Anniversary Services will be held in the Varney Methodist church on Sunday next. Rev Mr Dike, of Kenilworth, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. On Monday evening there will be a hot supper, served in the Orange Hall from 6 to 8 p. m. A good program will be given in the church, Rev Mr Dyke and other speakers being present. Durham orchestra will be present and assist the Varney choir.

ENJOYED BY ALL.—The night of the Borden meeting in the hall brought forth many compliments regarding the Band. Under Mr Wright's training, it has developed greatly and recently three or four new arrivals, both brass and reed players, have added strength. Several expressed the opinion they never heard it to better advantage than that evening, and with regular practice which is now possible during fall and winter, it will probably be second to none in this district.

LAST OF THE WILDERS.—Mrs. Thos. Daly, Mrs. Jno. Moore and Mrs. Wm. Calvert, all near Henry's Corner, Egr. received word lately of the death of their father, Mr. Peter Wilder of Michigan, but one of the earliest settlers of Egr. He was the last of a large family of 9 sons and 4 daughters who settled in North Egremont in the early 50's of last century and they and their descendants there at one time numbered over 100. Now, and for some years back, not one of the name is there though the name will long live in "Wilder's Lake."

NEW BOWLING GREEN.—Mr. Joseph Brown is putting the town and sport-loving fraternity especially under a debt of gratitude for the improvements he is making on the old school grounds. The latest is a first class bowling green, 120x52 feet, capable of accommodating four rinks. It is already smoothed off, seeded, rolled and just on Tuesday connection was made with the waterworks and it can now be sprinkled too. The rink inside is levelled off platforms and dressing rooms nearly completed and altogether visitors at hockey, skating, curling or concerts will have comfort and convenience to the highest degree. Skaters must be fretting to get on to it.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—Sunday and Monday last the worshipping people of Knox Church, Normanby, had successful anniversary services, made notable by the presence of their old pastor Rev. D. L. Campbell. The Sunday meetings were crowded and on Monday evening, in beautiful weather, the church could not give seating room. Pastor Kendall was in the chair and filled it acceptably having a fine program, though long, to present. The choir and a large number of brilliant young singers and reciters made excellent contributions to this programme. Mr. Dines, of the Varney circuit and Mr. C. Ramage were called on for remarks, the latter flavoring his with Western experiences. Rev. Mr. Campbell's topic was "Gathering up the fragments," applying the figure to time, opportunity, &c., in an admirable way. Mr. Wm. Allan gave the report of the Sabbath School, which was certainly a revelation to outsiders. An average attendance of 95 in a little country charge is most credible and the contributions and general interest are also flattering. The proceeds amounted to over $26 on a small admission fee which included ample refreshments.

Letters to the Editor.

Hanover, Oct. 5th, 1908.

THE EDITOR, THE DURHAM REVIEW,—
Dear Sir,—

A Conservative paper in the riding recently complained that I was endeavoring to "conceal the facts." In order to show you and the electors that I have no such desire, I beg to enclose herewith copy of a letter that I am to-day mailing to Mr. Ball, the Conservative candidate.

I am, Sir,

Yours truly,
H. H. MILLER.

DEAR MR. BALL,—

Mr. Borden and the speakers accompanying him, at the recent Hanover and Durham meetings, spoke, I am informed, principally about Sir Wilfrid Laurier's broken pledges, of the responsibility of the Government for bringing in undesirable immigrants to Canada ; of the sale by the Laurier Government of timber limits ; of the North Atlantic Trading Co. ; The Saskatchewan Valley Land Co. ; the Arctic expedition and the outfitting of Montcalm.

From what I have heard and read in the newspapers, I believe that the speakers, upon the occasions referred to, failed to tell the whole truth and that they altogether misrepresented the facts.

I will be glad to discuss the above questions with you at a public meeting to be held in Durham on the evening of nomination day (Oct. 19th) or upon any other afternoon or evening before that date, you and I each to have the same time, say an hour and a half each, and I will be willing to speak first and let you follow me without any right of reply from myself, or you may take half your time before and the remainder after me, or any other way you choose.

This is not to be considered as a boastful challenge but simply as an evidence of my earnest desire to discuss the questions with you before the electors upon the same occasion and from the same platform.

If there are other public questions that you would like to have substituted for those I have mentioned, I will be glad, upon notice, to discuss them instead. The only thing I ask is that you favor me with a reply, one way or another, within six days, that I may know what arrangements to make.

I am, Sir,

Yours faithfully,
H. H. MILLER

To R. J. BALL, Esq.,
Hanover, Ont.

P. S. I will also be glad, at any of my public meetings, to have you speak and to give you the same time as I take myself. H. H. M.

A tea meeting will be given in the Allan Park Methodist Church on Thursday 8th October, at 7 p. m. A good program is in preparation, Varney choir will be present, Dr Taylor Hanover, is to give an address. Admission 15c and 20c.

EARLY DURHAM.—Next Monday evening, the Presbyterian Guild will hold a very interesting literary evening in the basement of the church, the subject under discussion being the early days of Durham in settlement, political and church history. All are welcome.

A BUSY FACTORY.—For this week and perhaps next also, the Furniture factory is working overtime each night for two hours. A special rush of orders is the cause. The factory has been very fortunate, largely through the enterprise of Manager Catton in securing large orders, in running full time all summer, with good prospects for continuing throughout the fall and winter. For the past three months the sales have increased 33⅓ per cent over last year, and this in a season when neighboring factories are running at a low ebb.

Priceville Show.

Artemesia's Agricultural Society's Show on Friday last was again successful, beating the previous year's record in gate receipts and in the hall exhibits surpassing any previous year, for general evenness of excellence. The ladies certainly kept up their end in both plain and artistic needlework and in the culinary department and we suspect much of the fine orchard and garden specimens are to their credit also : no doing without the ladies.

Outside the slackest department was the Swine, each breed showing only one prize winner. There is an increasing interest in the poultry classes, and the Society will soon have to provide accommodation. The sheep record of past years was well-sustained, though as usual the prizes went to six or seven men who make a specialty of sheep-raising and we are certain all of them would welcome a more general competition. The grade cattle class showed very keen competition with numerous animals and prizes were well distributed.

Year by year progress in the horse classes is distinctively noticeable, and the competition was keen and prizes well distributed.

Regrets were expressed that President McMillan was not able to be present owing to the illness of his sons in Winnipeg. To Secy. McKinnon we are indebted for press courtesies and a copy of the Prize list for first day all made out. All the officials will face 1909 with confidence after this year's fine success, even with Markdale occurring on same day.

The Concert as usual drew more than the biggest hall would hold. The talent consisted of D. C. McGregor, the famous baritone, a favorite in Priceville who improves with the years, Eddie Piggott, humorist, Miss Jaffray accompanist, the Jaffray sisters, dancers and last but not least piper Hector McDonald.

Following is the prize list ;

Borden and Ball in Durham

When Mr. Wm. Laidlaw took the chair on Thursday evening last at the Borden—Hanna—Sproule—Downey—Clarke—Ball meeting, the Town Hall was well filled and a number of ladies occupied front seats. Mr. Laidlaw having congratulated the audience and flattered the speakers called on Mr. Ball who had a blow at the defunct Ross government, said they all "felt" the expenditure next year would be 147 millions. He pictured the woes of the woollen men suffering from lack of protection, but said nothing of the happiness of the woollen wearers. He asserted the government didn't understand conditions at all, and as Mr. Miller had gone out of his way to defend it there was a wave about to sweep over them.

Dr. Sproule paid a tribute to our flourishing country including S. Grey. He said nice things about the late Geo. Jackson, had heard nice things about H. H. Miller but lately had changed his mind, but they had his record before them. It was not the duty of an opposition to declare a policy, but it was their privilege to attack. Many of the government were thieves, had become millionaires, He attacked the character of the late Jas. Sutherland, asserted Sifton had lined his pockets, but admitted they were not in a position to prove all their charges. He made the astounding declaration that "THEY" would not sell to settlers but would to companies, while almost everyone had thought it was the other way. He again attacked Miller, went on to talk of increasing expenditure, omitting to mention increasing revenues of course.

Mr Borden flattered the ladies, pitied Sir Wilfrid who was under delusions at times and could not help it, had spoiled a splendid plan of Sir Chas Tupper's and claimed the issues they were fighting for were founded on moral grounds. The rank and fill of the grits were all right all right but their leaders were wrong. The Arctic expedition, A. W. Fraser's alleged misdeeds and other points all makes Mr. Borden think there's going to be a victory for him on 26 October.

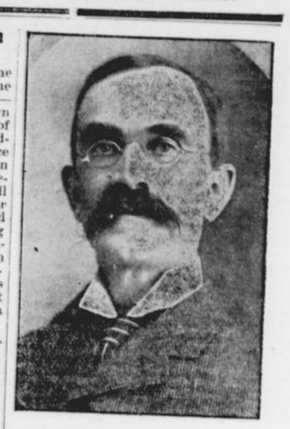
Mr. Downey thought the enthusiasm Mr. Borden had met with had not been equalled since 1878. He tried to show that the expansion of Canada under Laurier was only part of a great world movement. With considerable eloquence he dealt with the G. T. P and Sir Wilfrid's grey hair, the increase of revenue which he called taxation, and predicted a deficit next year of 45 millions. Liberals had stolen Borden's ideas (surely a great mistake if it was going to land us in a deficit like that.) He flattered S. Grey for the support they had given Dr. Jamieson and wanted a similar support for Ball as the government of Sir Wilfrid was going down anyway.

Hugh Clark, M. P. P., the funny man from Kincardine, was next and came to the defence of the Laurier goyernment in a facetious ironical way, charging they would not discuss the scandal charges.

Hanna, Provincial Secretary was the last speaker and came with stories of the warmth of welcome they were recieving, indicating that Mr. Borden would be Premier on 26 Oct.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers. The applause during the evening was generous, but could scarcely be called enthusiastic. While applauding Conservative leaders past and present, many thought it ungenerous that no mention was made of M. K. Richardson, who alone brought the party a cup of cold water since Geo. Jackson's time.

Just opened up. Our new stock of overcoats in addition to our regular stock of Ready made garments. We now control the celebrated "Broadway Brand" of highly tailored garments. The best materials and a good deal more style than most. Prices no higher than the rest. The House of Quality, H. H. Mockler.



To the Electors of South Grey :
Gentlemen,

The Dominion Election will be held on the 26th of October. I again respectfully ask for your vote and influence.

When Alexander McKenzie went out of office in 1878, the public debt of Canada was $140,362,036. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier took office in 1896, the debt had increased to $228,497,432, an annual average increase for eighteen years under Conservative rule, of $6,563,075 in our public debt. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been 10½ years Premier of Canada, his Government had altogether for the 10½ years, only increased the public debt $5,174,427, or considerably less for 10½ years than under the former Government for one year. And the public debt of Canada, per head of the population, was on the 31st of March, 1908, only $42.84, while, when the Laurier Government went into office in 1896, the public debt was, per head of the population, $50.87, and this notwithstanding the fact that the present Government has spent such large sums for the development of the country,

Come, if you please, to my meetings and hear public questions discussed.

It is generally admitted that I have done for South Grey and its people, without making any difference between Liberals and Conservatives, more than any other Member the Riding ever had. If I have so helped the Riding, is it not fair and reasonable that the people of the Riding should give me their hearty support? I believe they will, especially that I have now the advantage of four years experience.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours sincerely,
H. H. MILLER
