Priceville

The warm weather took a change a week ago and the complaints were pretty near as bad during some days of last week of the cold as it was for previous weeks of the heat. Threshing is getting pretty well cornered up and a couple of weeks will finish in the neighborhood.

The grain on some farms is as good as over, but where it was broken down on lowlands the grain is light. However taking all into consideration there are no reasons for complaints.

Our grand exhibition is over and was one of the best ever held in Priceville in the spite of the coolness of the morning, for there were furies of snow flying in the air and furs and overcoats were warm friends for those attending the exhibition. However the glorious sun came out in the afternoon and many a son and daughter took advantage of making an afternoon drive in duplicate form giving preference to somebody else's sisters and brothers as nature teaches everyone to understand the natural inclinations of youthful desires. However as the editor was there it is useless for us to say anything further. The concert at night was quite a success also. Professor H. McDonald was there with his highland suit and bagpipes and he is a grand specimen of the Highlander in kilts. Mr McDonald took second prize at Erin Sons of Scotland demonstration held lately for best dressed Piper and player and his daughter Jessie took 3 prizes for best dancer.

We are pleased to hear that our old neighbor Mr and Mrs Patrick Sullivan are doing good business in the town of Erin.

C. McFayden attended our fair and took advantage of attending Gaelic Communion in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, as C.C. is a lover of the ancient language which was said to be spoken by our first parents in the garden when Adam said to his wife Eve: "Clamer tha thut an duig a bhean mo graidh se tsagail fhuair tha so agus feumthaigh sin aodach a chur orm." Any Gaelic reader can translate this Gaelic sentence.

The Gaelic communion held on Sunday in the Presbyterian church here was well attended.

Rev Mr Matheson is to be away for the next month taking his holidays down in the Maritime provinces. His pulpits will be supplied by the Rev Mr Gilchrist, of Toronto, a fine preacher. He preached for a couple of Sabbaths last year during Mr Matheson's absence.

Miss Janet McEachern is home from Toronto and she intends to stay for some time.

Mrs Chas McDonald, of Bruce Co., visited her father, John McPhail, South Glenelg, for a few days last

School Opening

There is to be no service in the Methodist church here next Sunday, owing to the quarterly meeting at Salem at 10.30 that day. Sunday the 14th inst Mr J Cron of Markdale will (p v) will occupy the pulpit at the usual hour, 10.30 a. m.

Miss Maggie McGirr from near Durham was a guest of Miss Hincks a few days last week.

Mr Chas Grant and daughter of Durham, took the evening train to our Exhibition here on Friday last. Editor Irwin of the Chronicle was there and the Review was represented by the worthy editor, Mrs and daughter.

Rev. H. Berry expects to go to his old home near Hamilton to enjoy his holidays and to assist in the dedication of a new church near the home of his youth.

Mr Donald McMillan, who spent the last month in Winnipeg, is expected home some of these days. We are glad to hear his sons are about alright again after their long illness.

Monday last was as warm as the week previous.

Potato digging is the order this week. A good crop generally.

Some have commenced their fall ploughing but the ground is too dry and hard yet in most places.

Married. This Monday evening the 5th Oct. by the Rev Mr Matheson, Mr Bell of the County of Bruce, to Miss Ellen Stewart, the north line Artemesia.

Mr and Mrs Thos Nichol visited at Mrs Nichol's father, Mr McAllister, of Collingwood lately.

Hector McKinnon, son of Postmaster McKinnon here, is attending Normal School Toronto. Hector was greatly struck on the West and thinks it will be the garden of the world in future years.

Mrs McCabe of Grand Valley visited her sister last week and took in the Show.

Baker Watson of Shelburne was a visitor in Priceville Show day.

Mr McGillivray of Elmwood was a guest of his niece, Mrs N. McKinnon for a few days last week.

A large attendance greeted the pastor of the Methodist church here on Sunday a. m. 4th inst, a good proportion of which were children and young people and all were very attentive and eager listeners as he discoursed about the little foxes that spoil the vines.

At Ebenezer there was a very successful Sunday School Rally. Messrs Wm Ramage, Jas Coleridge and Geo Luthian rendered excellent help in the service of song.
