A Jew was suspected of stealing a bag of oats from a Bruce County farmer. The bag was worth about 75 cents. The County undertook to punish the Jew and spent $150 in the prosecution. The Court could not bring a verdict against the Jew and so he is out—so is the farmer and county too.

Matthews & Latimer wish to announce to their many customers, that they intend to change their system of doing business to cash or produce. Those indebted to them will please take notice of the change and settle all accounts as soon as possible, as all accounts not settled by the last of October will be passed out for collection.

The papers of the large cities are all right if you want them, but it is your own home paper that advertises your churches, your numerous societies, sympathizes with you in your prosperity. In short it is the local paper that mentions the thousand and one items which you are interested in during the year, and do not find in papers of large cities.

The Dominion Government has passed an order in council increasing the pay of election officers. Constables who formerly were paid $1 per day will be paid $1.20 at the level of the ladder and officer will get $10 if there is no poll, and $20 if there are not more than 30 polls he will be paid $2 per poll.

If you think you are wise and well-informed, just see if you can answer these questions: Why do you have hundreds of white horses? Why did you never see a white cow? Why does a horse eat hay backwards and a cow forwards? Why does a hop vine twine to the left and a bean vine to the right? Why does a horse when staked out by a rope unwind the rope while a cow winds it up? Why does a horse get up on his hind feet and a cow on her hind feet. And why does a dog always turn around three times before lying down?

A very lamentable accident happened last week in which Chas. Hoff of this township was ushered into eternity. The deceased and his son were in the bush, and in cutting down a loose limb which they thought was dangerous to the cattle, the limb came down sooner than they expected and in its descent struck Mr. Hoff on the hip, piercing his body. He lived about a day after the mishap. Deceased was fifty-five years of age. The funeral took place on Monday to St. Pauls church cemetery. Rev. Mr. Neudorfer being the officiating clergyman.—Aytton Advance.

WANTED.—25 extra sales people for the Big closing out quit business sale of the Alex. Russell stock of General Merchandise of Toronto. Apply Saturday morning at 10 a. m. at the Hall House inquire for Wm. Baber, Sales Manager.

Obituary.

Mrs. HANNAH LANGRILL. Friday last there passed away one of the very oldest settlers of Bentinck in the person of Mrs. Langrill (nee Hutton) who for years past has resided with her son Samuel on the homestead on the Durham Road. Her first husband, father of Samuel, T. and Chas. Lawrence died 40 years ago. She subsequently married the late Mr. Langrill, and to them was born one son, Samuel, who, with his brothers will sincerely mourn and miss the loving mother that has been their home light for so many years.

She was a native of County Wicklow, Ireland, and 63 years ago came to Bentinck at the age of 18, thus having passed the golden jubilee of her residence in the person of Mrs. Langrill. For 45 years she has been a consistent member of the Methodist Church to which she was much attached. Her funeral took place on Sunday to the little Huton cemetery, and was very largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. Jamieson, conducted the services. As neighbor and friend she was very highly respected and the bereaved ones we offer all sympathy.

Mrs. JOHN ALLAN. With startling suddenness the call came to Mrs. John Allan, Con. 29, Egremont. She had not been well for some months, and was staying with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hostie, near Drumore, where she was tenderly cared for. About a week before her death she went home and was going around, but on Sunday morning she was without warning the end came and she dropped into her final sleep. The exact cause of death was heart weakness.

To mourn her loss, and she will be mourned sincerely, are her husband, her daughter Mrs. Hostie, and two sons, James and John, the former on the homestead, John in Winnipeg. She was a woman of fine qualities, and as wife and mother was greatly beloved. As a neighbor, all who knew her will bear witness to her fine spirit and Christian example. She is being buried to-day, Wednesday, at Maplewood Cemetery. We have no further particulars this week, but extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones in their hour of trial.

Mrs. Wm. Ross. Last week's Toronto papers recorded the death of Mrs. Wm. Ross, a well-known member of the Cameron family. Her brothers, both deceased, were Rev. Jas. Cameron, of Chatsworth, and John Cameron, of Durham who died last winter. Her husband, five daughters and three sons survive her. Mrs. C. McLean, mother of the late Mr. Ross, is now in the home of Major Hugh C. MacLean is now the only one left of her level. Deceased was a resident of Toronto for over 50 years, and intimately associated with the growth and progress of St. James Square Presbyterian Church. Her entire family were around her bedside at the last, and the separation will be a very painful one, for she was a woman of kindly spirit and of much force of character.

Victory in County and Country.

H. H. Miller, M. P., by 118. Laurier will have 50 majority.

Ontario gains in Liberal Representation.—One Minister Defeated.—Another term of Progressive Government.—Laurier will finish his work.—The Scandal cry is adequately punished

It is with feelings of pardonable exultation we write the above headlines which show the main features of the voting on Monday last. The country, and especially Ontario, has shown in no uncertain way that they mean that "Laurier shall finish his work."

The result in South Grey was a disappointment to Liberals who thought that the splendid record of Mr. Miller should have appealed to right-thinking men of both parties more forcibly than it has done. However, when they stop to consider the strenuous efforts made to defeat him, in some cases by discreditable methods, they are satisfied.

Look at the procession that marched over South Grey: Burden has been beaten, Foster has failed, Hanna has been helpless to defeat H. H. Miller, Downey has been downed, Clark was a croaker, Spradley was sent sprawling, Birmingham has been bounced and Lucas was left as a laughing stock.

Never we think was such a "dead set" made upon a member, never we think, was opposition less deserved. The baser elements of partisanship saw a shining obstacle in their path to power, and the word must have gone out "all means extinguish it."

If Miller was not the fair and honorable opponent that he is, he would on the assembling of parliament, "rub it in" to the clique that tried so hard to defeat him. However that would not be public duty, and Miller may be trusted as before to go on doing public service in his own efficient way.

That he will be slated for higher honors in public trust is certain, and as the spectacle of South Grey will have the satisfaction of having chosen wisely.

Coming down to details: Durham surprised both parties: the most sanguine grit never figured 68, the most pessimistic vote never got down to 100 even. There can be no doubt that the sturdy bluff of the Friday meeting, challenging Miller, when it was known Miller could be there, was resented by not a few Conservatives, who know Miller needs no "dragging out," is not the kind to "show the white feather" but an honorable opponent, who if occasion arises, can give blow for blow.

Glencel, which gave 2 for Miller four years ago, this time gives 102, a vote to be proud of. Normanby and Neustadt gives Miller a majority so does Sallivan and Chatsworth, Egremont gives 25 against Miller, a somewhat surprising vote and not easily explained. Hanover with 105, when some thought it would be twice as much, is a notable instance of over confidence.

The returns as far as we know, are as follows: BENTINCK—29 for Bill. Ball had a majority of 101 at the three polls along the gravel road: Miller had 75 at the other 5 polls. GLENELG—102 for Miller. Ball had 60 at Ritchie's 3 at Hunt's, Miller 42 at Dornoch, 48 at the Hall and 75 in the Glen ward.

NORMANBY 21 for Ball. Alsted and Blyths gave 25 each and Aytton 18 for Ball, Hampden 23, Nenagh 25 for Miller. Not sure of the others, but it is 21 in all. NEUSTADT—40 for Miller. DURHAM—68 for Ball. North 9, East 15, West 44. EGREMONT—25 for Ball. Ball had 68 at Allan's, 8 at Drumore, Miller had 51 at the other four polls.

SULLIVAN. We had 21 for Miller but hear a rumor that Ball has a majority. Our figures were: 1, 22, 5 and 37 for Miller, in wards 1, 2, 3 and 4 respectively and 41 in No 5 for Ball. CHATSWORTH—9 for Ball. HANOVER—105 for Miller. These figures give Miller 158. A much reduced majority but safe.

Receiving the Returns. During the day Monday horseflesh was in requisition bringing voters, either in firm or indifferent to the polls, and at 5 p. m. not very many at all within reach were left unpolled.

The north ward of Durham is always the first to be heard from, and when only 9 majority was announced where about 15 was looked for, it was taken as an indication of the slump Miller wards in town. This was confirmed when the East ward gave 15 and when later only 41 was piled up in the west ward, making 68 in all, it was felt that tory Durham had turned over a new leaf.

The exultation of the grits was of short duration for the big majorities at No 1 Glencel and along the gravel road west, came in and Miller was nowhere, especially as Hanover had fallen from grace with only 105. The Egremont polls heard from gave 20 comfort to the grits, but when the Miller ward came in with 75 for Miller there was joy in the camp, inasmuch as it was the rest of the township was received and it was seen that the tiny 2 of 4 years ago was now 102. For an hour the tory camp had the flavor of success around it, had the other camp of defeat but the clouds broke on one camp in sunshine and settled on the other in gloom which was not lifted during the evening.

When all returns were in and a majority over 100 seemed assured there was a chastened feeling among the grits over the reduction of their majority, which did not prevent, however, the jubilant expressions of victory. The town hall had been secured by the Conservatives, but it was taken off their hands by the Liberals, who about 10 p. m. were assured of the double satisfaction of county and country.

Miller had been wired for some time before, but Hanover had to celebrate with their most famous citizen first. Meanwhile the Town Hall, filled to overflowing, many ladies being present, and of course a great preponderance were grits. Mayor Calder had a big "test before him," for when the tory camp ceased coming in, showing Laurier with a comfortable majority, he had to "hold the fort" in some way till Miller came. For over two hours the picked crowd waited, the merry wailing songs from Messrs Wm. Harnage, J. P. Telford, John Clark, Geo. Sinclair to fill up the time between the fine band music, and excellent clarinet solos of Mr. Green.

The ladies and the laddies, young and old, "hung it out" till nearly one o'clock. This time Miller was "prompt" but he wasn't "negligent" for come he did, most opportunely, for the vast crowd had nearly lost patience, and a word would have sent them home.

But the echo of a cheer came up the stairs, it became a reality in a moment, and as the speaker's face came into the vast audience got on to their feet, on to the seats, waving hats and handkerchiefs and cheering literally, "big test before him." Some stalwarts got hold of him and shoulder high carried him to the platform amid a demonstration of regard that falls to the lot of few.

Quietness being restored, the expected speech followed, apt as usual, fragrant with thankfulness to the men who had elected him, whether they were in the majority or not. As in Glencel, Durham, Neustadt, Aytton, &c., or in single efforts here and there throughout the riding. He repeated again what he said four years ago that he considered himself the representative of the whole people whether they had voted for him or not, and he hoped they would ever find him true to their best interests. He deplored the introduction into the campaign of certain cries, that were injurious not only to his cause but to the users themselves and to the whole community.

It was a brief but neat speech, and it filled the bill: the people had seen the victor. Many of them shook his hand and all went home in more or less happiness, generally more.

AT HANOVER. Tuesday afternoon a large number of Liberal stalwarts wended their way to Hanover, there in their member's own town to mingle with each other and compare notes of the fight. Warton Pipe-Band and Hanover Band were on hand with stirring music and a march was made for the new rink where on an impromptu program, Dr. Taylor was installed and amid music and cheers and the small boy's horn a program bubbling over with enthusiasm was carried out.

Brief congratulatory speeches were made by Messrs Dr. Meares, D. Knechtel, C. Ramage and Mayor Calder of Durham, Dr. Fortune, of Aytton, Wiltman and by the M. P. himself. These speeches everyone was waiting for.

Though tired as he well might be he reviewed the campaign and its incidents and of course thanked all and sundry for their good work, referring to the smaller than expected vote in Hanover he playfully informed his townsmen that he had been thinking of taking up a summer residence in Durham, negotiating for a farm in the Glen of Glen-ge, building a winter residence in Neustadt and establishing a deer park in Aytton!

There was no attempt by any of the speakers to gloat over the defeated. It was purely an opportunity to speak of a surprise enthusiasm, by mutual congratulations.

It was a hazy day, the music was fine, everything was nice, the pipes went to Neustadt to give them a tune before tea time and the last public function of the campaign was over.

It's H. H. Miller, M. P. once more.
