Address and Presentation.

Ast for Buffalo, where he has secured situation.

The Union Picnic at the closing of the day school and recent opening of the Saboath school at Knox Church, Normanby, was held in Carson's bush and a program, mostly by the scholars, was pleasantly gone through It consisted of drills, singing and recitations under the instruction of Miss Adair, their efficient and amiable teacher, to whom a well-merited presentation was made Mr Will Campbell left Friday last as shown below, and which was no doubt duly appreciated. Miss Adair retires from a 3-years' whom she came in contact. Races for the youngsters and baseball for those in the shot blade as also those in full head, was youth and beauty of the section, organization, they must stand by their candidate, he was being spent for them. With the figure of a jury and a court, he pictured the electors as the Grand study the evidence and later on give their verdict. It was something to have a good man, but he must be in general accord with his party. You're to take the record that Ball and Miller places before you of their respective party and sit in judgment upon it.

Then he gave some very nice and lucid observations on the value of confidence; "confidence is the currency of business, nineteen twentieths of the business of the world is done in confidence. Once confidence is betrayed you cannot trust again. Then he stepped down to the confidence placed in the Laurier government, pointed out the alleged brazen way in which they had broken every promise, and proceeded to put speeches and attitudes into Laurier's mouth, which he had no trouble in condemning. The increases in taxation, in expenditure in debt was gone over again, the audience being assured that "not even the tinguishing it as he promised had broken indictment against Laurier and party, than that they had violated their pledges.

Again he made the charge that without Mr Borden and his followers the country would know no more of Canada than of China. Only the opposition criticize, and they had as they had shown, the power over the purse strings by de-
