CHESELY LAYNER FREE.—A Chesley barrister, Mr. A. D. George was arrested Thursday week charged with the theft of three certificates for 30 shares of stock in the Silver Bar Mining Co. from Ed. E. Hale, of Toronto. At the trial last Thursday, the charges were acknowledged to be foundationless, Mr. Hale admitted his mistake, and George is entirely freed.

Mayor Krug, Reeve Crow, and councillor Grant returned from Montreal on Monday evening, having with them the Southampton delegation had an interview with Vice President McNichol re C. P. K. line between Durham and Southampton via Chesley. While no new work will be undertaken in 1908, Mr. McNichol promised to have a surveyor go over the proposed line this summer.—Chesley Enterprise.

WILL CONDUCT TAILORING DEPT.—Mr. Harry Barnett, having lately purchased the tailoring business of Mr. Flarity, is running it in connection with his Gent's Furnishing establishment, and has engaged Mr. Moran, of Toronto, a practical tailor and cutter with eighteen years of successful experience, to take charge of this department. With such a capable manager in charge, Mr. Barnett can assure his patrons first class work in all styles, fit in both suits and coats, in styles ever up to date.

TAKEN TO OWEN SOUND.—The young lad, Britton whom we briefly referred to last week as having shipped out to Mt. Forest after stealing a watch, pipe and tobacco from McArthur's store where he was clerking 7 weeks, was sent to one month in goal. Constable Carson made the arrest after considerable searching for him in Mt. Forest and drove a boy to Owen Sound Thursday. Only the Mt. Forest store, Mr. McArthur, who was still disposed to be lenient with him, saved him from a 30 days' sentence. Since then Mrs. McArthur has discovered a few other missing articles and it is the prevailing opinion that the 3 mos. or an even longer term would be no more than justice for the ungrateful lad.

C. L. A. ANNUAL MEETING.—The expected happened in Toronto Good Friday, when J. M. Kearns, of Arthur, was elected President of the C. L. A. by a majority of 17 over his Toronto opponent, Mr. J. S. Bailey. The great feature of the convention was the adoption of the new residence rule for the intermediate series, which has been often advocated, and is expected to practically abolish professionalism in the C. L. A. outside of the senior ranks. The new regulation in short provides that every player in the intermediate series shall be a bonafide and continuous resident of the city, town or village in which his club is situated from the first day of January in that year except when a player lives in a rural district, in which case he may play for his nearest club. Any student student from home may elect whether he will play with his home club or that of the town or city in which he is attending school. Paper clubs organized for voting purposes will also be in future done away with. This season, the first break in a great number of years, it is not the intention to place a Durham lacrosse team in the field, and baseball will flourish here this summer instead. Hanover's intermediate team has we learn, fallen through, and our sister town will have only the Junior club in the race.

Many Bargains in Boots and Shoes at S. F. Morlock's.

Highest price and cash paid for Butter and Eggs at Mrs. Beggs'. A fine assortment of ladies' Underwear at KATE COCHRANE'S, opposite Scott's store.

Dr. Brown, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, will be at Hahn Hotel Durham on 2nd and 4th Saturday in each month. Hours 12 to 6 p. m. Eyes tested and Glasses supplied.

FOR 50 CTS.—To new subscribers more than half the season's output has already been contracted for.

CEMENT WORKS GOING AGAIN.—Sunday last for the first time this season smoke was seen issuing from the rotary furnaces indicating that the great works were again in full swing and ready for some time and we believe more than half the season's output has already been contracted for.

Obituary.

WM. LAWSON, SR.

On Friday last at the home of his brother in Brampton the above gentleman passed over to the greater here. He was 60 years of age. He was a native of the county in the kidneys. Nine or ten years ago he was near death from health and strength again under the treatment of Dr. Gunn. He had been visiting his son Robert in Milton for about three weeks and had bought a horse and buggy to drive home here. He got as far as his brother's, in Brampton on a chilly day and this may have brought on the illness.

Deceased was born in the Gore of Toronto some months over 70 years ago and in 1855, with his young wife, moved into "the bush" settling on a farm at Hutton Hill from which in 1880, he moved to the farm north of Durham, where his son William now resides.

His wife was Georgina Burgess, sister of the well-known Jas and Gordon Burgess, and to them were born six children, William and Robert now of Toronto, a practical tailor and cutter, Milton, Mrs. Wm. Edige, Mrs. Josephine Burgess, (now deceased) and Mrs. Irwin, in the North West. These, with two brothers of the deceased, in one in Brampton and the other in Milton, will mourn his loss, as will also Mr. John Graham, a grand-daughter, who grew up with him and to whom he was much attached.

Not long after coming here he engaged drawing lumber with the late Mr. Robert D. Gish, and subsequently for three years in the employ of the firm of A. & A. Cochrane, Alex. Cochrane, Fleury and others. Reliable far from that he remained on the farm until a few years ago when he moved with his son Robert to Milton and has been here and there at intervals ever since.

Deceased served for some years on the Board of License Commissioners, and as a Director of S. Grey Agricultural Society in which he took a great interest; his work and influence was very valuable.

Mr. Lawson was for many years an active worker in the Presbyterian church here, and was a man of intelligence and force of character. Many of the immediate circle of direct mourners will long remember the deceased gentleman.

His remains were brought home on Saturday and rested in his son's house until the funeral on Monday afternoon when they were interred in the west. Rev. Mr. Farquharson conducted services at home and grave many old neighbors and friends being present.

The pall bearers were his two sons, Mr. Wm. Edige, son-in-law, and three nephews, Mr. Joseph Lawson, Insurance agent, Guelph, Dr. John W. Brant, who attended him assiduously on his death bed and Mr. John Hutton of Walkerton.

THOS. DERBY

Last week at the home of his daughter in Egremont, the above gentleman passed away. He was for many years a resident of Normandy and was well known around town of recent years. He was a kindly genial nature which latterly led him into erratic habits. He has relatives in Egremont and Normandy highly respected but we have not full particulars at this writing.

The Reform Convention.

Miller for the Commons. McConnel for the Legislature.

Splendid weather favored the Reform Convention of Tuesday last and in one of the largest and best conventions of recent years. The upper hall was filled and a number standing at the door when the speaking began.

President McConnel made an appropriate opening address, welcoming the delegates and dilating on the advantages we enjoy, and the opportunities are ours in this free country.

Secy. Ramage gave a report of the steps taken by the Executive since received and adopted. After the Auditing of officers was proceeded with, resulting as follows:

President—Dr. Mearns; 1st Vice-Pres.—Donald McKinnon; 2nd Vice-Pres.—S. Knechtel; 3rd Vice-Pres.—Geo. Binnie; Secy.—Wm. Calder; Auditors—John H. Hunter, Dan McDougall.

The foregoing with the following municipality representatives from the Executive: D. McDougall, Bentinck; J. S. Knechtel, Hanover; R. W. Walden, Neustadt; Mich. E. Murray, Normandy; Walter Egremont; Wm. McMurdo, Proton; J. D. Morgan, Dundald; Wm. J. G. Glen; J. P. Telford, Durham.

THE NOMINATIONS.

There was a general and strong feeling that Dr. Mearns should be the candidate for the local but that gentleman, while acknowledging and recognizing the depth of the feeling, fully, to decline the nomination. A number of other candidates were then and with few exceptions, all making brief speeches in the field to Mr. Neil McConnel, at last without a vote being taken and no dissenting voice, a result that was received with hearty and prolonged applause.

The nominations for the Dominion House was a proceeding soon settled by the re-nomination of Mr. H. H. Miller by a unanimous voice and great applause.

This business over and the candidate elect having acknowledged the honor gracefully, the interest of the Hon. A. G. Mead in the speech of the Hon. A. G. Mead, who had come to the next previous.

The talented leader was in fine trim, and in his forceful, logical style held the undivided attention of the large audience for over an hour. He touched on the Redistribution Bill which characterizes as the most unprincipled and effective gerrymander yet perpetrated in Canada. He reminded the young portion of his audience of the young redistribution of 1874 and 1885, and though the Liberals might have and more had they chosen. Changes had been made besides at these two times to give Toronto and New Ontario better representation.

These occasions were called for, but he scathingly, and we think even unbiased persons would say effectively, denounced the Whitney government for their want of trust in the constituencies that gave them their majority. When a redistribution would be called for in a few years by the decennial census anyway.

He outlined the British practice in such matters showing how far Mr. Whitney had travelled from it, in spite of his claim that he was "honorary." He showed how far he travelled from his own standards as laid down in a bill brought in by Dr. Jamieson in 1902, when in opposition which proposed reduction of members to 60, redistribution once in 10 years, and Judges to settle the boundaries.

Mr. Whitney had stated that "the main reason or basis of this bill is equality of population," yet in at least two instances he showed in Cardwell and Middlesex, that of two ridings, the already smaller one was made smaller to increase the larger. Even the Conservative "World" had said Whitney had lowered himself by using his big majority to do things like this.

He then showed up the grotesque plan adopted for the representation of Toronto, by giving voters two votes for two candidates, classed as A and B, while in the country they had to be content with the good old Liberal principle "one man one vote."

Most effective was his strictures on the automobile bill, which Mr. Hanna, the "shrewdest of the Ministers," had succeeded in blocking. The bill, brought in by a Liberal member, had aimed to provide amongst other features, that autoists should stop at 100 yds. distance when meeting a horse, should keep off the roads all the Saturdays and Sundays from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. However it was emasculated in committee, and when in the House, an attempt was made to terminate the Saturday clause, and have the year and day recorded, the effort had been blocked by the Speaker, who ruled, he only saw four members standing when there must be five. It was pointed out there was five but he insisted there were only four. MacKay can name the five, but by this arbitrary proceeding, the country is deprived from knowing just who does and who doesn't believe the roads belong to those who make them. "I do not seriously object to the Premier

With the License Commissioners

Last Thursday, the South Grey Licensing Board, met in Inspector Davis' office here with an uninvited attendance of outsiders anxious to see the outcome of the petition against the Allan Park Hotel.

There were the usual number of applications, even the three from Durham in. The minutes were read and one of the items showed at last meeting of the Board the hotel at Allan Park and Elmwood had got a referendum as to accommodation.

Mr. Davis pointed out an error in the petition as coming from No. 3 Insp. Subdivision, while the hotel was in No. 4, but as Chairman Catton clearly showed no weight could be attached to this clerical error, since the petitioners were in the same division. There were 30 good names on the list while the law requires 10.

Mr. Jas. Whyte and Mr. Hopkins spoke for the petition, both being residents testifying that the signers signed readily and many more sympathized with the movement but field Mr. Whyte claimed in answer to a charge that a glut was as bad as a necessity but a drinking bar was not. Mr. Hopkins disclaimed, as did all, any personal animus in the matter. He had seen evil effects of the drink in the railway construction period.

Revs. Newton and Rogers both corroborated this testimony. Mr. Newton pointed out that Durham being under Local Option, there would ensue a viciousness round Allan Park owing to the drink being sold in Durham finding their way there upon the hotel beyond the power of the hotel return to manage. They would then return to Durham, discrediting the law. If said Mr. Newton, Mr. Wells were not there, not half a dozen would sign for a hotel there, and the necessary was less now than when the new railway was going through. The own books of past years that more than one objection had been lodged against the hotel.

Mr. Thos. Brigham had known Mr. Wells for years and found him a good citizen. Mr. Wells claimed he should not be punished for sins of his predecessors. Mr. Wells, the new store keeper feared his business would be injured if hotel was removed, travellers unwilling to come, &c.

Mr. Wellington thought they had no business to bring in railway troubles, the petition was sprung upon them, and besides it said nothing about compensation! Mr. Catton showed that numerous hotels had been cut off and no compensation. The license being yearly one it could not be taken away if not granted. There was neither reason nor right that they should grant a license there, they were there against 30. Granting a license was molesting the spirit of the law and the law-makers. The petitioners dreaded the influx of the wild element from Durham, where Local Option was sure to go in force. Then there was no counter petition.

Mr. Weinert thought the unsigned portion of the ward showed that 30 who moved in the matter had prior claims.

We understand Mr. Wells has been given a three months' extension of his license.

ANGUS MCKELVIE, M. P. P.—It will sound alright we find. The title is not yet earned, but we believe the popular ex-mayor of New Liskeard will clinch it at the coming election. His many friends here were delighted to read in the Globe the account of his nomination by the new Liberal party for the near Temiskaming district, and they will be delighted to hear on the night of the election, that he has been successful. He comes by his liberalism naturally for his father, not so many years ago, and even yet, can put up a stiff Liberal argument. We congratulate our old friend and his parents here.

NOTES.

Dr. Mearns makes an ideal chairman. Amongst the names offered for nomination were Geo. Binnie, D. McDougall, A. Wenger, Wm. Calder, R. Morice, Walter Hastie, Don McQueen, J. P. Telford, M. E. Murray and J. S. Knechtel.

The Legislation of the past session was in some of its features enough to make British blood boil.—Hastie.

"Never a better Convention; never a time S. Grey could be so easily won."—Calder.

"Don't forget that supporting Dr. Jamieson is supporting the Whitney government."—Mike Murray.

"I don't thank my mover and second."—J. S. Knechtel.

"I would be willing to be sacrificed again for the party."—W. Irvine.

"In accepting this nomination I am not sacrificing my independence, and if Liberals don't do right, I will try to put them right."—McConnel.

"I am glad to be with you and to look the old guard in the face.—The government have made a very poor record."—Wenger.

"Your brilliant member H. H. Miller, who is in the running for higher honors."—Mackay.

"The strength of a party is sometimes its weakness."—Miller.

Flesherton will celebrate the 1st of July this year in a monster trades procession, foot-ball, horse-racing, &c., ending up with an evening concert.
