

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON V.—MAY 3, 1908.

Our Heavenly Home—John 14: 1-31.

Commentary.—I. Jesus tells of His Father's Home (vs. 1-3). Let not your hearts be troubled—Jesus, the trainer, had left the company and Jesus had just told Peter that he would deny Him that very night.

II. Whom do you trust? (vs. 4-14). Jesus tells of His Father's Home (vs. 1-3). Let not your hearts be troubled—Jesus, the trainer, had left the company and Jesus had just told Peter that he would deny Him that very night.

III. The coming of Christ. I will come again (vs. 14). Jesus tells of His Father's Home (vs. 1-3). Let not your hearts be troubled—Jesus, the trainer, had left the company and Jesus had just told Peter that he would deny Him that very night.

tion of men, his hatred of sin and love of goodness, had seen the Father in these same respects.

IV. Faith and prayer will be rewarded (vs. 12-14). I pray for you that you may be able to keep yourselves from falling.

V. Jesus comforts the disciples (vs. 15-31). Jesus asks them to show their love to him by his obedience and he promises to send the Comforter to abide with them for ever.

PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS. I. Command. "Let not your heart be troubled" (v. 1). The disciples were to suffer much.

II. Comfort. "I go to prepare a place for you" (v. 2). In the hour of his death Jesus said to his disciples: "Think of me when you are lying in bed."

III. The coming of Christ. I will come again (vs. 14). Jesus tells of His Father's Home (vs. 1-3). Let not your hearts be troubled—Jesus, the trainer, had left the company and Jesus had just told Peter that he would deny Him that very night.

IV. Co-workers with God. "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also" (v. 12). Jesus bids us point the way to the perishing; in earnest, throbbing words to testify to the power of a holy life.

V. Confidence. "Whatever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do" (v. 14). St. Alexander's court was a poor philosopher. At one time, being in peculiarly straightened circumstances, he applied to him to the treasurer with a commission to give him whatever he asked.

VI. The resurrection. They had not seen the substance of a commission to give him whatever he asked. St. Alexander's court was a poor philosopher. At one time, being in peculiarly straightened circumstances, he applied to him to the treasurer with a commission to give him whatever he asked.

PERUNA IN THE HOME

RESIDENCE AND PHOTO OF J. E. CARSON, TORONTO, CAN.

Mr. J. E. Carson, 218 St. Clares Ave., Toronto, Canada, Inspector London Life Insurance Co., London, Canada, writes:

"I have used the popular remedy known as Per-ru-na, and I can testify as to its merits. I regard it as one of the best tonics now on the market."

Toronto is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It is a city of homes and churches, a city of intelligence and good government.

Peruna can boast of being a fixture in over a million of such happy homes on this continent, where it is used for the petty ailments that afflict the family.

Coughs and colds, catarrh of the head and throat, sore throat in various forms, disturbances of digestion, catarrh of the stomach, and other internal ailments. These ailments, petty in themselves, are often the beginning of very serious diseases.

A dose or two of Peruna taken in the beginning may quickly avert tedious and even fatal illness.

Head Stopped Up. Mr. G. W. Martin, Hartford, Ontario, writes: "I have been troubled with catarrh for a long time."

Lungs and Bronchial Tubes. Mr. J. C. Hervus Pelletier, Dept. of Agriculture, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "The Peruna is particularly efficacious in the cure of catarrhal affections of the lungs and bronchial tubes."

Flywheel Burst. Chicago, April 27.—The bursting of a flywheel at the plant of the North Shore Electric Light Co. at Waukegan, Ill., last night caused the death of two men and probably fatally injured two others.

Two Men Were Killed and Two Others May Die. Belt Caught Fire But Engine Was Kept Running.

Chicago, April 27.—The bursting of a flywheel at the plant of the North Shore Electric Light Co. at Waukegan, Ill., last night caused the death of two men and probably fatally injured two others.

House Wrecked. Oakland, Cal., April 27.—An attempt was made on the life of J. D. Gallagher, one of the main witnesses for the prosecution, last night at the home of William H. Schneck, his brother-in-law, at East 20th street, and 19th avenue, East Oakland.

Tolstoi's Summing Up. Life is a Dream; Death an Awakening. Paris, April 27.—I know with certainty that in dying I shall be happy.

A Dash for Liberty. St. John, N. B., April 27.—A Chinese who was held by order of the customs here, made a bid dash for liberty today.

MARRIAGE OF YOUTHFUL CANADIAN IN NEW YORK CANNOT BE ANNULLED.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Mr. William Farwell, of Sherbrooke, Que., president of the Eastern Townships Bank, arranged here to-day in answer to a message from his grandfather, the marriage of his grandchild, Florence Farwell, to Mr. G. H. McEwen, a medical student of Glasgow.

THE POPE AND THE PEASANTS. Promises Financial Aid to 4,000 Starved People.

ROME, April 27.—The Pope to-day gave an audience to 1,600 fever-stricken peasants from the Roman campagna. His Holiness made a speech to them, expressing affection for the poor and lowly, and promising them the help of the Holy See.

OBSERVATORY DESTROYED. Acadian University Suffers by Work of Incendiarists.

HALIFAX, April 27.—The astronomical observatory of Acadia University at Wolfville was burned to the ground last night between 10 and 11 o'clock. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin, as the telescope and other instruments were found piled in a heap to the windward of the building.

WILL BE RE-MARRIED. Marriage of Youthful Canadian in New York Cannot be Annulled.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Mr. William Farwell, of Sherbrooke, Que., president of the Eastern Townships Bank, arranged here to-day in answer to a message from his grandfather, the marriage of his grandchild, Florence Farwell, to Mr. G. H. McEwen, a medical student of Glasgow.

THE POPE AND THE PEASANTS. Promises Financial Aid to 4,000 Starved People.

FAITHFUL SERVANT.

King Edward's Tribute to His Late Premier. Laid Foundation of United South Africa, Says Kotika.

LONDON, April 27.—The most faithful servant of his country is an sorry he has gone," is the expression King Edward used on hearing at Copenhagen of the death of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, and it expresses the deep feeling of regret for a personal loss, underlying the tributes given in unending measure by public men and newspapers of all shades of opinion.

That all are ready to admit that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was not a great statesman is not allowed to detract from the volume, the warmth, or the sincerity of these tributes to his memory.

Gen. Louis Botha, Premier of the Transvaal, telegraphed a warm tribute, saying: "The Empire loses one of its wisest statesmen and the Transvaal one of its truest friends."

The Chronicle in an editorial this morning, says: "He was one of the examples of public life often afforded by the dominions of the British Empire."

It was by force of character rather than by intellectual genius or emotional fervor, that he led his party to unprecedented victory.

John E. Redmond, telegraphing his condolence on behalf of his party, says: "We are glad that Ireland has lost a brave and considerate statesman."

Mr. G. G. Balfour, Premier of the United Kingdom, telegraphed his sympathies to the Premier of the Transvaal, saying: "The Empire loses one of its wisest statesmen and the Transvaal one of its truest friends."

The London Convention, telegraphing his condolence on behalf of his party, says: "We are glad that Ireland has lost a brave and considerate statesman."

PROBLEMS AND CRISES. Rudyard Kipling Tells of What He Found in British Columbia.

LONDON, April 27.—In his letter in the Morning Post this morning Mr. Rudyard Kipling writes: "Thinking things over, I suspect I was not at all appreciative of the merits of British Columbia."

He is provided for the re-affirmation of the established boundaries and the marking of the line. Senator Haysburg opposes ratification of the treaty, on the ground that there has been some misunderstanding of the line in the Northwest.

WANT HIS LIFE. President Cabrera's Enemies Seek to Murder Him.

PANAMA, April 27.—A passenger on a steamer which arrived here yesterday from Guatemala informed the Associated Press that when he left a few days previously he saw the residence of President Cabrera recently, and when the latter was being assassinated.

POVERTY LEADS TO CRIME. Toronto Mother Forges Signature to Registered Letter.

A Toronto despatch: Driven by stark poverty and the crying needs of three little children, Mrs. M. Metcalfe, aged 35 years, 129 King street east, forged the signature of Mrs. Josephine Maher, 63 Shelby street, and so obtained $5 from a registered letter, and the money she gave to her children in a room on King street east, and was in absolute destitution when Detective Kennedy arrested her.

GRASPING THE LEVER. Engineer Rigger Killed on C. N. R. Near Roblin.

ROBLIN, Ont., April 27.—A Canadian Northern locomotive drawing a freight train on the Edmonton main line jumped the track in a cutting about 100 miles east of Roblin this morning and rolled over, crushing Engineer Edward Rigger to death.

THE POPE AND THE PEASANTS. Promises Financial Aid to 4,000 Starved People.

ROME, April 27.—The Pope to-day gave an audience to 1,600 fever-stricken peasants from the Roman campagna. His Holiness made a speech to them, expressing affection for the poor and lowly, and promising them the help of the Holy See.

OBSERVATORY DESTROYED. Acadian University Suffers by Work of Incendiarists.
