The Presbyterian Guild held a very successful Halloween Social in the church last Friday evening. A musical program was rendered by the members, in addition to an interesting address on Halloween by Rev Mr. Farquharson, while games appropriate to the occasion were heartily enjoyed by all.

Strathcona lately had an interesting function—the first University Convocation in the Province of Alberta. University work is going on in temporary quarters, pending the erection of an elaborate building on the beautiful site already purchased. When in the West we saw this site and can conceive of no more suitable spot for a great Provincial Institution of learning. Strathcona as the "University City" has reason to be proud.

The widow of the late conductor Chas. Clarke, has entered an action for $10,000 damages against the C. P. R. for the death of her husband, who was killed while coupling a C. P. R. mail train at Hanover on Thursday last. The accident is alleged to have been brought about by the foot of the unfortunate man catching in a frog, which the widow claims should have been protected by a board.—Bruce Times.

The kind of clothing we sell is the kind that wins favor with the best dressed men everywhere. It is in the latest styles with the little distinctions of fine tailoring, they have the advantage of being ready for immediate use, less cost, and better than anything else ready-to-wear. James Ireland.

HORTICULTURAL AND VEGETABLE GROWER'S CONVENTION.—The annual Convention of the Ontario Horticultural Association which is the Central organization of the Horticultural Societies in the Province of Ontario, will be held at the City Hall, Toronto, on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 10th and 11th commencing at 2 p.m. A very interesting program has been arranged bearing on all phases of Horticultural work and a large attendance is expected. On Thursday, Nov 12th, the Ontario Vegetable Grower's Association will hold its annual convention in the City Hall the first session starting at 9 a.m. Both these Conventions are being held during the week of the Ontario Horticultural exhibition when single rates are in force on all the railways in Ontario. Thus enabling delegates and all others interested in Horticultural and Vegetable growing to present at the minimum expense.

The United States elections on Tuesday resulted in favor of the Republicans by a large majority. Gov. Hughes is re-elected to the Governorship of New York State in spite of the gambling interests.

Thanksgiving on Monday. Monday, 9th November is the National Thanksgiving day, and is also the King's Birthday. All loyal citizens of King Edward and of the King of Kings have a double reason to observe the day. May the review of all our blessings lead us to true thankfulness.
