Che Durham Review

THURSDAY, APRIL 9. 1908

TOPICS OF THE WEEK

-Militia general orders warn the members of the various volunteer corps that they must not be surprised if they have to travel to Quebec next July in frieght cars That seems hard at first plance, but as July comes along there will be thousands of Canadians who would be willing to get to Quebec even in cattle cars.

-The customs revenue of Canada for the fiscal year, which closed March 31, reached a total of $57,866,632, an increase of $6,054,033 over last year, when the total revenue was $51,812,599. On the other hand the customs receipts for the month of March showed a decrease of $745, 434. as compared with March, 1907. The month's receipts were $4.356,102. The decrease is due largely to the caution with which business men are conducting their operations this spring.

-Trustee Levee forward seconder on the Toronto Board of Education for a motion to dismiss all Roman Catholic teachers and employ no more of that faith. They found no supporters to the credit of the Board. The action of the two trustees is of a piece with that of Dr. Sproule M P., who wanted to know the creed of all the government employes at Ottawa! adopting, and following up in these lines would lead the country back to the middle ages.

- Hon Mr. Whitney brought in his new scheme for the epresentation of Toronto. It is a novelty. Two members are still to run for each division but the positions are to be distinguished as A and B divisions, with a separate ballot for each. He wants it tried for one year anyway but it is going to lead to curious results where there may be Socialists, Labor or Independent men running alongside the usual party men. One result may easily turn up; the defeated, say on the A division, may have more notes than the highest on B. which will look at v riance with majority rule. Why the government is giving Ottawa separate constituencies, and will not treat Toronto in the same way, seems an inconsistent thing. One member for one constituency one would think is one safe

Political Wisdom.

Some people think that the spread of temperance sentiment and the expatient, persevering intelligent work.
The growth has been gradual, but the work has been done in a practical

In Ontario we see this history being repeated. Our Legislators and others have belittled and ignored public sentiment. They cannot longer safely do so, for the awakened, in 1907 in the Province of Ontario by enlightened temperance sentiment of Honorable Mr. Monteith, proved so

When the people of the Province of Ontario five years ago declared by a majority of ninety-six thousand that the bar-room should be abolished, they meant it. They mean it more strongly to-day. It will be political wisdom to cease to put hindrances in the way of the progress of this reform but rather to help it in every manner they were held, and the results were possible.—Pioneer.

Misrepresenting the Finances,

Political honesty is a virtue that invariably distinguishes the really serviceable statesman, and, according s the standard of public morality is nigh or low, so is it prized. Sir Wil-Foster, at every turn in his career, nas shown himself to lack it utterly No more salient illustration of his want of it could be found than the casuistical manner and method of his A Dollar for criticism of the budget, in which he expended six hours in industriously endeavoring to misrepresent the condition of the country's finances. On- Would be a great bargain. So are ly a glance over his speech is needed however, to detect some of the incondistencies that saltify his main con-tentions. Good dwelling, frame bank barn,

His primary object was to create he impression that taxation had increased under the Liberals. He good frame dwelling-other good knew, of course, as well as any member on the Government benches that the rate of taxation had been substantially reduced; but instead of honestly admitting that the increased r venue was due to the increased y lume of trade upon which it was levied, he represented the increased earning power of the taxes as being an increased burden on the people. His manner was as na Ve at that of a nutle child. He recites the growth of the revenue from 1896 until the present time and then dramatically

Mixed ready for use. They are Pure Linseed Oil Paints and the White Lead used in their manufacture is Brandram's B. B. Genuine. They are superior to any liquid paint on the market to-day, and if properly applied, are guaranteed to give satisfaction. Full directions accompany each can.

You may buy cheaper and poorer paints, but it is a case of being 'penny wise, and pound foolish.' Low Price indicates poor quality in a commodity so subject to competition as Mixed Paint.

Count your paint cost by years of wear, not by first outlay only. It costs just as much and sometimes more for labor to apply cheap poor paint to your house as it does to apply

Crop Competitions in Standing Grain.

The Crop Competition in standing the Province of Ontario is too strong beneficial to all concerned that the Minister has, this year, secured a largely increased appropriation for

The objects aimed at are to encourage the growing of grain of the best quality, free from other varieties of grain and weeds and also from diseases, such as rust, smut and insects. The competition excited much in terest last year in the districts where decidedly profitable to those who were prize winners, inasmuch as without leaving home they sold their grain from the fields which were in the competition to leading Seedsmen at prices from 25 per cent to 50 per cent above market quotations. This year, owing to the larger sum
