Hopeville.

The night meetings in Hopeville church are now over and they have resulted in doing much good. Mr and Mrs David Allen took trip to Durham, Glenelg and Edge Hill last week to visit friends but on Saturday they were telephoned that one of the girls was taken suddenly ill and they returned home on Saturday night to find her some better under the care of Dr. Sneath.

The election was very quiet but America. still there is considerable talk about it with our people many saying that if Mr. McCannel had been able to get around here and have some meetings or talks to the people that he might have been elected. We can hear of some very tricky doings among Dr. Jamieson's people to get appointed to some little office, evidently there is something wrong amongst them.

Dromore.

On Monday afternoon about 15 men gathered to get ready for the raising of the new hall at 5 p. m A little after 5 o'clock two sides were chosen with John Scott and Andrew Hay as captains. Ottawa, 13 June '08.

Dear Sir. I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th inst, in regard to the above matter heard at a recent sittings of the Board before the Deputy Chief Commissioner and Mr. Commissioner Mills. The matter has Mr J. Cooper is getting his barn not yet been disposed of as on some points the Commissioners who heard the application are not agreed, and as Mrs A. Derby, of Bentinck, spent the present Chief Commissioner did not hear the application, he cannot 6 Lamlash take any part in the judgment. On the return of the Chief Commisioner to Ottawa next Tuesday, I will take the matter up with him, and if it is necessary to have the application reheard, I will at once notify you to that effect and endeavor to have the matter set down for the 23rd inst. sittings in Ottawa,

Yours truly. A. D. CARTWRIGHT.

Bryan Brings a Plum Pudding from England. Among the many interesting stories

of Bryan's trip around the world is : charming little anecdote illustrating Messrs Louis and Fritz Yandt got his constant thoughtfulness of his friends back in Normal. Johnny Celes is a motorman on the | 2 Dromore trolley line at the foot of the bill, says the July Delineator. Ask him if he 5 Mt. Forest knows Mr Bryan. It is with deep- 6 Drury's chested pride that he answers, " W'y suie, I'ye been to Mr Bryan's 'ouse many a time. Often 'e's said to me, Durham "Wy Johnny, I'm glad to see you. Come any time, an' the door won't be locked, an' you just walk right in 'E's that common, Mr Bryan is, an 'e's the fine gentleman, too, as ever hved. W'y ma'am. "-very earnestly, Egremont -" Mr Bryan 'e brought me a plum puddin' from h'England." It was when Johnny Coles had heard of the intended trip abroad, that he said to Mr Bryan, riding on his car one day, " An, would you be goin' to Old Engand, for that's me 'ome, and maybe you'd see me folks over there." So it happened that on his trip around the world Mr Bryan turned aside from his itinerary to search out a cottage in Oxfordshire, where he received the plum pudding from the hands of white-haired old woman who sent it with her blessing to her son in far-off

The Prize List of the Canadian National Exhibition of Toronto, to be held this year between August 29th and Sept. 14th, is in course of circula-

A number of changes have been made in the way of improvements. Considerable additions have also been made to several of the classes; among others $1,100 is to be divided into six prizes for the best decorated floral display on floor space not exceeding 500 square feet. The object of this change is to improve the appearance of the Agricultural Building, and to induce exhibitors to show their ability in the way of designing flowers, plants and shrubs for decorative pur-

In short, every effort is being made by the directorate not alone to mainain the standard of Canada's great National Exhibition but to improve it in all departments.

It should be mentioned that the premiums and prizes will reach the handsome sum of $50.000 and that entries close with the Secretary, J. O. Oir. City Hall, Toronto, on Wednesday, August 5th, to whom application it for that friend of yours. I for prize lists, entry blanks, space and be addressed.
