CHAPMAN—McKAY A quiet wedding took place last evening at the residence of the Rev. S. C. Green, Pres. minister of N. Parkdale Presbyterian Church, when Miss Besie McKay, daughter of Mr. Hugh and the late Mrs. Hugh McKay of Durham Ont., was married to Mr. Wiley Chapman, late of Syracuse, N. Y., but now of Toronto.

The bride wore blue silk, trimmed with pearl and Irish lace, was supported by her sister, Miss Marie McKay, who wore cream muslin. Alec. Fotheringham of Toronto was best man.

Among the presents to the bride was a beautiful gold watch, the gift of the groom, who presented a gold brooch to the best maid.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robinson, 42 Lynd Ave, and a pleasant evening was spent by a few intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride and groom left for their honeymoon at 10 p.m. and will reside at their new home on Lynd Avenue on their return.

Bargains in WALTHAM WATCHES

Owing to the bad roads during the month of March we have decided to extend our sale of Waltham Watches in order to give the general public the advantage of getting a gold watch at cost.

This is no joke when we say cost; as even the T. Eaton Co. can't compete with our present prices. $10.00 and $11.00 for the best twenty and twenty-five gold case. Some are fifteen jewel movements.

Sunday Sale of Retirements.

What is Lawful and what is not.—Decision of the High Court of Ontario by Mr Justice Clute.

Readers will remember that about a year ago Judge Morson, the junior of the County Judges of York, Ontario, reversed a conviction by Magistrate Kingsford against John Devins, a restaurant keeper, for selling on Sunday candies, peanuts and other eatable articles of the kind prohibited by law.

It was pointed out to the public at the time that this judgment was going to result in an immense increase in Sunday business, inasmuch as it implied, if it did not declare, that any man holding a restaurant license, and doing a restaurant business, might also carry on a confectionery business, a fruit business, a grocery business, and a business in all sorts of eatable articles, and could sell freely any or all classes of these things on Sunday, over the counter, to be carried away and not as the purchaser might desire. It was evident that large numbers of shop keepers and their employees were going to be deprived of their Sunday rest and other privileges if this interpretation of the law were to remain unchallenged. The matter was therefore brought to the attention of the Attorney General of Ontario, the Hon. J. J. Foy, and, recognizing the seriousness of the judgment, he requested Magistrate Kingsford to grant a "Stay Case," and requested County Court Attorney H. L. Drayton, K. C., to take charge of the case in his preparation.

and in his argument before the High Court. The case was duly granted, and came before Mr Justice Clute of the High Court on Friday, 10th April. The case was known as "The King's Case." Weatherall held a restaurant license and did business at Toronto Island, selling refreshments of various kinds, and among other things he sold on Sunday, 9th June, 1907, candies, popcorn, peanuts and soft drinks.

The questions submitted to the Court were as follows: 1. Does the mere fact that Weatherall holds a license as restaurant keeper enable the said Weatherall to sell on the Lord's Day, candies, popcorn, peanuts, soft drinks, and other articles of the kind prohibited by the Statute (Lord's Day Act)? To this question Mr Justice Clute replied "No." Unlike some judgments, this does not lack in clearness.

2. Can a bona fide restaurant keeper sell candies, popcorn, peanuts, or other commodities not in connection with any meals served on the premises but date up so as to be taken away by the purchaser on the Lord's Day? To this Mr Justice Clute replied "I take this question to mean that the articles in question are sold not in connection with the giving of meals served on the premises, but in the ordinary way of business as a merchant, so as to be taken away by the purchaser. Taking this to be the meaning of the question, I answer again "No."

There was a third question as to whether the restaurant license that Mr. Weatherall held from the city prohibits him making such sales on Sunday in itself apart from the Lord's Day Act. The Judge gives substantially the same answer to this question as to the other two.

Last week in referring to the Britten escapade, we mentioned Britten as being a clerk in the store for a short time. We cheerfully make the correction below as supplied by Mrs. McArthur: "We ask you to correct an error which appeared last week in the Review. Wm Britten was not a clerk in our store, nor serving us in any capacity. He was a boy, 17 yrs. old, whose sad story coupled with the doleful countenance which he assumes at will, led us to pity him as an orphan. We took him in as a pure unselfish act of Charity, gave him free board and lodging while he was supposed to be looking for work; but at last we discovered that he had refused to accept two positions with farmers, whereupon we ordered him to leave our premises, with the results now well-known to the public."

For Sale
