Mulock

Miss Jennie Beaton, who has been a guest of Mrs Wm Fulton, returned to her home in Dunsmuir this week. Miss Violet Britton, of Durham, is visiting her friend, Miss Lizzie McDougall, at present. Mr Alex McGillivray, of Chatsworth, accompanied by Master Reggie and Miss Jessie, Sundayed with his father, Mr John McGillivray. Mr Jim Heughan, of the Rocky, has rented Mr Malcolm McEachern's farm, and takes possession shortly. A number of young people, of this burg, spent a most enjoyable evening at the home of Mr Alf Redford recently.

Hopeville

Mr Joseph McArdle was in Mount Forest a few days last week attending the Orange Grand Lodge. Mr Williams is going to New Ontario to secure a block of land. Mr Adam Scaletch has been moving last week to Peel Township. Mr David Allen has been having a trip to Markdale and Euphrasia township. Mrs P. McArthur is on the sick list. Mr J. H. Scott is improving some. Our township assessor has been making his rounds here and he said he will have a good assessment. Our young councillor here has travelled around lately. Reports are that he might run for M. P. P. some fine morning.

Hampden

Mr Thos. Young spent part of last week in bed nursing a lame back. Mr Andy Fulton had a bee on Thursday, moving his household effects from the old home to the new. Mr Michael Byers traded horses with Mr H. Fritz last week. Both got the best of the bargain. Mr John Pieken spent Thursday with Mrs Fulton. Mrs Sackett and Miss Lillian visited with friends around Brownville and Bothville lately. Miss Belle Byers left on Wednesday for an extended visit with her sister at Welland. She will visit her brother John in Toronto en route. A photographer from Clifford took photos of the men, who are working in Miller & Seim's swamp on Thursday afternoon. Groups were also photographed at the mill. Mr Ed McNulty had the misfortune to cut his foot badly, while working in the swamp last week. The road from the church west, as far as V. Pfeiffer's gate, was ploughed on Thursday last, so as to leave the fields which are rapidly becoming bare. Mr Jas. Watt had a wood-peg on Friday. His son Percy intends leaving for the West in the near future.

Edge Hill.

Mr Herb. and Miss Annie Greenwood, who are leaving this week for Dakota, were a short time ago surprised in their home by an invasion of friends bearing kind words and gifts. The address below was read by Mr W. J. Ritchie, Supt. of the S. S. and presentation made by Miss Maggie E. Ector and Victor Williams.

Dear Friends--During the past number of years you have been faithful teachers in our S. S., and it was with deep regret that we, your fellow workers and pupils, learned some time ago of your intention of leaving our neighborhood. During these years you have been very faithful and earnest in your work and ever ready to assist in any undertaking of the S. S. The regular attendance of your classes, their interest in your work, testify of efforts on your part worthy of the highest commendation. We trust that the influence of your character and teaching will go on of lasting benefit. As a slight acknowledgement of your high appreciation of your services, we ask you to accept these few gifts. One of silver teaspoons, creamer and sugar shell and gold tacket, trusting that they may always call to mind pleasant memories of your association with us in Edge Hill Union S. S. In conclusion we trust that you will ever faithfully serve the Master and that his richest blessings may bestow in upon you as you go to other fields of usefulness.

Miss Allie Collier is visiting in Toronto this week and expects to remain awhile. Mr Wm. Noble who has been a year on John Williams place, has moved to Win. Jno. Ector's farm which he has purchased. Sorry to hear of G. L. Williams, Manitoba losing two of his children within three days of each other. A mix-up in a name took place last week. Mr Francis W. Heard, of Toronto was the visitor round Edge Hill and not Mr Henry Read. Mr A. H. Jackson is an Issuer of Marriage Licenses, Durham, Ont. Another of the early settlers of the Township of Egremont passed away on Sunday to join the great majority in the person of Mr John Cowan. He had been a resident of this township for upwards of fifty years. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at the Cochrane cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. G. A. King, B. A.--Ex.

Zion.

Wednesday, 11th inst, nearly 250 of the friends and neighbors of Mr Thos. Jack and family met to give them a united good-bye, before leaving for their new home in Forquet, Sask. The meeting was representative of the Township, and indeed some from beyond its borders were present to do honor to the well-known family. All the members of the Jack family were present, including our Mr Jack, who, notwithstanding his 83 years, walked to the church where the meeting was held, as well as more accommodation for the large assemblage, than the home would have done. An excellent program was soon got ready, the chair being well filled by the versatile and genial R. T. Edwards. As an appropriate time an address was read expressing warm appreciation of the neighbors by experience of the past now soon to be terminated, and breathing the heartiest good wishes for their future welfare of the honored guests and their family. Tangible reminders of these sentiments were made to every member of the family. There was first, in general, a fine black Galloway Robe, then for Mr and Mrs Jack, Persian Lamb Caps, one for each; a Bible, a silver book for each of the two boys, a silver fruit spoon for Miss Stella, well-known in Durham, a Jack-knife for little Sammy, a birthday book for Jennie and a silver brooch for little Tootsy. Mr Jack made a feeling and suitable reply to the address and the program went on. There were songs, instrumental music by Otis Blair and others, fine recitations by several, among which Mr Bailey ranked high, it being admitted he excelled himself. Selections by the choir interlarded these. Speeches were made by the chairman, W. L. Falkingham, Councilor Edwin Hunt (whose address was really fine) and by the pastor Rev. Mr. Juni sut, who gave one of his enjoyable witty speeches. Nor was the inner man forgotten, there was abundance to eat and a fine social feeling made a good appetizer. The sterling qualities of Mr Jack and his family will be missed in the community. Their place in League, church and Sunday School will be hard to fill. We congratulate the community for the future, on the acquisition they had about to make. Our loss is their gain. Little Vincent Taylor is very ill at present. Mrs John Greenwood, Sr., who has been unwell lately, is improving. Mr Wm Greenwood came home Saturday from attending the funeral of a cousin, Alex Robson, in Listowel.

We heard a good story of an old Scotchman who had abundance of hay to sell some 25 or 35 years ago when hay was at its highest price as at present. This old gentleman lived on other good soil from our town. Another good old one from our town. Willie asked him one day he met him on a silver fruit spoon for Miss Stella, well-known in Durham, a Jack-knife for little Sammy, a birthday book for Jennie and a silver brooch for little Tootsy. Priceville

The snow is getting soft and Saturday night's rain lessened the depths on the highways which is badly needed for it is bad going in the condition they are in at present. March is marching along and a few weeks will, we hope, bring us in safely through till we get our feet on solid footing when all living creatures will be rejoicing to be again privileged to enjoy the rays of a beautiful April and May sun. Then all animals depending on the expected growth from the native soil will rejoice for being the recipients of feeding on pastures green when the hard cry of the scarcity of feed will be only a thing of the past but as the old Gaelic saying has it "Thuid a chora bus a leibheadh Aix an fhear ur, or a sheep will die waiting on the new grown grass. Hay is a good price selling from fifteen to sixteen dollars and if convenience allows to ask $20 it can be got.

All our business men are getting in a supply of spring and summer goods and a good business is expected during the spring and summer months. Miss Jessie McEae is installed as saleslady in Mr Aldern's new store. The C. P. R. is to be opened this week by a new snow plough which cost $60,000.00. Those nearby will have to be on the lookout for an extra shower of snow drifts scattered all over. Fall wheat has a healthy looking appearance so far as occasion caused us to trespass on some fine looking patches lately. Miss Lizzie Weir of Glenelg, paid her friends at Priceville and South line a visit lately which was highly enjoyed by the visitor and receive a Dr Dixon was threatened with Quinsy lately but as it is said "Physician heal thyself," the good Doctor checked it before it got on too far and we are pleased to see him attending to his various calls again. The Sacrament that was to be dispensed on Sunday 1st in the Presbyterian Church here was postponed on account of the thaw and bad roads till the first nice Sunday. It roads are in a fair condition it will be dispensed next Sabbath on the 22nd inst.

The Revs Derry and Matheson has been holding a series of union out-rage prayer meetings all winter. Mrs Kelly is still keeping poorly. Roads in bad shape from Durham to Priceville with lots of ditch holes. Monday the 16th snowing and blowing again and we may look for a while of bad or good roads yet before the 1st April. Crows and snow birds are numerous. Two young men were initiated into the Workmen in Priceville on Monday night of last week. They were sons of Mr O-Strander of this village. Mr Robert Vause leaves as delegate to the Grand Lodge held in Toronto this week.

Varney.

Mr J. W. Blythe spent from Tuesday until Thursday of last week in Mt. Forest. A load of young people from Durham and a few of our Varney ones enjoyed a party at C. T. Lesson's Thursday night. Miss Edith Allen is quite ill consequently there was no school all week. Mr Arthur McCrae is home from Stratford hospital much improved by the operation. Mrs Bogle is also on the sick list at present. Mr Wm H. Morrison left Tuesday morning for Greenfell, Sask., where his sister Mrs Irvine lives, thence he will proceed to his homestead farther West.
