"Elect Independents."

Under the above heading the Toronto World has an article which suggests that it is cutting loose from old affiliations. Whatever be its purpose it has some good advice. Here are parts of it:

"Independent men with convictions and the courage of their convictions are needed in parliament and necessary at this time. Not those who are ready to follow any party preloivities or affinities, but that they should be strong enough and brave enough to sacrifice these when the public interest demands it.

An independent and conscientious public man has principles and when he becomes a representative of the people he must stand for them. Not those who govern themselves by their principles.

Independent men of this stamp are offering themselves for election to the Legislature of Ontario and they should receive the whole-hearted support of the electors who are in agreement with their platform. A substantial laymen of representatives who will stand solidly for the rights of the people and for the interests of the people, who are really in earnest about the conservation of the provincial resources and franchises and about administrative efficiency can accomplish much for this province. So long as political parties are controlled by the machines and so long as these machines discourage the candidatures of men who think for themselves, so long will they be a menace to good government and to electoral purity. But the people must save themselves and they can do it by selecting representatives whose principles and character command their confidence."

To the independent men of South Grey the principles and character of Mr Neil McCannell should appeal for their support.

—All suicides are cowardly, some silly, and amongst the latter must be placed that of the Liberal candidate for East Lambton, on whom the worries of the campaign must have weighed heavily. He had been troubled with insomnia for a long time.

Bargains in WALTHAM WATCHES

Owing to the bad roads during the month of March we have decided to extend our sale of Waltham Watches in order to give the general public the advantage of getting a gold watch at cost.

This is no joke when we say cost; as even the T. Eaton Co. can't compete with our present prices, $10.00 and $11.00 for the best twenty and twenty-five gold case. Some are fifteen jewel movements.

Reading the Paper.

Ma reads the "Woman's Column" an' 'bout the "Worshipers' Clubs." An' 'sister reads the "Beauty Hints" an' of the social duties.

I read the "funny paper" an' the latest in baseballs. An' 'brother reads the sportin' page—the races, fights an' all. But pa skips all o' that, you bet, an' puts in his best time with the news.

A readin' what the paper has to say on politics! Ma reads the advertisements, an' she goes out 'bargain days'.

An' comes home tired out, but jest the same, she says it pays. An' 'sister looks in the paper for the headin' 'Theatres'.

They's other things she reads, but that's a favorite o' hers. Sometimes I read the 'fight by rounds'.

But pa don't read a blessed thing at all but politics! An' 'uncle reads about the crops an' what the prospects is.

For gettin' the harvest, fer he's in the farmin' biz. An' 'auntie sez the 'Home and Health' department takes her eye.

'Cuz here she gets the new receipts for makin' cakes an' pie. An' 'Cousin Henry reads the 'Poultry news'—he's raisin' chickens—

But pa don't care a darn fer anythink but politics! An' 'gran'pa reads the story that's 'continued in our next'.

An' 'gran'ma reads the sermons, an' 'remembers ev'ry text. She hunts the 'daily puzzle' up an' sits there half the night.

A-figure! the answer, an' she allus gets it right. We have to give the paper up to pa from five to six.

'Cuz he comes home to supper than an' jest reads politics! The column called 'House Beautiful' ma says she most enjoys.

The 'Juvenile Department' is the bully thing fer boys. An' 'then there is the 'Art News'—sister's interested there.

But fer the 'Fashion Notes' they print ma doesn't like 'em. An' 'as fer pa, he wishes that the editors would fix things in the paper so they'd print a lot more politics!

Grey Deanery.

The Semi-annual Meeting of the Rural Deanery of Grey was held on Thursday and Friday, May 14th and 15th, in Markdals.

On Thursday evening at the opening services, Rev. D. E. Cameron, of Fairmount preached a very able sermon on Col. 1: 18, and especially on the last clause, "Christ having the pre-eminence."

Friday 10.30 a. m. Holy Communion was administered by the Rector, Rev. J. A. Robinson, M. A. assisted by Rev. J. Ardill, B. D.

At 2.30 p. m. the regular business meeting of the chapter opened with prayer by the Rural Dean.

The minutes of the last meeting held in Owen Sound were read and confirmed.

A very practical address was then given by Rev. J. A. Robinson, M. A., on "Recruits for the Ministry," after which the Rev. J. Ardill, B. D., conducted the Sacred Study in the original on John 20, "The Resurrection." Many beautiful and deep thoughts were brought out from the Greek which are not seen when reading the English translation. All present appreciated the Rural Dean's efforts very much.

The subjects for discussion were "Christian Unity," "Missionary Work," "Immigration" and "New Hymnal." All these subjects were discussed with much care and criticism, considering the importance that each and all bore on the strength and unity of the church.

Rev. A. A. Bice, B. A., of Durham, was re-appointed Sec'y, and Rev. W. G. Reilly, of Chatsworth, was re-appointed Treasurer of the Deanery.

On motion, it was decided to hold the Deanery S. S. Convention in connection with the meeting of the Deanery during the first week of Sept. in Walter's Falls.

In the evening, the Rev. T. R. R. Westgate, missionary on furlough from Equatorial Africa, delivered a most interesting and inspiring illustrated lecture on his work in that country. He stated the Mohammedans were putting forth every effort to convert men to their rites, and that it behooved the church of God to awake to a sense of their responsibility. It is much to be regretted that it is impossible for Rev. Mr. Westgate to address meetings in every parish in the Diocese.

Excessive Provincial Expenditures.

Hon. A. G. MacKay in his budget speech refers succinctly to this matter. He says:

Perhaps the most startling statement that has been made during the whole course of this Debate was made by the honorable the member for East Huron when he made it abundantly clear that the per capita expenditure of the Province of Ontario in the year 1872 was but $1.50 and in 1901 it had increased only to $2.50 and in the short three years thereafter it had increased to $3.50; in other words the per capita expenditure has increased as much in the three years of Conservative rule as it did in the 29 years of Liberal rule. (Applause.) This startling announcement should be sufficient of itself to call the attention of this Government and the people of the Province to the necessity of closely scrutinizing every detail of expenditure.

He then goes on to show that expenditure for civil government had increased in 3 years 47 per cent; Legislation 12 per cent; Administration of justice, 30 per cent, but on the great question of Agriculture the increase was only 8 per cent, proving that the great farming class were neglected, a result he thought due to the Minister of Agriculture being "the weak sister in the government."

Dr. Jamieson is an out and out supporter of this extravagant government. It has increased the per capita expenditure as much in 3 years as the Reform government did in 33 years. Everyone who believes in constructive state-ship should support Mr. Neil McCannell, the candidate of a party that has to their credit the origin of most of the surces of revenue that swell the receipts to-day. In the debate on the address Hon. Mr. MacKay put this clearly before the electorate. He said:

"But, sir, when we consider some of the sources of our revenue, when we consider some of the channels through which this revenue flows, when we consider who dug these channels, and who it was that ineffectively attempted to close these channels and who actually condemned them; when, sir, we consider the attitude of honorable gentlemen opposite when these channels were being dug, through which a very large portion of our revenue flows into the treasury, neither the honorable the Provincial Treasurer nor any other present occupant of the treasury benches can truthfully or fairly be made or considered a fitting subject for congratulations. (Cheers.)"
