The Three Hundredth Anniversary of Milton's Birth.

(Dec. 9, 1908.) There was a man sent from God, whose name was John Three hundred years have left their tell-tale rings Upon the tree of time since he appeared; Milton (to be remembered and revered); Whose spirit mounted on seraphic wings; Who saw, though blind, extraordinary things; Who wrought in obloquy, and persevere; And Orpheuslike with his great music rear'd A monument surpassing those of kings, Three hundred years, courageous, lofty soul, Hast thou by precept and example taught Thy lesson. Have we learned it as we ought? Have we moved upward, nearer to the goal? Yes, some what have we learned; be with us still, And teach us Man's high function to fulfil. W. M. MACKERACHER.

National and Comprehensive in Scope.

The 1908 Christmas Number of 'The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine,' which maintains a broad catholicity of outlook, strikes a dominant national note. Articles of general interest from the pens of leading Canadian authorities treat a pleasing variety of topics in a comprehensive manner. Dr. B. E. Fernow, of the University of Toronto, in a sweeping survey of the timber situation in Canada, impresses the farmers' interest in forestry. Turning the pages, one's interest is arrested by such topics as Frank Yeigh's picturesque pen-portraits of Norwegian agriculture, 'The House in History and Romance,' the 'Outlook for the Best Industry in Canada,' &c. The chorde of sentiment are touched in 'Christmas on the Farm' and 'An Old Boy's Recollection.' Other noted articles are: 'A Quarter of a Century in Poultrydom,' 'The Trend of Maritime Agriculture,' 'Quebec's Dairy Industry,' and a description of the largest fruit farm in British Columbia. There is also a Home Department, a fiction department, and all is pleasingly illustrated. Subscribers to 'The Farmer's Advocate' are presented with this number in lieu of a regular issue. To non-subscribers, the price is 50 cents per copy. New subscribers will receive it as a premium while the supply lasts. Address the WILLIAM WARD CO., Limited, London, Ont.

Edge Hill.

A Literary Society has been started here, meetings to be held every two weeks. A successful meeting took place last Friday evening. Mr. Jas. Edge and Mrs. Edge celebrated their Diamond Wedding last Tuesday. We extend hearty congratulations. A full report will be found on page 1. Messrs Arch. Ector and Harry Williams, who have been in the north-west the past three months, returned home a week ago, hale and hearty. We are pleased to hear that Master Jno. Weir, who returned last week from Fergus hospital is improving nicely. We are glad to see that Mr. Thos. Greenwood is able to be out again. Our popular teacher, Miss Annie Wardlaw is leaving at the end of the term. A new teacher is now advertised for. Messrs W. J. Ector and Geo. Moore, of town, are framing at Mr. Jno. Staples new barn. We wish ye Editor, staff, and all Review readers a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
