Swinton Park.

Snow galore, everybody shovelling snow. We notice the car for the Dundalk Herald has got himself out after having a couple of months' rest. Mr Martin Moody, from Cartwright, Manitoba, is visiting friends in the park. Mr Joseph Maxwell, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to the West by the way of Hamilton, where he has some business to conduct.

Miss Katie Campbell, of Toronto, is visiting her uncle, Mr D. Campbell.

Our general blacksmith has a very pleasant smile since he got back to his old boarding house.

Mr Willie Watson underwent a very painful operation on Monday last, the 24th. We are glad to hear he is recovering.

We notice Jim still keeping the road broken to Protton. We notice the Priceville car, talking about Protton that. But I should think he would be in favor of a Protton that this year. If it came a Glenelg chaw and he did not keep to the hills, the hollows would be so full of water that unless he was a good swimmer he would be drowned.

Born—on February 14th, to Mr and Mrs Robt. Knox, a daughter.

Miss Mary McLellan, who was visiting her sister, Mrs Neil McLeod, returned on Saturday last.

I hear that Miss Christie has got a class of natural history and as far as reports go they are progressing well.

Edge Hill.

Mr Herb Greenwood has sold his farm on the 8th con. to John Ellison at a good figure. Mr Greenwood and his sister, Miss Annie intend leaving for Dakota in March.

Mr Wm. Ritchie, purchased a thoroughbred mare in Bruce last week for $180.

Mr Henry Reid, an English emigrant, is visiting Arthur Greenwood.

Mr Dan Firth left for Toronto last week to take a Bus. College course.

Mr and Mrs John Little of Protton, visited at her mother's, Mrs. Egan, this week and other friends in this vicinity.

It is our sad duty this week to report the death of Mrs Robt. Moffat, who passed away Friday last, in Toronto, after a brief illness, the illness being pneumonia on the lungs. Deceased was formerly Miss Ellen Staples, daughter of the late George Staples of Edge Hill and was one of a family of six, three boys and three girls. Her brothers are Jas. George and Jno. Staples, all in Glenelg and the two sisters, Mrs Cowie, Allandale and Mrs Jas. Whitmore, South Line, Glenelg. The funeral Monday in Toronto was largely attended, Messrs C. Moffat, Sr., C. Moffat, Jr., J. Staples, being present from this neighborhood. To the sorrowing husband and relatives we extend our heartiest sympathy.

Mr Thos. Greenwood and family were the victims of a pleasant surprise party by a few of the friends gathered to spend a social evening with them before the departure of his son Herb, and daughter Annie for Dakota next month. To show their esteem and signalize the event, Herb was presented with a handsome lock of hair, and Miss Annie with a set of silver tea spoons coupled with hearty good wishes for their future success in the West.

Hopeville

Our roads have been blocked up with snow for over half the time and mail has been very irregular for the last month. Times have been very dull and not much business doing.

Mrs Atfield has moved into our village and now occupies Castle pinch.

Mr and Mrs A. H. Barnett have been in Dundalk for some weeks staying with their son-in-law and daughter, the Nobles.

Peter McArthur took a trip to Mount Eggest last week. Wm McLaren who was here seeing about his farm, has gone to Glenelg near Durham. David Allen drove him out with his fast horse last week on business and was stormbound on the return trip.

Adam Scarrlett took a load of his moving down to Peel Township last week and has had considerable trouble getting back.

Mulock

Mr Malcolm McKeen has retired his farm to Heugan and Son. Mack is going to the West.

Mr Wm Lunney is going to move to Crawford. Our loss in another neighborhood's gain. They will find Bill a jolly good fellow. Mr Lunney has been taking the advantage of the fur sales in the town of Durham and treated himself to a fur coat.

Our teacher was off duty for a short time and Miss Catherine McDougall took charge and got along nicely, with the exception of giving an hour and a half at recess.

Dan McDougall attended the Conservative meeting in Durham on Friday. Dan says Gamedy handled his subjects in good style. Say neighbors, did you ever see more beauty of

Hampden

February's storms did not deter Dame Stork who paid a visit to the 17th on Thursday last and left a bright little boy for Mr and Mrs Thos Young.

Mrs Nichol of Owen Sound is at present a welcome visitor with her mother, Mrs J. Young.

Mrs. Fulton and family have the sympathy of the whole community in the death of daughter and sister, Mrs J. Picken on Feb. 22. Although for some years suffering from a lingering disease the end came suddenly the disease having taken a sudden and unexpected turn for the worse on Thursday. To the aged mother who was unable to be present either during the last illness or at the funeral of her daughter the affliction comes with double force following so closely the death of her father a year ago.

Mr Will Mather and sister of Priceville, and their cousin, Miss Gowankock of Barrie visited their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Sharp last Sunday.

Our Indian neighbor who with his wife and child have lived in Mr. H. Fritz's house at the mill for several months, had a severe hemorrhage from the lungs last week and a few days afterward the family returned to Southampton.

Mr. Hesch's sale at the Barbour Farm takes place to day, Monday.

Mrs Wm Ball's sale on Friday drew a big crowd. Mrs. Ball and family are going to Varney to live for a time. Their removal takes the last family of Ball's from the corners which for so many years have been known by their name—Ball's Corners.

Miss Minnie Ball of Toronto is making a farewell visit at the old homestead at Ball's Corners.

Mr. Jas Henderson left on Tuesday for Lumsden, Sask., after spending several months with his mother. He was accompanied by his brother Andrew who is seeking better health in the Prairie Land.

Miss Leeson visited her brother at Varney over the week end.
