THE HOUSE OF QUALITY
H. H. MOCKLER

OWN OPICS

FOUND.—Buggy Spread—This office.
There's barely another month left yet for trout fishing.

For a real display in variety of costumes, there's nothing like a fire alarm about one o'clock in the morning.

The roof of the new addition to the Registry Office is now on, cleaning up, &c., and good progress being made inside.

200 pairs fine trousers on sale at reduced prices. Newest designs and perfect fitters. The House of Quality.

A fakir at the hotel covers raked in some good money on Monday night by selling wheatstones, save, &c., and unlimited gall and belief in the gullibility of the public.

HAROLD JARVIS—the best known new name in Canada sang in the Concert name on Friday 21st August, with Fax and Miss Scott of California. Plan at MacFarlane's drug store.

The King hats for fall are here. Swell shapes and materials better than ever. Choose yours now. The House of Quality.

H. H. MOCKLER.
ALMOST DONE.—The ballasting of the new line is expected to be completed this week. The steam shovel is then to be moved to a gravel cut near Walkerton and a month will be spent in making the fill for the Walkerton Station yard.

Lovers of innocent fun will be gratified on 21st August if they attend the Rink Concert, where James Fax is to appear. Fax's motto is "My humor may cease to be humorous, but it will never cease to be innocent." Tickets at MacFarlane's.

An impromptu dance was given in the Hall Tuesday evening and attended by about 60 of the youth and beauty of town with a few visitors. Mr. W. Sutherland, Woodstock, gave good satisfaction as pianist and also rendered two solos of most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

LOST A HORSE.—Intending to move to Holland Tp. in the near future, Mr. Jno. Quinn recently purchased a horse and left it there. It checks loose in the stable and more than upper its appetite with the feed it had access to and died from over-eating.

NEW SHOP SIGN.—As would be noticed in our last week's issue, Mr. McGrath made his bow to Review readers in an ad announcing his purchase of the business, until lately conducted by E. W. Sewell.

"Tom" is a young man of energy and we hope will get a satisfying share of the business. See page 8.

COME AGAIN.—An invasion of about a dozen Walkertonians took place on Friday last. It was their civic holiday and the allurements of the new line led them to take a run to Durham to make or renew acquaintance with their new neighbors now almost next door. Among them was "Billy" Taylor who for 16 years was the popular state driver, Durham to Walkerton. 25 years since he left Durham and 12 years since he visited it, yet he met with many old acquaintances who gave him a hearty greeting.

THE BAND APPRECIATED.—In writing up the recent band concert in Fiesherston, the Advance compliments the local band as follows: "There were three bands present—Durham, Dunbar, and Markdale. This was the first time the Durham band had appeared in Fiesherston, and their music was enjoyed. Mr. Wright, the bandmaster, has only been in charge a short time but has the band in good shape. The other bands are too well known to need comment here. The music was of a high grade throughout, and was most enjoyable."

A FALSE ALARM.—Saturday morning about 1 a. m. citizens were aroused by the long drawn out screech of an engine whistle. The first feeling was one of irritation why the fellow did not put it "loot" if it meant fire. As it kept on its drear, monotonous, apparently endless sound, men scrambled into their clothes, and firemen rushed to duty at the bell. By this time somebody had rushed to the bell and its alarm appeared to confound fire, but no one knew where. At last all alarms ceased and it was later discovered that a valve on a C. P. R. engine had worked loose and the escaping steam, uncontrolled, made the hideous noise. These engines must learn lessons.

The Value of Economy

Many people fail to save, because they do not realize the importance of small economies. The practice, once begun, of laying aside a portion of your income, no matter how small, every week or month, will soon become a fixed habit. The result in a few years will probably surprise, and certainly gratify you.

Westward Ho!

Friday last the first of the C. P. R. Harvesters' Excursions took place and a large number took advantage of it to go to the land of the wheat.

The new line being opened, of course this traffic this year all goes by C. P. R. harvesters' excursions at Bolton with the new Sudbury line and we presume without change of coach.

The train started from Walkerton about 2:00 p. m., on Hanover at Durham at 9:32 a. m., but the crush at these stations caused an unwanted delay that was added to by an overload of mail train that stuck before Durham and was reached. At about 11:30 the train, with six coaches pulled in and three more were attached to accommodate Durham and McWilliams and Priceville further on.

The platform, which for two hours had been crowded as if half the town were present, began to thin out; there were just two classes, those going and those staying, and in a short time dials and lunch suits, satchels, bundles and boxes were being piled up and the good-bye's said to cheer them on their long journey. They will like to reach Winnipeg Sunday night or Monday morning. The following list contains the bulk of those leaving at Durham station:

- David McGrie
- Hugh McDonald
- Rod. McFarlane
- Lochie McKeuchie
- George Nichol
- Ally. Nollie

Glenelg's Oldest Residents Pass Away.

HENRY FARR.
Early on Saturday last the above gentleman passed away at his home on the 3rd Concession of Glenelg at the patriarchal age of 88 years. He was the very first settler on the 2nd Con. of Glenelg, coming there in 1841 when all was wilderness, and heving his way literally and figuratively to success and a competence. He has lived continuously on the farm he selected for all these 67 years, having leaves behind him the memory of a man of high principles, who would do a manly action and who was never found wanting in a good quality as husband, father or friend.

Deceased was born in Co. Down, Ireland, in 1810 and, with his sister Mrs. Thos. Davis, came to Quebec about 1837 to an uncle who was there. After a few years in various parts of the country he came as has been said to Glenelg in 1841. He married in 1850 Mrs. Grant, mother of Mr. C. L. Grant of Durham, and of Mrs. Adam Robson of Fiesherston, and to them were born a son and daughter, the latter having been a comfort and faithful companion to his declining years, especially since three to four months ago when seven years ago. The son is the well-known Rev. Thos. Farr, now of Gorrie, who for some weeks back has been near his father's couch in comfort and sustainment.

Mr. Farr in his prime served his township both as Assessor and Collector. In the early days Assessors went in pairs, and he, with the late John Cameron, of Dakota, assessed Glenelg together. He was a member of the "Corn Meal Year," which some old timers may remember, the failure of the wheat crop leading to extensive use of corn meal.

The funeral was on Monday to Trinity Church cemetery nearby. Rev Mr. Bice conducting the services and many friends paying the last tribute.

The pall-bearers were John and Adam Weir, Don. McFayden, Geo. Aijoe, Lionel and Adam Robson.

A NONAGENARIAN.

There died at the home of her nephew, Mr. Thos. Burgess, Southampton, on Thursday, 19th August, Miss Jeanie Burgess, in the 95th year of her age. About a month ago she left the home of her niece, Mrs. Wm. Edges, where she has resided for the past four years. She was born in Kirkcaldy, Scotland, and came to Toronto in early youth with six brothers, two of whom were the well-known James and Gordon Burgess, and four sisters all of whom are gone but one sister much younger than deceased.

The family settled near Toronto about 1825, the homestead continuing in the family ever since, and there she spent a long stretch of her life. She was intelligent, and almost helpless from childhood, she was intelligent, a great reader, and devoted to the Presbyterian Church.

Are your pumpkins and squashes in training yet for the South Grey Fall Exhibition?

AN INTELLECTUAL TREAT:
In New Rink, Durham, 21 Aug. 60. The Concert of the year. Don't miss it. Tickets 25c and 35c. Plan at to MacFarlane's.

See our north window for display of 20c and 25c muslins on sale at 10c per yard. The House of Quality.

The stone walls fronting the Presbyterian Church are this week being repaired and finished off. Exposure to the elements has worn the walls and loosened the stones somewhat.

ACCOUNT NOTICE.—Having sold out my business, it becomes necessary that all accounts must be settled forthwith. Call at the store and pay the same before the first of September. After that date costs will be added.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.—In jumping from a ballasting train to the platform at Hanover, an Italian laborer fell back under the wheels, crushing his legs and requiring amputation. He lingered a short time in much pain and died on Monday.

A copy of the Golden Jubilee issue of the Renfrew Mercury has been received at this office. It is a 20 page edition profusely illustrated, finely printed and well gotten-up in every detail. It was prepared to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the town of Renfrew and being all home-printed is a special credit to the publishers.

A DESTRUCTIVE STORM.—Mr Geo. Twamley, of Glenelg, has been rather unfortunate with his property in the West. On July 27th last, his entire crop on his large farm at Arcola, Suss., where his two sons are, was destroyed by a hail storm, and last week he learned that his house there had been struck by lightning. He went West on the excursion on Friday last.

"I know what's passing in your mind," suddenly said the sweet Durham maiden as the hitherto silent caller stared at her. "I know, too, why you are calling here tonight after night, appropriating my time to yourself and keeping nice young men away. You want me to marry you, don't you?" "I—I do," gasped the young man. "I thought so. Very well; I will."

PASSED EXAMS.—In addition to those writing at Durham Centre on Normal School Entrance exams, mentioned last week, other South Grey boys were successful in Owen Sound. Eric Fletcher of Stone's Line, Arden, and Hector McKinnon, son of Postmaster McKinnon of Priceville, both took honors on Normal School Entrance exams, and also passed their Junior Matriculations. Arden last week, also was successful in securing his matric. Congratulations.

SCHOOLS RE-OPEN.—After a seven weeks vacation, rural schools re-opened on Monday last. There are a number of changes among the teachers in the immediate vicinity of Durham: Mr. Stanley McNally replaces Miss Edith Allan at Varney; Miss Annie McKenzie assumes charge of Vickers; Mr. Thos. Allan, Jr., succeeds Mr. E. Greenwood of Edge Hill; follows Miss Adair in S. S. No. 1, Normandy. In other nearby schools, the same changes before holidays have commenced duties: Miss Clara Aijoe at Allan's; Miss Marion Morton at Aberdeen; Miss Lillie Walker at Rocky Egremont; Miss Kate McDonald at Latons; Miss Wardlaw at Edge Hill; Mr. Chas. Farquharson at Bunsen; Mr. John Johnston at Hutton's Hill.

Obituary.

MRS. GEORGE L. B. HAW.
Many of her friends and neighbors will be grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. George L. B. Haw. Deceased was a daughter of the late Hugh and Frances McLean, born on July 29, 1835, Lot 5, Con. 1 of the township of Proton, Grey County. She was married on June 8, 1862 to George L. B. Haw, of the township of Hope, Durham County. After their marriage they lived on one of Mr. Rutledge's farms one and one quarter miles south of Bridgetown. Here two children were born to them, both dying in infancy. In 1866 they moved to his father's old homestead Lot 25, Con. 17, Egremont, Grey County. In October 1868, Mrs. Haw was taken with a severe attack of goitre from which she never fully recovered. In January, 1908, diabetes set in and after seven months of patient suffering, she passed peacefully away on July 22. During life she was very kind and benevolent, always helping the sick and needy and was much beloved in the circle in which she moved, and will be greatly missed by her many friends and neighbors. In religion she was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and by her firm belief and Christian life she won the love and respect of all who knew her. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, two sisters, Mrs. Richardson of Swinton Park; Mrs. Sackett, of Hampton; two brothers, Alexander of Dro-more and James, of Ceylon.

Western Call for Men

25,000 Harvesters are needed and good Wages Offered.

Preparations have commenced in earnest for the harvesting of the Northwest's big wheat crop, the only difficulty experienced by farmers being the scarcity of labor in the harvest fields. To induce men to go to the West the C. P. R. has made the remarkably low rate of ten dollars from Ontario. This fare carries the ticket holder to any point on the company's lines east of Moose Jaw; trains are run direct to Winnipeg, and the men are re-ticketed there for the points where they wish to work. After at least one month's work in the field, laborers are issued their tickets to Ontario starting point at $18. Leaving dates of Canadian Pacific excursions are Aug. 18, Sept. 1, 8, from stations north-west of Toronto, Aug. 18, 19, Sept. 1, 9, from stations south-west of Toronto, and Aug. 20, 22, 27, Sept. 2, 11, 14 from stations east of Toronto. The most important excursions are Aug. 18, and 20, and on these dates special trains will be run from all C. P. R. stations, times of which agents will furnish upon request. P. R. is the only Canadian route to the West, and the only line carrying Farm Laborers through without charge. Apply to ticket agents, or C. E. Foster, District Passenger Agent, Toronto, for full information. R. McFarlane, Agent, Durham.
