuff of no great value was thrown out and some valuable snow shovel work was done. Back worked the fire, however against the wind, and soon the office and long stretch of machinery in the north wing was a blazing furnace.

The firemen with commendable speed, got the engine through the heavy streets, and thinking they could work from the river near by, drove past the last tank at Wolfe's corner, and encountered some heavy drifts. It was soon found that it would not be possible to work from the river, and before the tank could be utilized, the fire was past control. The brigade's ladders were used at the south end and somewhat surprising, the emptied frame extension was saved. Only the boiler, we believe will be worth anything in the machinery wing.

The town's interest in the building is secured by insurance, and though the proprietors have a small insurance on the stock, it is a knock-out blow to them, as it does so soon after taking hold of the concern and taking hold in a way that promised to be of great value to the town. We have not heard whether they have formed plans for the future, but the town sincerely sympathizes with them and hopes a way will again be opened for their enterprise.

How the fire started is a mystery. There was no fire on Sunday and never any in that part of the building; one theory advanced is spontaneous combustion, it being almost inconceivable that deliberate incendiarism has taken place. Many would like to see a detective engaged.

Obituary.

MR. JOSEPH CORBETT

Thursday of last week, this well-known Bentineck pioneer died at the home of his daughter Mrs Armstrong, Grayhurst, from the effects of gangrene following a brief illness. His death came somewhat suddenly, the trouble having reached the heart.

Mr Corbett survived his wife about 2 1/2 years. She was a Miss Brown, of Linden and over 50 years ago they came to Bentineck, part of the valiant band who tackled bush life and its hardships, and who ate now rapidly passing away. To them were born nine children: Susan, Mrs Armstrong; Marion, Mrs Parker, Kirkwall; Annie, Mrs Montgomery, Sault Ste Marie and Christine, Mrs Thos. Livingstone, Durham. The sons are Thos., Toronto, Joseph and John, Sault Ste Marie, James in California and William. Since selling his farm some years ago, he has made his home with his daughter.

The remains arrived in Durham on Saturday, and lay at the home of his son-in-law till Monday, when they were laid beside his wife. Rev Mr Farquharson conducted the services and many neighbors and friends paid the last tribute.

ALEX. McMILLAN

This Wednesday morning, 19th February, there passed away, in his 53rd year at his home in Scotchtown, Glen elg, the above well-known and respected member of the McMillan family and a life-time resident of Genielg. He has been ailing most of the winter from a liver complaint, and the hopes formed sometimes for recovery have been disappointed. Left to mourn the loss of this genial and worthy citizen are his widow, who was a Miss McArthur and a family of five sons and four daughters, and they will have the sympathy of a wide circle of those who knew the deceased.

Four brothers will also mourn: John, the well-known Genielg councilman, Neil at Bad Axe, Mich., and Norman and Dan in Duluth.

The funeral will take place at 10 a. m. Friday to St John's cemetery. Neil is expected home, though not likely the brothers in Duluth.

A. H. Jackson is an Issuer of Marriage Licenses, Durham, Ont.

The whole office staff at the Cement Works are in Toronto at the Annual Meeting to-day.

Chas J. Western, Eyesight Specialist, will make his next visit to Durham on Thursday, March 5th and may be consulted in Darling's Drug Store. Read his notice on page 8.

Would you buy some 10 cts. flannellette for 7 cts, 8 cts prints for 5 cts, and factory cotton for 5 cts. That's the way these goods are selling at Mockler's Monster Sale.

NORMANBY PRACTISES ECONOMY—The Council met in the Clerk's office here on Tuesday, the principal business, being to select officers for the coming year. As they had advertised for applications for these, they had tendered for every position. Following out the rigid economy principle with which they started the year, they began with reducing their own allowances from $3.00 to $2.50 per day and mileage. In a heated competition M. B. Flynn was awarded the treasurership at $65 a year, Andrew Filsinger the assessorship at $70 Thomas Wallace, Henry Ringel and Otto Maes were appointed collectors, the first two receiving $28 each and the latter $24. The saving on all those contracts totals over $80 less than that paid last year, so that if taxes are high, next fall ratepayers will not be able to trace the cause to the Council—Advance.

BRUCE OLD BOYS—Mrs Jno. Nichol, herself a Bruce "Old Girl," favored us with clippings from late Vancouver papers, showing how enthusiastically old Bruce residents "foregathered" on the 29th of January last. Prominent among numerous names is that of an old Durham boy, John H. Kilmer, who is Secretary of the Association and whose name is placed below a unique proclamation from which we take one paragraph: "And this instrument doth decree that all men and all women who were born in or lived in, the County of Bruce aforesaid, together with those they have married with or who have married with them, are by this token formally and informally invited to attend at the said affair, which for the sake of being fashionable is called a "Conyersion," but which will really be a combination of the following: program of music, speeches, &c; a dance in which there will be plenty of "rounds" and "squares"; a supper served from 10 p. m. till 1 a. m.; all the reminiscences and opportunities for meeting old friends and making new ones that such an evening should afford." We can readily understand how the Chinaman out west answered when asked where he came from, wishing to be in the fashion: "Me from Bruce County."

Almost won the Bospicel.
Durham's single rink made a most creditable showing at the curlers' bonspiel in Wingham last Thursday, almost landing the coveted first place, with a prize of a set of handsome chairs worth $60. Mt. Forest captured this distinction in the finals from our rink by the closest possible margin. However the second honors with a splendid set of club bags valued at $30 is a suitable memento of the occasion. Following are the scores of the series:

Town Council

Generally a council should be representative of the town, but we would be loath to believe that axiom applied to our municipal fathers as they labored on Friday night last with the question of sites for Armory, Town Hall and Market scales.

All the town knows about the Armory: how through efforts of H. H. Miller, M. P. a grant has been made of $2500 or $3005 of good Dominion money for the purpose of an armory in Durham, the one local condition being that the town furnish an approved site on which to build it. Looking around and considering that the market scales would soon have to be moved owing to the new railway crossing, it was natural that armory thoughts should fix on that for a site, and enquiry elicited the fact that the present market site reverted to the Edge estate when it ceased to be used as a market.

Here was a problem, but its solution seemed easy when, it was found that an absolute deed could be obtained free for the market ground, by purchasing the Edge property, east of the Caldwell residence, for long considered by far the best site for a new Town Hall. This would give room also for market scales, and thus the one deal would provide sites for the three in situations, nobody grumbled at the price, $10 a foot, Mr Irwin gave an option on his lot adjoining, and one would think the deal would have gone through.

However, half of the council had another proposition: an option had been obtained on the Vollet property, north of Charter-Smith's foundry, cost $1320, which, it was claimed, would make an admirable site for town hall and weigh scales. This was nearer the centre of the town, that was too near the railway; this was almost level, that would be expensive to level. Then for the armory, which seemed an afterthought, instead of being the main thing in view, a free site could be obtained on the coffin lot south of the Convent works entrance.

For this proposition, which implied an impossible site for the armory, which implied the loss to the town of the present market ground, with engine house, etc., which implied the purchase of a new site for a fire hall, four members of the council voted. Messrs Kinmer, Robertson, Saunders and Sharp. The other three, Messrs John Brown, John McGowan, Edward Kress, with the mayor voted against it, and there being no majority nothing could be done.

The argument for the Edge proposition, with its great accompanying advantages, seemed to us unanswerable and the four who voted otherwise took upon them a great responsibility.

FOR SALE—100 acres, township Egremont, lot 23, con 21, good level land in good shape, good buildings, twenty four acres good timber, $1000 down.
