married besides one sister.

All week we have been receiving congratulations on our Spring Millinery by the many ladies who visited our show rooms. We have just reason to be proud of our Millinery for we have never had such a showing of lovely Millinery as we are showing this Spring. The attractive trimmed models embrace all the newest styles, including the wide Merry Widow Sailor, Turkish Turbans and the new high crowned rolling brim shapes, stylishly trimmed with flowers, foliage, feathers, ribbons, laces and fancy pins and buckles, providing a selection to suit every type of face and at prices to suit every women's purse.

Death has been taking away the old settlers. Very few of the first settlers here now. On March 14th Mrs Millener relic of the late Johnston Milliner died at the old family residence lot 6, Con 14 Proton, at the age of 76. She was buried on the 17th at Swinton Park.

On Monday the 23rd inst there died at one of the hospitals in Toronto at the age of 82 years Mr Robert Black, one of the pioneers of Proton. Mr Black resided in Toronto for some years past and met with an accident by being run over by a cutter and lived two weeks afterwards. His son George brought his body home porto his house, the old family residence in on 17th Con. near Swinton Park and he was buried at Swinton Park on the 25th. Mr Black came into Proton Taylor & Co., Dromore work over fifty years ago and settled on lots 13 and 14, con 17, and by industry made a good home for himself and tamily where his son George now lives. He was a quiet industrions man and was highly respected in neighborhood. He was a member of the township council for many years. About fifteen years ago his wife died and he since married a Mrs Grigson of Proton. In time he sol out here and went into Bruce County where they lived a few years, then sold there and went to Toronto where he lived until his death.
