Special display of trimmed Millinery, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 10th and 11th. Miss Dick.

$1.00 only for the Review to new readers to Jan. 1, 1909, 25c for balance of the year. Send us your name.

Grand Fall Opening of Millinery Dress Goods, Furs and Mantles, at S. Morlock's, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 10th and 11th.

Dr. Brown, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, will be at the Hahn House, Durham, Sept. 12 to 5 p.m. Eyes Tested and Glasses supplied.

NEW MILLINERY PARLORS—Durham is to possess another Millinery establishment. Miss Bogg, of Walkerton, an experienced milliner, has secured rooms over A. S. Hunter's hardware store and is at present laying in a stock and preparing for fall. The new parlors will probably be open to the public on Show Day.

Mr. Eaton, of the T. Eaton Co., Toronto, says: "If you advertise your store to a few hundred people you can safely bank on the fact that in due time everybody will hear about you. People have a way of passing along good news. The fact that your advertisement appears continuously in a reputable newspaper stimulates public confidence."

THE GREAT CLIPPING OFFER.—Arrangements have just been completed whereby we are enabled to offer the Review and the Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer for $1.55 from now to January 1st, 1909 to new subscribers. Just think of it—16 months for the price of 12 for the two papers, giving all the local news. And more, act upon it at once.

LOST AT ORANGETHURST.—In the sudden death game last Friday, Owen Sound lacrosse team emerged one goal behind, Galt winning by 7 to 6 with the deciding goal scored in the last minute. Owen Sound is protesting the game on the grounds that a regulation ball was not provided; that the referee had previously stated the game would go to Galt; and that some of the Galt players were professional. Should Owen Sound win the protest, Galt will probably be thrown out of the running.

NEARING COMPLETION.—The retaining wall on the West side of Garafaxa St north of the new bridge is now completed and good progress is being made on the George St. wall. The east side of Garafaxa St, fill as well as that adjoining the bridge is almost up to the road level. The enormous amount of gravel required being now obtained from the vacant town lot between the Library and the Presbyterian church, besides from the George St grading. It will be a good permanent job when completed, but means more mills to next year's tax rate.

NEW MAP OF COUNTY.—Dr. N. E. Culbertson, Toronto, has prepared a new map of the county of Grey which is very highly spoken of by school inspectors and trustees boards, and which will no doubt be used in all the schools of the County ere long. The map is 31 x 48 inches and mounted on cloth and sticks. It has been newly drawn from the latest surveys and is beautifully engraved, showing the townships in colors. It shows the lots and concessions of the county, also the location of post offices, villages, schools and churches, and is highly recommended for use in every school. It shows the names of the C. P. R. in the southern part of the county and any proposed lines in the northern part.

THOUGHT THEY HAD RAFFLES.—One of the Toronto evening dailies, the News, has an advertising contest on at present in the city, offering a $200 reward to the person capturing an unknown man named Billie Bliss, alias "Raffles." He roams the streets, and exhibition grounds, etc., in a multiplicity of costumes, and sleuths on his trail have his photos and description given in the News. The contest was only this week however, we learned we had another resembling him in Durham. While in the city last week, one "house of quality" merchant, H. H. Mockler, was looking through W. A. Murray & Co's large store, when he was suddenly pounced upon by half a dozen of the said-sleuths, who were confident they had nabbed the mysterious Raffles. Explanations were given in the News, but it was not until a male employe who knew him convinced the ladies of his identity, that he was released.

Many beautiful wreaths adorn the coffin of the departed one, who was taken out of the city on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. Rev. Mr. Newton officiating. To all sorrowing relatives and friends, the Review extends sincerest sympathy.

We will hold our Fall Millinery Openings Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 10th and 11th and following days.

The second assembly of the season was given by the young men in the hall last Friday and a very enjoyable time spent. Mr. Sutherland, Woodstock was again engaged as pianist while visitors were present from Mt. Forest and elsewhere.

INSTALLED A PHONE.—With very commendable generosity, the Methodist congregation have placed a phone in Mr. Charter Smith's residence, giving his son David who has been an invalid for months, an opportunity to hear the Sabbath services. The connection is from the church to the house and transmits only in one direction, but it will be heartily appreciated.

A CHESLEY SUICIDE.—Wm. J. Crow a prominent young Chesley cat dealer, committed suicide last Wednesday afternoon by blowing his brains out in his own barn. The last seen of Crow in Chesley was the Friday previous, though he had been seen in neighboring towns since. Deceased was a native of Chesley and an inquest will be held.

NO FREE LUNCH.—The public meeting called for last Thursday evening for the purpose of finding out the best way of thinking the C. P. R. for building a line into Walkerton was attended by about a baker's dozen. No plan of action could be agreed upon. The C. P. R. very likely built the line to Walkerton for their own benefit.

Most of the officials get salary enough to buy their own meals and don't expect any free lunch from Walkerton's bunch of midnight orators.—Herald.

Toronto Exhibition is almost over, and as happens each season, this year has been another record-breaker in attendance. The splendid weather last week and this is to some degree instrumental and to this may be added its growing popularity. It is a cheap holiday trip and the sight to be seen are an education to any one. There may be seen paintings and the manufacture of articles whose nowhere else.

This year the verdict is "available, libation than ever," and the attendance goes to prove it. $3,000 on Saturday and $15,000 on Sunday, more gate receipts for the first week than last year.

Death of Albert Roland Keeler.

It came with great sorrow and surprise to the town to learn on Sunday that Mr. Roland Keeler, the jeweller, had passed away that morning.

Although he previously had had spells and was apparently in good health, it is thought he had never complained, and was apparently in good health, it is thought he had never complained, and was apparently in good health, it is thought he had never complained.

Deceased was born 27 years 9 mos ago in the town of Hamilton, and when quite young the family moved to Teeswater, where he learned his trade. Later his father opens a jewelry store in the town of Walkerton, and he was in charge of the store for several years ago these were given up and he went to the town of Welland and Durham. Mr. Keeler, Sr., manages the Welland store, while the toys, Cliff and Roland, conducted the Durham store under the name of "H. B. Keeler & Sons," the deceased having charge of the jewelry and repairing end of the business.

Mr. Keeler was ever good natured and kind hearted, always willing to oblige wherever possible. His brother and sister here, with his father who also present, as well as many other friends, will sincerely regret his early demise. His mother died some years ago. Besides his father other friends present from a distance are his uncles and aunts, Mr and Mrs J. H. Keeler, Mitchell, Miss Mary Keeler, Mitchell, and Mrs R. W. Keeler, Woodstock.

Many beautiful wreaths adorn the coffin of the departed one, who was taken out of the city on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. Rev. Mr. Newton officiating. To all sorrowing relatives and friends, the Review extends sincerest sympathy.

Cement Directors Meet.

A very agreeable meeting of the Directors of the Nat. Portland Cement Co. was held in their offices last Tuesday evening. Those present were Pres. McWilliams, and Treasurer McKechnie of town, W. H. Hoyle, M. P. P., C. W. Dyer, St. Thomas; Mackay of Woodstock and McLaren of Stratford, being the absentees.

During the afternoon the directors examined the plant minutely and found it in good shape, and first-class running condition. Few repairs will be required this winter. It will interest all to learn that at the present time the mill is turning out an average of from 1100 to 1300 bbls per day in proportion as the raw material can be drawn in by the C. P. R. This is the greatest average in its history, until Friday, August 28, was the record breaker. On that day 1528 bbls of clinker were turned out, the largest daily output since the wheels first turned.

Very little business was transacted at the directors' meeting, other than the sale of intelligence to the Hydro-Electric Commission re the securing of power. It is gratifying to note that the debt has been materially reduced, and is still diminishing. The Board have received many inquiries concerning another dividend, and it is yet too early in the season for discussion of such a matter. We hope at some future meeting they may be in a position to grapple with the question of a dividend.

Two Barns Burned.

Two of the worst conflagrations in this vicinity, outside of the town, started at 11 A. M. Friday last and by two, two barns, containing the season's crops, were no more. The scene of the disaster was on the 2nd and 3rd streets, near the corner of the town, miles east of upper town, the barns belonging to Miss Farr and Mr. Jno. Staples.

Mr. Staples had finished his threshing the night previous, and next morning the McGillivray Bros., with Mr. Geo. Aljoe, who has the Farr property rented. In two hours the threshing would have been completed, when smoke was smelt and flames were seen rising from a west corner of the barn. No person, it appears, had noticed its inception, supposedly arising from a spark from the engine, but in a few moments the barn was a mass of flame. Three horses were taken out, and the threshing machine after being scorched at the back, but being momentarily forgotten, a fine team of horses worth $300, belonging to Mr. Aljoe, could not be removed on the instant's notice, and perished in the scorching furnace. Carried by a strong wind in a north-easterly direction, pieces of burning shingles were dropped a hundred rods or more distant, and Mr. Staples' exclamation when he saw the blaze proved only too true "We're burnt out." A burning cinder land near the top of the barn roof, then before Mr. Staples could place a ladder in position, the blaze had gained such headway that the structure and contents were doomed. The only animal in the barn, the stallion, was taken out, but the loss comes in the entire large crop going up in smoke, over 1000 bus. of oats and 20 tons of hay, besides other grain, being destroyed. It made a black outlook for him, with horses and 30 head of cattle, without feed or shelter for the winter.

Still travelling north-easterly, the scorching cinders from here threatened Mr. Wm. Wei's property in that direction, and the Durham fire engine was sent for. However it never left the hall, as it was thought it could hardly reach the place in time to check impending disaster, and happily there was no further.

Willing workers with pails prevented the two residences comparatively close to the barns from destruction, also sheds near Mr. Staples' barn. Fences along the 2nd were torn down to prevent spreading.

No one regretted more nor worked harder to ally the fire at the outset than the McGillivray boys. The threshing outfit had been in use little over a week and the occurrence proved very unfortunate for them.

It is estimated the total loss, barns and crops, will approximate $8000 to $7000. Both parties will be but slightly recouped for their loss by the insurance. We learn Mr. Staples has contents worth $1200 and $1800 on barn and contents while Miss Farr has $700.

Special display of trimmed Millinery for Show Day. A special invitation is extended to the ladies to visit our Show Rooms on Fair Day. Miss Dick.

LOST A TOE.—While attending Mr. John Quinn's threshing last Friday, Jas. Eden had the misfortune to lose part of his large toe. It was tramped upon by a horse, completely severing the nail with the greater part of the toe.

LOCAL OPTION STILL UNSETTLED.—Almost everybody had come to the conclusion that we were to have Local Option in Durham, for three years unquestioned when last May's decision was given, especially when the time for appeal expired last June. It appears that through a mistake of Mr. Wright, the hotelkeeper's solicitor, the decision was then allowed to go unappealed, and now they are applying for an order permitting them to appeal the case at the High Court.

Whether or not the order will be granted will be decided at the next County meeting on Sept. 15. In the meantime Mr. J. H. Brown on behalf of the Council, went to Mr. Foster, today, Wednesday, to post the town's solicitor, Mr. Kingston concerning the facts of the case.

WON'T ADVERTISE EXCURSIONS.—The C. P. R. had arranged for another excursion to the west early this month, but owing to the reports that while they cannot cancel the excursion they don't intend to push it, and will not advertise it. He further says that the excursion would be cancelled only for the fact that the Company has arranged with the Railway Commission as to rates, and must carry out its contract. The Grand Trunk is taking the same route as the C. P. R. The Grand Trunk Passenger Agent contends that the fault lies with the men themselves. They won't work. They wouldn't work in the east and won't work in the west.

DEATH OF MRS BRITTON ANDERSON.—On Wednesday a telegram conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. H. Britton Anderson, (nee Cora E. Moffat), at Leduc, Alberta. Deceased was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moffat, Hill St., was well known in Owen Sound, and was one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of the town. She was in her 24th year and two years and a half ago left Owen Sound for Leduc, where she has resided ever since. About a year ago she was married to Mr. H. Britton Anderson, a well known O. Sound boy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson, formerly of this place. Mrs. Anderson was born in Durham, removing here with her parents when she was a child. Besides her sorrowing young husband and grief-stricken parents, she leaves one brother, Mr. H. R. Leduc, Alta., and Miss Anna at home. The funeral took place Wednesday at Leduc—O. S. Sun. The Review joins with the many friends of the bereaved ones in expressing sincerest sympathy.
