Land of Bananas. The meeting of the ministers of the United States and the Philippines. The brothers who had red bananas, told some women of the land of bananas. No account, he said, and all the work. Within a few days, the bananas are a head over the top of the trees. They were grown last year on ten acres, valued at $40,000. The women put these bananas in the trade from Sunday to Monday. They are worth $3 to $4 a week, which is spent during the remaining time. He says they are pink silk shirt and must be on hand, but insist on going bare. They are people who are all shades of negro blood. Green bananas are just as they ripen here. If they are a pink box, and that the pick them green for their use. The value equal to 30 cents.

A RUSSIAN MINE HORROR.

Fire and Explosion Bring Death to Many Miners.

160 Bodies Taken Out, 200 Men Yet Believed—Wounded and Dying.

Twenty Miners Believed to be Lost in Mexican Mine Explosion.

Yusova, European Russia, July 6.—Fire broke out to-day in the Rikovsky mine, which yesterday was the scene of an explosion of gas that resulted in a very heavy loss of life. The work of rescue and fighting the fire is being conducted under the greatest difficulty. Over 200 men remain down in the mine, shut in by falling earth, while 160 bodies already have been brought out. Seventy-five wounded were removed to hospitals, and of these ten are dead and many more are dying. It is believed that the present number of dead will be increased by 75. The explosion occurred just after the night shift was late the mine. The last twenty men of the shift were still in the cage at the bottom of the shaft and they were drawn to the surface uninjured. Rescue parties were at once organized and commenced to go down. Six of the rescuers were suffocated. The others bravely continued at work. In the meanwhile the five thousand miners who had gathered at the head of the shaft became so excited that troops had to be summoned. They cleared the ground, and to-day allow only members of the families of the victims to come within their cordon. Hearing the screams of the dead men are brought to the surface and given over to the bereaved women. Many of the wounded are quite mad from shock. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Twenty Men Lost. Las Encarnas, Mexico, July 6.—An explosion took place late yesterday in slope No. 9 of a mine belonging to the Mexican Coal & Coke Company. The shaft, composed of about twenty Mexican and Japanese miners, were at work under the ground, and it is believed none have survived. Relief forces are at work rescuing the bodies. The damage to the mine is thought to be great.

OPERA HOUSE FIRE. BOMB THROWERS.

Royal at Berlin Scorched—Will Delay Season.

Berlin dispatch: Fire broke out in the Royal Opera House this forenoon, having caught from a plumber's furnace being used in the fourth gallery. The roof of the old structure was soon blazing, but the firemen extinguished the flames before more than a part of the roof had been destroyed. While the damages will amount to but a few thousands, it is probable that the opening of the opera season, set for August 16th, will be delayed. Immense crowds gathered in Unter Den Linden and patrols of mounted police were required to disperse them and keep the people moving.

DISTRESS ABOUT CANTON.

Floods Cause Great Suffering in South China.

New York, July 6.—The Herald correspondent at Hong Kong has sent the following cable dispatch: The marked unrest and commercial depression which lately have characterized the territory of South China have been intensified recently by the sufferings of the bank of the population in the lowlands surrounding Canton and along the rivers, caused by the biggest flood in three decades. A vast area has been inundated and many thousands of persons rendered homeless and starving. Great numbers of these are joining bands of brigands and pirates. Officials and the people in the unafflicted parts are liberally donating food to relieve the great distress, but their inability to effectively distribute supplies to the sufferers in the outposts is giving the greatest concern in the peace provinces. The unrest extends through Tinian to Tokin, where, in addition, there have been conflicts between the French and the Chinese, their own natives causing a great deal of trouble.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT.

His Highness Will Land at Quebec on July 22nd.

Quebec, July 6.—The office landing of the Prince of Wales will take place at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 22, after His Royal Highness will have received the Governor General and other distinguished callers, whose names are to be published later. The Prince will sail at daybreak on Wednesday, July 29, taking leave on the previous night. His Royal Highness has graciously announced his intention of placing a wreath upon the Wolfe statue and one upon the monument aux Braves, on Friday, July 24, after the review.

CHINESE HIGHWAYMEN.

Claimed They Entered Toronto Store and Robbed Till.

Toronto dispatch: If the story told by Lee Sing, a Chinese grocer, of 190 York street, is correct, his fellow-countrymen in Toronto are rapidly acquiring the habits and customs of our more complex civilization. He said one night recently he was in his store when three Chinese entered. One of them grabbed him by the throat, another drew a revolver and threatened to blow his brains out, while the third emptied the till. After throwing him to the floor and kicking him the three vis-

WHITE SLAVES.

Girls on Knees Thank Eufo's Police Chief.

Rescued From Slavery Worse Than Death in Raid.

Buffalo, July 6.—With faces blurred with tears, two young women sobbed out thanks to the police for their rescue from a life of shame and misery in Judge court yesterday morning. They voluntarily submitted to the order of Judge Nash, confining them to the House of the Good Shepherd, pending the trial of the cases against the two men who are believed to have kept them in slavery for nearly two months prior to their rescue on Saturday night by Detective Newson and Murray. When arraigned under a penalty of the criminal code providing a penalty for the detention of a female against her will, Philip Colletti, a saloonkeeper, street, pleaded not guilty and waived examination. Judge Nash ordered them held for the grand jury. On her knees, Helen Koenka, 19 years old, of No. 13 Komel avenue, thanked Superintendent of Police Grant for her release on Saturday night. She and her friend, Rosi Tomaro, 21 years old, of Seal street, West Seneca, were escorted by two men in Washington street while looking for work two months ago, she said. They were taken to Colletti's place, where, after they had been served with drugged intoxicants, their clothes were taken from them, the girls told the detectives. On pain of being shot, the two girls were held prisoners, and were forced to accept the attentions of other men besides the saloonkeeper and Ray, into whose hands they were delivered, they declare. They were taken to Colletti's place, where, after they had been served with drugged intoxicants, their clothes were taken from them, the girls told the detectives.

MONTREAL SHIPPING.

A Large Increase in Merchandise Sent Out This Year.

Montreal, July 6.—Harbor returns for June show a large increase in the volume of shipping over last year. Had it been for the unfortunate break in the Cornwall Canal on the 22nd of the month, this effectively tying up navigation, the increase would have been shown all along the line. As it is for the shorter period this summer the transfer of some commodities is far in advance of that for the whole month in 1907. Carriage of wheat is the most striking example of the increasing trade of the St. Lawrence waterway, there being a gain of one and a half millions of bushels brought for transshipment from Montreal harbor. There were almost three million bushels carried down through the canals in three weeks of June this summer. Barley also shows a heavy advance. As well as eggs and flour, while other commodities show figures just approaching those of last year. No United States steam trawlers, vessels passing through the canal; 250 Canadian steamers and 224 barges passed up the canal during the month.

PARTICULAR JAMES.

Many Respond to Toronto Man's Ad. For a Wife, But not a Su.

Toronto, July 6.—James W. Ross is in demand. Young woman, old women, blondes, brunettes, tall, short, slight and stout, but all with the necessary money, have responded to James' yearning for a bride well endowed with this world's goods, and his trouble now is that of many of them measure up to what he considers his "affinity." As will be remembered, Mr. James Ross, who has spent a number of years in the mayors of as many different cities all over the world in April last, asking that an advertisement be placed in the papers for a young woman with means, "I believe there are many such," said Mr. Ross at the time, "if only I could find them. I want one such with money, who is as anxious to marry as I am."

HOW IS THIS?

Scotchman With a Seven Foot Beard.

Montreal, July 3.—A gentleman who has the proud distinction of owning the longest beard in the world, so far as is known, is at present honoring Montreal with a short visit. He is Mr. Allister Wilkie, of Upper Craigie, Perth, Scotland, and is staying at the St. James' Hotel. When not showing off his magnificent appendage, Mr. Wilkie winds it about his body like a coil, thus taking advantage of it to ward off wind and weather and other unfavorable climatic conditions. When combed out the beard reaches several feet on the ground, so to give bystanders a proper view of its length and magnificence when showing it off he stands on the top of a table. Mr. Wilkie has entered several competitions, and has been successful. He has claimed to have the longest beard in the world, and has always vanquished them with a man from New South Wales, who only has a beard two feet inches long. Mr. Wilkie is in the prime of life and his beard is still growing.

SUSPECTS IN LODGE CASE.

Three Men Are Under Arrest at Port Perry.

A Port Perry dispatch: It is believed that the assassins of F. J. Lodge, who on Tuesday night beat, gagged and bound him, and who may yet have to answer to a charge of murder, are safe under lock and key. The men suspected are Fred Murray, an ex-convict and all-round bad man; George Easton, an elderly man, with a record, and Frank Smith, a young fellow unknown to the police. The suspects were brought to-day to Port Perry and sentenced to thirty days in jail as vagrants. Meantime Provincial Detective Miller, who has been sent down at the request of the Port Perry authorities to investigate the case will collect evidence on the more serious charge. Mr. Lodge, the young singer who was so brutally beaten, is in a decidedly serious condition. His head shows a tendency to draw back and he had convulsions yesterday. These are evidences of spinal meningitis, but to-day he is somewhat better, and it is hoped that he will pull through.

British Meat Traders Ask That It Be Removed.

London, July 6.—The Meat Traders' Association at a meeting to-day demanded the removal of the Canadian embargo and the restrictions upon the importation of cattle for immediate slaughter from all countries free of the disease, pointing out the danger to the American trust. A deputation was appointed to see the Premier.

ALL S. A. VETERANS SHARE.

Mr. Oliver's Bill Regarding Land Grants to be Enlarged.

Ottawa, July 6.—Hon. Mr. Oliver has given notice of a resolution to enlarge his bill for land grants to South African veterans so as to include all who resided in Canada at the time of their enlistment. In the case of death before 1910 the land or scrip goes to his heirs. It was originally proposed to make the grant only to men serving in Manitoba, Alberta or Saskatchewan.

DR. WILSON'S MURDERER.

"Kill d Him Because He Killed My Wife."

Writes the Man Who is Suspected of Doing the Deed.

Tracing the Person Who Sent Him the Poisoned Ale.

Philadelphia, July 6.—In locating the express office from which the bottle of supposed poisoned ale was sent to Dr. Wm. H. Wilson, who died under mysterious circumstances last Friday, securing a description of the man who sent the package, the detectives have learned something definite concerning the letter received by Dr. Wilson prior to the delivery of the ale, and which letter was prepared to make it appear that it had been sent from a local brewing concern. On the envelope and letter was stamped the German letter "S." The detective found a rubber stamp maker who sold such a stamp to a man who answered the description of the one who left the package containing the poisoned ale at the office of a local express company. It is possible that an arrest will be made to-day. The description of the man who left the Wilson package at the express office tallies somewhat with that of a man who has been under suspicion for several days. He is said to be wealthy, and to have knowledge of the brewing of ale. It is said that this man some years ago sent a patient to Dr. Wilson who tried to extort large sums of money from him from time to time. It is further said the man under suspicion brooded over the affair, and became vindictive. A peculiar phase of the case develops about two letters received by the Coroner's office, one sent from Bristol and the other from Boston. In one letter the writer says he sent the poison to Dr. Wilson, and in the other he declares Dr. Wilson a menace to the community, and one who should have been put out of the way. Ordinarily no attention would be paid to anonymous communications, but in this case it appears that the letter came from the same person. The Bristol letter was mailed June 27 and the Boston letter June 29. That the writer of the Boston letter knew about the Bristol letter is perfectly clear. He writes in the Boston letter: "This is in confirmation of my Bristol letter," and continues: "It is no use hunting for the Wilson's murderer. By the time you find out my name I will be out of the country. You need not try to locate the printer who printed the letterheads I used; I printed them myself. I want you to know, though, that the murderer was not a patient of mine. I killed him, only because he killed my wife."

NOT BANDITS.

Mexico's Revolutionary Army to Capture Las Vascas.

Austin, Texas, July 6.—Thomas Sarabia, publisher of La Reforma Libertad, Justice, the official journal of the local branch of the Mexican revolutionary junta, which has suspended publication because none of the printers in the city have cared to run the risk of violating the neutrality laws with Mexico, sought an interview with Gov. Campbell, yesterday, to protest against the Mexican revolutionists being regarded as bandits. He insists that they are patriots, fighting for right and liberty, granted under the constitution, and declares they will honor American soil. Mr. Sarabia stated that the revolutionary army consists of 500 infantry and 600 cavalry, entrenched in a strong position near Las Vascas, and that at the proper time they will descend upon that city and capture it.

MINISTER'S LECTURE FATAL.

Man Upon Whom It Was Inflicted Committed Suicide.

New York, July 6.—Charles Phillips, a widower, who had a responsible position in the Jersey City office of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was found dead in his room at the boarding house of Andrew Stiff, at No. 11 Court street, Newark, to-day. He had committed suicide. The cause for which he left read: "This harsh act might not have been committed by me for a lecture on drinking given to me a few nights ago by a local minister while I was in the presence of several friends."

A BAR TO DUELING.

Sanction of Court of Honor Must Be Obtained in Austria.

Vienna, July 6.—The long sustained efforts made by the Anti-dueling league in Austria to limit the practice of dueling in the empire have finally met with success, for the imperial sanction to a decree prohibiting dueling in the empire without the consent of a military court of honor has been secured. To fight a duel without this consent will henceforward be a breach of the regulations, and severely punished. It is expected that this decree will reduce the practice greatly.

PARROT GAVE EVIDENCE.

It Was Allowed to Testify in an Ohio Court.

Cincinnati, July 6.—Judge Maus yesterday solved the question of the ownership of a parrot by placing the bird on the stand to give its own testimony. Miss Bertha Saunders and Miss Emma Harris were the rival claimants for the bird. Miss Harris held it, but Miss Saunders had brought action to regain it. To prove her ownership, Miss Saunders wrote a string of pet phrases she had taught the bird, gave them to the judge, and started the parrot on his recitation. The bird recited off saying after saying, and the judge decided in favor of Miss Saunders.

TWO MEN DROWNED IN E. C.

Mr. Daniel, an English Visitor, Lost His Life.

Vancouver, July 6.—Two drowning fatalities marred the pleasure of Dominion Day. At Burnet, some miles up Burrard Inlet, C. W. B. Daniel, an English visitor from Victoria, was drowned while bathing in the narrows, near Sitka. In the evening George B. Thompson, aged 30 out in a steam launch, fell overboard and was drowned. The bodies have not been recovered.

AUTOS KILLED SIXTY-TWO.

One Year's Deaths on Roads of Massachusetts.

Boston, July 6.—Sixty-two persons were killed by automobiles within the State during the year ending to-day, according to the first annual report issued to-day by the Safe Roads Automobile Association, an organization formed in June, 1907, to lessen the dangers attendant on reckless automobilism. Of this number twenty-one were not in automobiles and forty-one were not. In addition 640 persons were seriously injured.

London, July 6.—Reports were in circulation here when Mr. C. F. Moberly Bell, Manager of the London Times, secured control of that paper in March of this year that Lord Northcliffe proposed a majority of the required capital. This was subsequently denied. At the present time Lord Northcliffe is out of town, but Mr. Thomas Marlowe, editor of The Daily Mail, of which Lord

SHAH APPEALS TO EDWARD.

Persian Preacher Tortured and Thrown to the Dogs.

Lives of Foreigners in Teheran Not Now Safe.

London, July 6.—The fact that the Shah has been in direct correspondence with King Edward, presumably protesting against the sheltering of refugees in the British legation at Teheran, is confirmed. It is believed that the King in reply referred the Shah to the Foreign Office as the usual channel for such communications. Horrid Deed. London, July 6.—A special despatch from Teheran to The Times says that the British Charge d'Affaires has refused to receive a Persian official sent with a verbal apology in reply to the British protest against the posting of troops near the Legation. One of the prisoners just released from the Royal camp describes the barbarities committed by the soldiers there. He says that a Nationalist preacher was slaughtered before the eyes of the other prisoners. When nearly dead the cord was loosened and the soldier began cutting into his living flesh by blunt knives. They then threw the carcass to the dogs. The situation at Tabriz continues to be very serious. Private despatches received here this morning say that people have erected barricades in the street and the fighting is going on night and day. Tabriz and the entire province of Azerbaijan are strongholds of the revolutionists, and the arrival there yesterday of troops to strengthen the forces of even the revolutionists, the danger of the situation. The entry of the troops to the city is opposed by the revolutionary forces. All the bazaars are now closed and there has been some looting of the residences of delegates to the assembly and business houses. Increasing cause for alarm is found in the fact that Tabriz is surrounded by Rachi Khan and his horsemen. They are supporters of the Shah and utterly without discipline. Should these riders be turned loose on the city the lives of even the foreigners there would be in danger. No details are given of the recent fighting, but one of the despatches concludes with these words: "A great deal more bloodshed is expected before the trouble is settled."

QUEBEC PAGEANT.

THOUSANDS OF COSTUMED PEOPLE IN VARIOUS SCENES.

Quebec, July 6.—The work of preparing for the great historical pageant goes on apace, and the citizens are coming to realize what a vast affair it will be. Of the military and historical display a good deal has been written. There will be at least a dozen large warships in the Quebec basin when the Prince of Wales comes up the river on July 21, and 6000 of Canada's soldiers will be on parade. The historical pageant, however, will contain the greatest element of novelty. There will be some three thousand persons in costume, some on horse and others on foot. It will be divided into historical processions, as follows:—The Jacques Cartier scene of arrival, 21 performers; mounted division, representing Henry IV's Court, 130 costumed characters; Francis I, with 464 courtiers; a scene of Champlain, with 95 performers in addition, to which will be added a representation of the crew of the Don de Dieu; a scene from Montcalm's participation in 210 costumed characters; likewise the Dollard scene, 137 performers, and the Laval scene, 120 performers, with 120 performers, and scenes from Frontenac by 571 costumed performers, also the French and British armies in uniform of three centuries ago, in which 42 performers will figure, making a total of 3,100 costumed performers, besides allegorical devices and other interesting features that will go to make up the pageant. Mr. Lascelles is working indefatigably to make this part of the tercentenary program a success, and is now assured of that fact. The whole population of Quebec is interested, including the retail merchants, who have voluntarily consented to close their stores at 4 p. m. on all days on which their clerks taking part are required for rehearsal. The rich continue to be won by these takings. The pageant is being made up of hundreds of workmen and women, and practically ready. Rehearsals will soon begin on the Plains of Abraham, where a huge grand stand calculated to accommodate at least 25,000 spectators is being erected. In the meantime the ground on which the tented city will be located is all laid out in streets, and a water main from the city waterworks being laid that will furnish water every tent occupied by the foreigners.
