Strong Words.

The local option contest in Owen Sound is progressing surely to the result that the meceure will still be retained All three of the papers are out and out for local option. The following is an abstract from a powerful article in the Times of last week :

" No persistent violation of the law ba in Atwood and Brussels. the few could in any sense be regarded as an indication that the law in fact and principle has not been a benefit to Owen Sound. Every enlightened nation in the world is adopting restrictive measures in recognition of the fact that as ; commercial proposition the use of in value for the money spent on it. As an son industrial proposition, the people who are addicted are unfit and undependable as employees and become a nuisance or a charge upon the community; as a social proposition it is associated with at home the dive and prothel; as a moral proposition it fails to fit into any feature which has in its character the uplift of humanity morally, physically or spiritually. Alcohol has its place in the industrial world. But as a beverage no intelligent man to-day but is bound to admit that the reaction is greater than the banefit, Medicin ally or as a stimulant it may have its place on the same principle as arsenic or strychnine and should be properly administered. But why extend the discussion when there is not a pretension c: argument in its favor. The sore he d of the morning after the night before, the misery, the heart breaks, the wre :ked domestic life and the failures are piled up at its door mountains high. For these reasons the same presautionary neasures that are used to control conte gious diseases are deemed advisable by the law-makers. and given to the municipalities to put in force. This is what the local optionists in Owen Sound are endeavoring to provide and if as in the case of smallpox there are outbroaks occasionally toba, is this week visiting her father DOMINION ELECTIONS-1908.
