From another Correspondent
Wm Aldcorn recently engaged his wife house and is now engaged in tearing out the front of his store to put in a new front of plate glass. This will very much improve the store and its appearance too.

Mr Geo. Watson has rented his house to Wm Myers, a section man, and has moved back to Walter's Falls where he will continue in the harness business.

Mr John Henry, of the hall, 20th of Egremont, has moved into the house lately occupied by Mr Jas Brodie.

Rev Mr Gilchrist, of Toronto, who supplied the Presbyterian pulpit, gave two excellent discourses last Sunday, which were much appreciated by the congregations.

Mrs Wm. Richards of Drayton, sister of Mrs (Rev H.) Berry, was a guest at the parsonage last week. Returning on Saturday she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Electa Hamby, who has spent the summer at the parsonage.

Miss M. E. A. Berry is visiting friends on the Niagara Peninsula and reports a splendid time.

Mr John Crane, of Markdale, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here Sunday the 18th inst., and his sermons were very highly appreciated.

THE "NEWS"

One of the features of the campaign on which many eyes were fixed was the bitter attitude of the Toronto News towards Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his government. The result has been a blow to this paper, which kept on its editorial page throughout the campaign, the brazen falsehood "An Independent Journal." For Mr Willison himself, the partial biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, there must be a great lessening of respect, and his vain attempt to stampede Ontario will long remain as an example of unworthy partizanship on the part of what was once considered a high minded man.
