

LESSON II.-APRIL 12, 1908.

his homes. Only a few weeks before the Glory of God-"Such a revelation of time of this lesson Christ visited this God's power as shall disclose His family at Bethany (Luke 10:38-42). | glory." once sent a message to Jesus (v. 3). faith must have rallied and she gave They made no request, but the message | way to Jesus' request. They had accomwhom thou lovest is sick." Jesus waited was removed. Jesus now began alis two days after receiving the news of part. Lifted up His eyes -An outward the dangerous illness of Lazarus before expression of the elevation of His mind starting to Bethany (v. 6). He was ac- and to show them was stood by from companied by his disciples, who felt they whence He derived His power. He lifted were going into great danger on account up His eyes as looking beyond the grave of the hostile feeling of the Jews against and overlooking the difficulties that their Master (vs. 8, 16). Jesus arrived arose thence,-Com, Com, at Bethany when Lazarus had been dead | 42. Thou hast sent me-Not to dealone. "He did not come to join in fu-

II. Christ's compassion (vs. 32-37), 32. fell down-Oriental wailing is said by the word means "deeply moved;" this. however, would not be at variance with the other explanations, was troubled-"Troubled himself."-R. V., margin, "Probably the meaning is that he allowed his deep emotion to become evident to bystanders."-Hurlbut.

34. Where, laid him-A question adeyes; all its mourners and all its graves | we will have power to help others when

36. How He loved him-A spontane- "Take ye away the stone" (v. 39.) en- testimony from those Jews of the Jesus wept and then commanded. He tenderness of the Son of God. 37. Could cried, "Lazarus, come forth" (v. 43.) He not this man-"The miracle of the blind | said, "Loose him and let him go" (v. 44.) man was referred to because it was of Jesus wept, but he did more. Tears are recent occurrence, and in the immediate not enough if there is something we can neighborhood, while the two previous do to remove the cause of grief or asmiracles of raising the dead (Luke 7, suage it. Spurgeon says: "Those tears 11-17; 8, 41-56), were performed in dis- for the sorrowing ones of Bethany were tant Galilee, about one year and a half tears on a human grave." Both sisters The Evangelist Got a Letter With Black before." Several leading commentators said to Jesus, "Lord, if thou hadst been think that these Jews were unbelieving here, my brother had not died" (vs. 21. and now refer to the healing of the blind | 32.) Over against their "if" Jesus laid man in a deriding manner, suggesting another. "Said I not unto thee, that, that if he could have done that, then 'if' thou wouldst believe, thou shouldst was received by Dr. Torrey Thursday, he could have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, and see the glory of God?" (v. 40.) If we have kept Lazarus alive, an ever, thinks these Jews are expressing see the goodness of God" (Psa. 27; 13.) Thursday night. "It only proves that ventional moulds. One hates to think Again groaning -Because of the unbe. we "see the glory of God." lief of the Jews. We never find him in as much grief over His own sufferings 44.) Martha said to Jesus, "I know, as over the sins of men, Cometh to the that even yow, whatsoever thou wilt grave-Lazarus was, as became his sta- ask of God, God will give it thee" (v. versity students are finding it barder M. P. P., came in from the west to-day. kept as personal property. The tombs were either of rock, hewn, or natural rock-hewn tombs, the bodies were laid, cept his wife's advice.-Toledo Blade. quite decently, if not artistically." The tions in earnest.

haring been anointed with many spices

-with martle, aloes, etc.-Edersheim.

THREE PERSONS which could be done by human hand he orders to be done. He would have the ystanders see that Lazarus was actutily dead. He stinketh-Seeming to forget what Jesus had said to her when she met Him, Martha now thinks only The Raising of Lazarus.-John 11: 1-57; and objects. The idea of an immediate tesufficient does not seem to have oc-COMMENTARY .- I. Christ cometh to curred to her, 40, If thou wouldest be-Bethany (vs. 1-31). Jesus had no home lieve by we see that if these sisters Three Policemen Saved Many Lives of his own, but he often rested at the had not possessed hearts of faith, a homes of his friends. The home of willingness to believe and obey Christ, Mary, Martha and Lazarus was one of this miracle could not have taxen place.

Soon after Jesus had left them Lazarus IV. Lazarus raised to life (vs. 41-44). was taken sick (v. 1). The sisters at | 41. Took away the stone-Marcha's thority plotted against his life. PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS.

the burial the women still go to the tears of Jesus are recorded, Jesus wept a fourth-storey window and sustained tomb in the early morning, where they as a substitute, pouring out his soul in injuries which probably will cause his pray, weep, sob, chant hymns, and beat a sacrificial weeping over a lost world death. Others who jumped from win- French Consul-General, who posted a their breast. This mourning continues (Heb. 5; 7); as a prophet, over the dows on the second and third floors have notice on the board of the club, opposthus violently for three days, and then doomed city (Luke 19; 41); as a friend broken limbs and were internally infor four more feastings and wailings are at the tomb of a friend The Jews, see- jured. the prominent characteristics." if thou ing his tears for Lazarus, said, "Behold | Weinstein and his wife and baby were hadst been here-"These words express how he loved him!" (v. 36.) Spurgeon found lying dead in their home on the the very essence of soul torture at such | says: "On earth, Jesus was not asham- | top floor of the building after the flames times. In our affliction we continually ed to find friends among mortals. On had been extinguished. Apparently they echo the if of these sisters, saying to the Father's throne he is not ashamed | had been overcome by smoke while tryourselves, if we had done this, or if we to call us brethren (Heb. 2; 11.) He is not ing to reach the stairway. The property had done that, or if it had not been for ashamed to be written in the same re- loss is small. our blunder, or that of our friends, or gister as the poor people. Jesus wept. that of our physician, our beloved would He was not ashamed to own the afflicnot have died. But read verse 4 of this | tion sin caused his holy soul, nor the chapter. Chance is the god of atheism, gash the sight of death made in his and is a comfortless god in the time of heart. He could not bear to see the grave and its corruption. I never pass 33. groaned in the spirit-This is a from end to end of London without strange term and is better rendered by feeling a black cloud like a pall over my the margin of the Revised Version- spirit. How my heart breaks for thee, "was moved with indignation in the O sinful city. Its slums, sins, poverty, spirit." The Greek word here translat- drunkenness, vice go through a man's ed "groaned" expresses indignation rath- heart like sharp swords. Jesus wept, er than grief. "Jesus was indignant at | though about to work a wonderful mirthe hypocritical and sentimental lamen- acle. He was not ashamed to own his tations of his enemies, the Jews, ming- manhood, while he proved himself the vention to-day adopted its platform fing with the heartfelt sorrow of his lov- Resurrection and the life. He could and elected four delegates at large to the ing friend Mary."-Plummer. "These have repressed his tears, as many do national convention and two national self-righteous Jews, now weeping and habitually. But he was never unnatugroaning in professional sorrow with ral. He was free from pride, and wore electors at large, instructed the Indiana thies. He did not merely walk about The platform adopted in addition to ficers are alleged to have been implilike a man, but he was always in touch instructing for Vice-President Fairwith sorrow, as one "acquainted with banks, indorses President Roosevelt's cause for making searches in all quargrief" Isa. 53; 3.) "Because there meets administration and urges a revision of ters of the city, in the hope of findin Jesus the tenderness of human pity the tariff by a special session of con- ing others they suspect of being inand the fulness of divine power, he sat- gress to be called early in November voived in the plot isfies the deepest cravings of our hearts, with the recommendation that con- The French Minister of Hayti, M. dressed to and unswered by the sis- In sin. sorrow, weakness, doubt or fear, gress take immediate steps to secure the Carteron, has recently shown considters. Not that Jesuse did not know, but we need sympathy But it is hard to proper data by experts. His question was indicative of what he find. What troubles us does not trouhad determined to do. 35. Jesus wept ble those about us. As our trial is pecu-Jesus was a man, and as a man He liar, so the circle of those who can symwept. He did not feel it beneath His dig- pathize with it is narrow. But what we nity to sympathize with the disressed cannot find in any human being we find and weep with those who wept. This act in Jesus." He is touched with the feel- Mrs. on the part of Christ shows His sym- ing of our infirmities (Heb. 4: 15.) But pathy and love for us. "The needs of he does more; his heart is not only pitithe whole world rese up before His ful, his hand is strong to save. And blend weil. Tears were shed by our Sav- grief. He never murmured against his jour only on the eve of His mighilest | Father's will, nor found fault with his works. It is mockery for us to weep over dispensation. The first word of his prepared to depart hastily from the city the "erring ones" and then do nothing prayer was "Father," and the first sen- as a result of a series of letters received tence a thanksgiving (v. 41.) If we can by her threatening her life and the lives ings there mingled the certainty of his look up through our tears and cry, "Fa- of her children. Guards have been placed own bitter death, the picture of the unt ther," if our first word in bereavement believing Jews, a fallen race, hasteving is praise that God loves us and hears place and Lake Shore Drive. on to a death which has no end, and all us, there is no bitterness in our grief,

The Israelites "believed to see" when in the work is being felt. When the devil of these splendid people using second-of the splendid people usi intent" that we may believe (v. 15.) If III. Words of comfort (vs. 38-40), 38, the case be desperate, when relief comes

"He that was dead came forth" (v

Rarity.

MEET DEATH.

Fire In a New York Five-Storey Tenement House.

by Giving Warning.

Fire Escapes Became Choked With Fleeing Inmates.

New York, April 3.—Three persons of Atlanta have petitioned the street | Exporters.—Not many export steers were killed, fifteen injured, some seriousitself was a prayer, "Lord, behold, he plished all in their power when the stone by, and the lives of nearly a hundred persons were endangered in a fire in a five-storey tenement house at 44 Hester street early to-day. The dead are: tition has been numerously signed and Butchers.—Choice lots and loads of Berel Weinstein, his wife and their one- the orders likely will be issued to the selected butchers' cattle, 1,100 lbs. each, their apartments on the fifth-floor.

according to the Jewish custom, taking Moses, to show that God sent him, made three policemen, who seeing the flames for the first time, must go to the clean- good, $3.65 to $4.25; common cows, $3 to according to the Jewish custom, taking place on the same day on which he died. the earth open and swallow up men in the hall, rushed through the building hand from the sleeve. A well meaning the sleeve. A well meaning feeders and Stockers.—H. & W. Murforders. Martha first heard that Jesus was com- (Num. 16, 29, 30), for the law was a ing, and, without notifying Mary, she dispensation of terror but Christ proves and aroused sixteen sleeping families. This by report a good demand for feeders, went to meet him just outside the vil- His mission by raising to life one that By that time the stairs were a mass of is not the first waist I have had spoiled few of which are coming forward, all lage (vs. 20, 30). She greeted him with was dead.—Ibid. 43. Loud voice—He flames, and the only means of exit was and my friends complain to re that having flesh of any account being taken those words of sorrowful despair—
"Lord, if thou hadst been here my brother had not died" (vs. 21, 22). But even then there was a dawn of hope in her there wa then there was a dawn of hope in her ers (Rev. 1, 15), at which all who are in women and children became wedged in know that the help is kindly meant, we cach, at $4.50 per cwt. heart, from her experience of the power their graves shall come forth (John 5, solid masses on the fire escapes. There implore them to help old women in Milkers and Springers.—Milkers of Jesus. Jesus replied with the assur28; I. Thess. 4, 16).—Abbott. "He that they stood helpless, unable to extricate black dresses. But when they see a wospringers sold at $30 to $55 each, the band, Attorney Benjamin M. Shaffner, thither she went in search of him. ance that he was "the resurrection and wept as a man now spoke as a God." themselves from the crush, and blocking man in a white or light colored waist, bulk of the best selling af an average on grounds of extreme cruelty and in- Clark, however, learned his wife was the life," and prepared her for the great | Lazarus—"He calls him by name as we | the way of those who had not yet suc. | for goodness sake let her get off by her- of $45 each. work he was about to do (vs. 23-27). cail those by their names whom we would ceeded in getting out of the building. Self and she will remember them in her Veal Calves.—The market for good to The novel, held by Mr. Shaffner to be Francisco. sured, Jesus bade her go and bring her the same individual person that died men arrived and began to run up ladders sister, with the message: "The Master shall rise again at the last day." 44. to take down the panic-stricken fugiis come and calleth for thee" (v. 28). Bound hand and foot-Probably each tives. The work moved forward slowly. Jesus seems to have avoided going to limb was separately bound, as was the In the meantime the flames had been the house, because so many Jews were Egyptian custom. Loose him-He was a constantly spreading, and the terror there. His work of comfort and instrue- healthy, strong man, and no longer need- among many at the windows and on the French ed the bandages and winding sheet. fire escapes had passed the point of self-The remainder of the chapter tells restraint. While firemen on the ladders neral lamentations, but to take away how the high priests and others in au- and others on the ground were calling out to them that there was no danger and that help would soon reach them, travellers to be indescribable. "After "Jesus wept" (v. 35.) Three times the the windows. David Miller sprang from they began, one by one, to jump from

FOR FAIRBANKS.

For Presidency.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 6 .- With its organization completed at its first ses. Rumors on the Island That Summary sion yesterday the Indiana State con-Mary, were men who would soon be his heart where men could see it. He did delegates to the national convention to of uncertainty and of unrest still pre- Potatoes, per bag..... 1 00 plotting to kill, not only Jesus, but the not desdain the feebleness of that na- vote and work persistently for the nom- vails in Port au Prince. The recent Beef, hindquarters 9 00 restored Lazarus" (compare chap. 12:10). | ture he had taken that he might redeem | ination of Vice-President, Chas. W. Fair- abortive at a second uprising here, in banks for the presidency of the United Jesus was truly human in his sympa. States, and nominated a state ticket. cavalry, and several other army of-tears suggest that weeping and working There was no bitterness in Christ's mick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, is verging on nervous collapse and has about the McCormick home at Bellevue that first moved Him to pity man, and ours is a sanetified sorrow without Theodore Thomas that a number of illwritten letters had been sent to her. warning her that the lives of herself and her children were in danger. Mrs. McCormick said that the letters had been increasing in frequency and vir-

SHE IS SCARED.

McCormick Frightened at Threats of Death.

> ----THREATENED DR. TORREY.

Hands and Daggers.

Detroit, April 6.-A letter with a representation of black hands and daggers, tion, not laid in a cemetery, but in his 22.) Jesus would not grant a miracle than ever to secure the means of exist- and states that seeding prospects have own private tomb in a cave—probably in to a simple impulse of natural affection. ence while completing their education. not been so good for years. The land a garden, the favorite place of inter- He required faith in lofty exercise, and An indigent undergraduate of Mos- is in splendid shape, and a great deal Health during the past two years has ment. Not only the rich, but others of sought to revive this in the wounded cow offers to fill cellars in summer of it is prepared. Seeding should be carried on systematic compulsory vacsmaller means, had tombs of their own. heart by the definite promise, "Thy bro- with supplies of ice and the following general by the 12th or 15th. Wheat will cination throughout the islands, with notice has been posted in the Univer- be put in more quickly this year than the result that the disease, once so presity of Tomsk: "Comrades: Why be- it has ever been done before, for the valent, is almost wholly eradicated, stow your ten-kopeck pieces on outside farmers are all ready, their machinery Statistics show that in the six proeaves, or else large walled vaults, with It is rare that we find a man who seamstresses when willing workers are is in shape and all they await is the vinces surrounding Manila, where previ-

BARBERS AND SEAMSTRESSES. How Poor Russian University Students | The Farmers in the West Ready to Begin Earn Kopeks.

author of the poster concludes with an offer of his services as a seamstress, urging that his sewing would be more conscientiously done than that of the ordinary workwomen. Another notice reads: "Comrades: Do not be surprised that I offer you my services as a barber." The amateur burber offers bis services at one-half the price charged by the professionals and guarantees the quality of his work.

FARE, PLEASE!

"Hands Off Shirt Waists," Women's Plea to Conductors.

women give as a reason that whenever worth from $5 to $5.40; bulls, $4.00 to the hands of a conductor touches a shirt 84.50, with an odd one or two of extra Book Blamed by Husband—Thinks Wife he merely was taken captive by the waist that the waist is ruined. The pe- quality at $4.75. year-old son. They were suffocated in conductors to "hands off the women." | sold at $5.15 to $5.30, and some 1,350 Sprinkle, who was instrumental in get- purposes at $5.40 to $5.60 per cwt.; loads That more lives were not lost was ting it up, says: "Today I am grieved, of good $4.80 to $5.10; medium, $4.50 to derness of plenty for a little love, a little and buried four days (v. 17), the burial, stroy men's lives, but to save them, largely due to the prompt action of for my white lace waist that I put on $4.75; common, $4.20 to $1.40; cows,

NO CONDOLENCE.

Consul at Seoul Does Ghoulish Thing.

Tokio, April 6.—Advices from Seoul are to the effect that intense indignation | ewt. has been aroused among both natives and foreigners in Seoul on account of the ing the message of condolence sent to the family of the late D. W. Stevens, The members of the club are very indignant. The British Consul-General addressed the committee, demanding the removal of the notice, because, he said, it was a disgrace for the club to use the board for such a method of expressing private malevolence. The commission unanimously decided to remove the no-

Indiana Republicans Endorse Him ANARCHY IN HAYTI.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS PREPARING . TO LAND TROOPS.

Executions Are Taking Place Almost Nightly-These Denied by the Gov- Ducks, dressed, ib... . . . 0 12 ernment.

cated, had given the Government a Veal, prime, per cwt... .. 9 00 11 00 erable alarm concerning the action the Haytien Government may take against the refugees now asylumed in the French Legation. Some of the refigees themselves state that the Mir ister has advised them to procure pistols and as much ammunition as possible to defend their lives.

There are rumors here that summary executions continue in nearby counwere present to Him."-Trench. 'His we have real sympathy with sorrow | Chicago, April 6.-Mrs. Harold McCor- the Government has had a large number of so-called prisoners in hand, an l it is reported that almost nightly some of these are taken from the prisons, transported to the country districts not very remote from the city, and shot. This the Government vehemently denies.

> SECOND-CLASS WORDS Rudyard Kipling's Criticism of the Canadian Press.

London, April 6.- Rudyard Kipling discourses on Canadian journalism in his letter in The Morning Post this week. He says that in Canada it is always delightful to meet reporters, for the sales were curtailed five days, caus- rant for the arrest of Mr. Shaffner on a with the keen and unselfish interest one finds in young house surgeons or civilians, "One felt at every turn of their quick sentences that he was dealing with made and trained players of the 20 per cent.; fine merino showed a game, balanced men who believed in loss of 71-2 to 10 per cent., and other decencies that were not to be disregard- merinos 15 to 20 per cent., while Cape

---LAND IN FINE SHAPE.

St. Petersburg, April 6.-Poor uni- Winnipeg, April 6.- James Argue,

Live Stock. Receipts of live stock at the city marrailways, were 67 car loads, composed of cinations. 1,187 cattle, 806 hogs, 120 sheep and 90

A few good cattle, with many common LOVE AUTHOR to medium, met a fairly active market, but not as brisk as it was on Tuesday, on account of their being no dealers from Atlanta, Ga., April 6.-Many women outside points.

car company to order conductors not to were on saie, but prices in the same assist women on and off the cars. The as on Tuesday. Export steers would be

Speaking of the petition, Mrs. Maria | lb. exporters were bought for butcher and lights and fats at $5.75 to $5.85 per himself to the inevitable.

The receipts of grain to-day small, only 100 bushels of barley ing, and it sold at 60c a bushe Hay quiet and steady, with sales

Farmers' Market.

15 loads at $18 to $20 a ton. Straw is nominal at $16.50 a ton. Dressed hogs are in limited supply, with prices firm. Light sold at $8 to $8.25, and heavy at $7.75.

Wheat, white, bush$0 94	8 0
Do., red, bush 0 94	0
Do., spring, bush 0 92	0
Oats, bush 0 53	. 0
Barley, bush 0 60	0
Peas, bush 0 90	0
Hay, timothy, ton 18 00	20
Straw, per ton 16 50	0
Seeds-buyers-
Alsike, No. 1 bu 11 00	0
Do. No. 2, bush 9 50	10
Red clover, No. 1 12 50	13
Timothy, 100 lbs 7 25	8
Dressed hogs 7 75	8
Eggs, new laid, dozen 0 19	0
Dutten delan 0.00

Butter, dairy..... 0 28 Do., creamery..... 0 32 Chickens, per lb. 0 13 Turkeys, per lb. ... 0 18 Apples, per barrel 1 50 Do., forequarters..... 6 00 Do., choice, carcase 8 50 Do., medium, carcase .. 6 50 Mutton, per ewt... 9 00 10 00

Lamb, per cwt 13 50	15 00
Live Poultry Wholesale.
Turkeys, young	to 8
Chickens fancy, large 0 14	0 15
Fow1 0 12	0 13
Squabs, per dezen 9 00	9 00

OTHER MARKETS. Sugar Market.

St. Lawrence sugars are quoted as follows: Granulated, $4.90 in barrels, and No. 1 golden, $4.50 in barrels. These prices are for delivery; car lots 5c less. Winnipeg Wheat Market.

on Winnipeg grain futures: Wheat-April $1.07 1-4 bid, May $1.09 1-4 bid, July $1.12 asked.

London.-London cables are steady at 11 to 13c per pound, dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 91-2e per London Wool Sales.

London.-The second series of the 1908 will be straightened out in time."

wool auction sales ended to-day. From Mrs. Shaffner asked an order restrain. eacd and prices dropped, and although her at her home. She also asked a waring an improved demand and a firm charge of threatening to kill her. crossbreds declined 71-2 to 10 per cent., her bed, suffering from a severe attack medium 15 to 20 per cent., and coarse of nervous prostration. to-day's sales 8,834 bales were offered. the imaginery text of the Kaiser-Lord The small selection sold readily at harden- Tweedmouth letters, and a leading niches along the sides. In such caves or brags about having sense enough to ac- plenty at the university, who can sew proper date on which to begin opera- ously deaths ran as high as six thousand hast year. It is estimated that the nun chipelagoa, including the Moro provinces, have been reduced by ten thoueand annually compared with former

THOUSANDS OF LIVES SAVED.

Since the compulsory law there have been slightly exceeding six million vaccirations, with the remarkable result that no deaths, no maining and no com plaints are due to virus injection. The best previous record was in Germany, 35 ket since Tuesday, as reported by the deaths in less than three million vac sympathy, a tender thought, a fond caress. Do this, and I swear I'll worship vicie for her as long as he lived." On you, love you, live for you, die for you." her request and on the promise of Members of the Social Economics Club, choice veal calves was strong at $6 to $7 | the cause of the separation, aroused com- | From the Pacific coast he jumped to per cwt.; common to medium calves sold ment when first published, concerning a little town in Maine, attempting to how far it revealed the domestic affairs cover his tracks. But his wife proved Sheep and Lambs.-Yearling lambs of of the writer. Suzanne, the heroine, who to be a skilful detective and it was good to choice quality sold at $7.50 to may or may not have points in common on y a few weeks before she located $8 per cwt.; common. $5.50 to $6.50 per with Mrs. Shaffner herself, runs away him in the east. Then he went to ewt.; export ewes, $5 to $5.25; rams, with a socialisticaly inclined clergyman. New York and from there to Pitts-$4 to $4.50 per cwt.; spring lambs, $4 who deserts his wife and child. Suz- burg, and in order to Cleveland, Inanne's husband is depicted as a money dianapolis, Louisville: Finally he-Hogs.-Hog prices have again ad- mad person, who does not understand landed in Chicago. vanced. Mr. Harris quotes selects at $6, her "fine sensitiveness," and resigned Mrs. Clark pushed on, stopping in

SUIT CAUSES LILLYAN SHAFFNER'S FRIENDS TO PERUSE NOVEL.

She Created.

"The man stared at her with a puzzled street. frown. 'Don't you expect to come back?' so immediately she started walking "When I leave your house to-day I from Sixty-fifth street to Twelfth shall never return to it again.' "'What for?' he cried, in dismay.

What are you going to do that for?" have no desire to prolong the agony." "'Why, you're joking; you're just trying to frighten me. Run along to bed, now, like a good little girl, and I'll writeyou a cheque when I get to the office." "'I don't want the cheque."

"You want the last word.' His mirthless laughter jarred her nerves sadly." The action of Mrs. Shaffner yesterday differed in several respects from that of | if I have spent all this time and trav-Instead of leaving her home she compelled her husband to leave. torney Shaffner made $15,000 a year from his law practice, causing the impression she would ask for alimony. She did not clope, but asked for legal

Mrs. Shaffner's charges against her husband were brief. She averred in her petition that during last May he became violently angered at her, and to protect her life she was compelled to barricade herself in a servant's room, and while the attorney tried to break through the door she telephoned the town hall police for assistance. A revolver with which

Society people knew when the novel was offered the public that a separation narrowly was averted in the Shaffner migration inspector, leaves to-morrow household. The attorney, it is said, ob- to establish a rigid system of inspecjected strenuously to his wife publishing

"It's all a joke," said Mr. Shaffner in his office yesterday "It is as much a surprise to me as any one. This morning when I left home I kissed my wife good-by. She seemed happy. The next thing I knew I was served with notice of the filing of the lakes to the Atlantic seaboard. suit. I honestly do not know what it "Was I cruel to her? Never in my life. I always have tried to be good to her. Why, we have been living together and tried to prevent its issue?" the bottom of the trouble. But it all a hesitating opening competition slack- ing her husband from interfering with tone, the closing prices were lower when At her home, 808 Pine Grove avenue, it | New York Corporation Counsel Tells jokes as usual. One of them printed upon by the court." ing rates. Americans bought South Aus- paper, the Taglische Rundschau, fell into the trap, reproducing the letters Club to Decide the Point Organized at Berliner Zeitung's joke took the form of a fictitious cable despatch from Remarkable Results From Vaccination Washington to the effect that the Sen. Earth Exploring Club, New York, filed

NOTHING DOING.

Photographer-Madam, would you taken with the cathode rays?

CATCHES HIM IN CHICAGO AFTER WALKING CITY THREE MONTHS.

Mrs. Clark Real Sieach-Couple Will Begin Over Again ... hotning dad Happened.

Chicago, April 6.- Mrs. Martha Clark travelled more than 0,000 miles, visited nine cities, and searched through them, and then came to Unicage and walked Haisted street aroun Twelfth to Sixty-fifth and back unity for three months in search of her husband, Frank, who had deserted, her in Kansas City, Aas., three years ago. She found him and still loves

She had him arrested Sunday night Was Swayed by Fiction Characters police in order that he might not run away again before she could have a chance to talk to him. This she did vesterday a few minutes previous to their appearance before Municipal Judge Scovel. Mrs. Clark's entreaties or wonderful determination moved her husband and he offered to "take her and pro-Clark the judge dismissed the charge following him and departed to San her search only long enough to earn Her friends turned to another passage enough money for her to continue. in which Suzanne tells her husband she Three months ago she arrived here is going to leave him, never to return, after having been notified that her She neglects to inform him the clergy- husband had been seen in a Halsted man also is going. The novel then pro- street car: She decided that he probabiv lived somewhere along Haisted street on Halsted. After three months of these daily strolls she finally located her husband Sunday evening at "Because life is unbearable, and T 6 o'clock standing at sixty-fifth and Haisted streets. Mrs. Clark, fearing he might recognice her and flee before she could have a talk with him, went into a drug store nearby and called up the Englewood police. Clark was standing idly on the corner when detectives took him in charge "I love my husband and no matter elled so many miles I want to live with him," she said vesterday. would go to the world's end to be She asserted in her petition that At. with him. He has consented to settle down, and I think we can be happy, He is a good man, but of a nervous temperament.

"I haven't any relatives and only one friend in the world besides him. He intends to go back to his trade and we will begin all over again just as if nothing had happened. Cark is 35 years old, of muscular physique, and good appearance. He refused to discuss his wife's pursuit

TO BAR OUT UNDESIRABLES

he threatened to shoot her, she said, was Inspection Stations to be Established Along the U. S. Boundary. Vancouver, April 6.-Dr. Monro, im-tion at points on the boundary to prevent the indiscriminate influx of Ori entals and Europeans, morally and physically unfit, from the States into Canada. At fourteen different points between Vancouver and the great lakes stations will be established to connect with others from the great

DUG DEAD FROM A SNOWBANK

Following are the closing quotations right along and everything seemed to be day afternoon the feet of a man were noticed sticking out of a snowbank on "But people say her book, 'Susanne,' the side of the C. P. R. track, about caused the trouble in your family; that a mile and a half south of Lovering. Oats-April 42 1-2e bid, May 44c asked, you objected to the moral of the novel, and on clearing the snow way, the body of a man, supposed to be an "Yes, that is undoubtedly the whole Austrian, about 24 or 25 years of age. trouble. It must be the book. She prob. was brought forth. The body had eviably has thought too much about it, dently been there a couple of months living over the characters in her mind, and was badly decomposed. A deep I have not had an opportunity to get to | cut in the back of the neck was the cause of death, the spinal cord being severed. Foul play is suspected, as small money bag and belt were found near the body.

> ---OSTEOPATHS NOT REGULAR. Board His Opinion.

New York, April 6.—The corporation counsel has rendered an opinion to the ate was bringing pressure to bear on a certificate of incorporation with the President Roosevelt to appoint J. Pier. Secretary of State to-day. The club is pont Morgan Ambassador to Germany, organized to explore the Arctic and Antarctic regions, "to the end that the truth or falsity of the proposition or theory advanced by W. R. Reed, that not like a picture of your hysband established with absolute certainty." the earth is a hollow sphere, may be Mrs. Rounder—Oh, no; I'm able to bert Operti, F. M. Ashley, J. K. now, thanks, quite well enough Erskine, jun., and W. S. Roekey, all of New York.

-IS THE EARTH HOLLOW? New York.

CHAPTI

Neville Lynne leaned and, wiping the pers face, gazed in a rumir melancholy, fashion ac It was not a part view; in fact, it was be imagined, and wou seene in our own Engl points, and beaten it an Australian gold fie plain, which would h any time, but was re palling by the dirt. and poverty of a digge

The wun had been a this cheerful prospect. of what had seemed a was now sinking in atoke up for the next There were a few trees not a parched lenf of bird or two flew list waste, but dropped wai to the scorehing rock tent poles. If they ha molested them, for ev tired, too dead beat A group of horses, out under their skins Gothic cathedral, stoo remained of the rive zounds that broke the of this aggravating, were the click of a r the listless bark of a again a feeble shout gregor's grog tent, who drowning care, and not with the liquid which with a facetion, ess all praise, called "whi Lorn Hope Camp wa on its luck. There ravine, everybody be did, but for some week succeeded in finding heat what remained o

would have up sticks

some other Hope less the purpose, sapped 1 nearly all, and the m Camp still clung on, di aleeping often, quarrel drinking whiskey alwa Neville Lynne's "clai of the ravine, half an the camp at which he but of planks and ca fittle distance, and m Meth, as short for Byed. "Had," for th

Neville's partner, disg of bad luck, had cle parted. Why Neville Lynee be could not have told resence of this hidde no stronger than that gers, and as certainly to love the hideous, stricken plain; but sor ing he could not have had depended upon made him reluctant Hope, and there he sti tery and most utterly of his barren claim. of the sun spitefully head, and the flies There were two re Lynne's claim was at camp. The first was and, because he was rest of the men who

To put it shortly

he was very your looked, a mere lad was a gentleman, st camp were not. Now, the one gent of blacklegs, lags, ro always regarded by amount of envy, main And yet, though with a groundless dis. gether groundless ent him. There was no ate, dare-devil among more pluck than t was called. He was, language, "all grit," i he was as ready wh his fists as any or still at leaving off. "gone for him" with so offectively shown easily, and though civil and courteous "sociable."

> disappointments, w. ٠٠٠٠

Even with his pay

Consur Certain will result Hope, Emulst ቅቅቅቅቅ