"Something must be done at once," bounds of Serranto, the lady turned a Little did Madame Monteleone know deaf ear. Like her mother, she had no the bitter, rebellious thoughts of which ions. Her day was divided between dry with growing hope gave no trace. monotonous duties and hard study; Maand the child was never allowed to her grandchild. "You play and sing

It was like old times at Serranto; the only difference was that every one was I went to England." older. Even the servants forgot at times, and called the young lady "Bi-

Madame Monteleone never once thought that the life Inez led was dull; Bianca had not found it so; she had never complained; she had never asked questions of the great unknown world, nor seemed to long to join it. She never tired of study as Inez did, for that young lady at times flung down her books and passionately declared that she would never read another line.

children," she cried one day to her horrified listener. "I see no one but you | fear for her plans. and the servants; I am tired of you all, tired of my books and my work. Let one dark cloud that had hung so heavily new acquaintances when she brought Then did poor Madame Monteleone girl's life was breaking. clasp her hands and mourn over the degeneracy of her daughter's child.

of her loveliness. Child as she was, she In hot haste a psysician was summon. This face that had smiled at her with understood that the face which smiled ed from Seville. For many long, weary such vivid admiration shining in the at her from the depths of the old mir- weeks the poor lady lay between life and dark eyes, was the first of its kind she

the girl; "I am young, and my face is move without assistance. like the picture in the gallery; but, who | When the first shock was over, Madcares for it?—who sees me?—who cares ame Mounteleone pondered seriously as "If ever he rides on the highway again, music, and song gladdened young faces thing will happen," she said to herself. was no sign this evening of the gallant tions of the little Pekinese spaniel, her through all these scenes. Dreaming Monteleone!" So nothing was written breeze there came the sound of a horse's color of a red or of a black, bear or white or striped like a dream and the sound of a horse's color of a red or of a black, bear or white or striped like a dream and the sound of a horse's color of a red or of a black, bear or white or striped like a dream and the sound of a horse's color of a red or of a black, bear or color of a red or of a black. among the oranges and myrtles, she saw to Lord Lynne, and he never heard either rapid gallop. Even in the far distance white, or striped like a drag 1, so that there may be a dog appropriate herself a queen among gay and gallant er of the accident or of the illness of his linez knew the plumed hat and the dark that there may be a dog appropriate to avery costume."

gloomy castle ceased to exist for her; Juanita, who was cook and housekeeper, "Is mine really a nice face, Nita!"

awoke with a shudder to the cold, stern them was the high road that led to Sevant, in affected norror. "Did ever any one ask such questions. Your face craters. He thinks that they may be reality of her life. She lived at last ille, and the poor child gratified some of is well enough, signorina. It is the mind, big theory he showed photographs of sal. almost entirely in dreamland. There all her longings by watching the people who not the body, we must care for." Then, his theory he showed photographs of saling regions in India and alcowhere and pardoned her; if there had been any seen.

outlet for that ardent imagination, the fate of Inez Lynne would have been very ful, wisiful face, half hidden by the the heroine. different. Properly trained and edu- leaves of the myrtle trees, and wonder- Impatiently enough Inez waited for uates are not to converse inside the cated, she would have made an artist ed who the lovely, high-bred girl could the next day. It rose at last, !right cloisters with the students of the other or an authoress. Her quick, active, be-what she was doing, why she gazed, and beautiful as its predecessor had glowing fancy would have found legiti- day after day, with such longing eyes, been. Her first thought was: "Shall I sex. The girls much resent this neitself until the girl's whole life became It was some little break, some change in Even Madame Monteleone remarked dom. To enforce the order the senate one unreal dream. Even had she known the almost unendurable monotony. When how bright and radiant the young face has established a woman censor, with the least nourishment." destined for her, it would have been hastened home. No one but Juanita the musical voice that gaily bade her his signal for a reception which was for the signal for a reception which was for a reception which was formally do not be signal for a reception which was signal for a rendered cautious by her failure with of the long hours she spent in the "How beautiful she is!" said the lady clare they themselves are quite cap-

RO

Where was the English father of whom she heard ever and anon from the old servants a few mysterious words? the high road from the grounds was a monthly and from the grounds was a long week the same thing happened: trance hall. Each member's name is printed on it and opposite each name better than doing immediate duties.

The hardened conscience is the or Months ago, one day when she had longed more than ever to leave Serranto, she went boldly to Madame Monteleone, and asked where her father was. Her distinct the high road from the grounds was a longed more than ever to leave Serranto, shrubs. By the shrubs, day after day, the gallant young cavalier. She was too shy and tmid to let herself be seen; but the day would have been blank to her no mail for him. Red or white pegs The man who puts all his faith in himself usually despairs of the universe. said, "You are all mine, Inez; you were One evening ah, to the last day of to say that the love and care given to sang and the deep blue sky seemed to her in Serranto were not sufficient— smile upon her. Her beautiful, restless that she craved for a fuller life, wherein face was turned to the long road that

So time passed on, and day by day, the wish and longing for some break in her life's monotony grew stronger. The taken fright, and seemed anxious only before the judge. time was to come, and did come, when to throw its rider and make its escape. she looked back to those quiet days with For many minutes the young girl watch. of the arraigns, "do you wish to cha!envy and regret—when she would have ed that encounter. Her face grew white lenge any of the jury?"

The prisoner looked to those quiet days with fear, for the horse appeared. The prisoner looked to those the prisoner looked to the prisoner looked to

Unfortunately the wrong thing was will be over. If something does not pleasures, no amusements, no compan- the proud, beautiful face she watched dame Monteleone seldom left her home, said one day, with some complacency, to years before she knew that she had any taught myself English; I can read every replied Inez, triumphantly. "I have English book in the library; I should be able to speak it in a short time if

A wistful, sad look came over Madame Monteleone's face. "It will be useless, my dear child," she said. "You will never leave Spain. You will never see England. There is something for you to do here-a life's task to accomplish."

England," sounded like a death-knell to She had seen so few strange faces that fying. The children have their meals the bright hopes and fancies upon which a young and handsome one was sure to on the premises and spend the entire the young girl had lived. . She made interest her. No visitors ever came to day there. no reply, but the expression of deter- Serranto. Madame Monteleone had mination that fell upon her young face never even during her daughter's life-"I want to see men, and women, and might have alarmed Madame Monte- time visited, for she knew no one in over her, the gloomy monotony of the little Bianca to Serranto so many years the stairs, slipped and fell. At first the object for which she lived. Isolated from The life that had contented Bianca little household were dreadfully a armed, the world, she had found her happiness Monteleone was one monotonous weary- and believed, when they saw their lady's in the discharge of her duty and in ing round to her beautiful and high- still, white face, that she was dead. But, planning the restoration of the Montespirited daughter. Day by day she be- when the servants raised her and laid came less endurable. A new knowledge her upon the bed, they found she still found her sole pleasure in longing for it rors was beautiful beyond words. The death, She recovered at last, but it was had seen. It was a dream coming true. bright dark eyes that flashed there had to find herself a helpless cripple, and to The heroes she had made for herself "What is the use of it all?" sighed doctor that she would not be able to Would he remember her? Would he hear the sad sentence pronounced by the were brave and courteous like him, for my singing or anything else I do? to what step she would take with re- I wonder whether he will look for me?" Was ever life so bare and dull as mine?" gard to her young grandchild. Common she thought. Long hours in the evening gloaming sense and reason told her that she That wonder increased until Inez felt were spent in wondering what the world ought to write to Lord Lynne and ask it must be gratified. When the evening ine bias is easily discoverable, says was like beyond Serranto—that bright him to take his daughter; but the treaworld where gay cavaliers wooed and sured idea of her life clung to her still, Up and down the hard road those beauwon beautiful ladies, where dancing, and and she could not renounce it. "Sometiful, wistful eyes wandered; but there authority on the standard qualification."

Inez found greater liberty and free- With a crimson face and heart beating gled. The time must come for her, as Madame Monteleone never left her room. group of trees. She heard how the rider for all other girls, when sweet love She was too nervous to bear any noise slackened his pace as he drew near the words would be whispered to her in the or much conversation. For one hour ev- shrubs where he had seen her. He twilight, when her smile would give rapery morning Inez read to her, and received rew rein there, and sat for some minture and her frown despair. All these ed her instructions as to how the day utes looking over the grounds of Sor. pictures she made for herself; and while was to be employed. So many hours rento. She could not see the disapponitthe sun was still golden in the sky, be- were to be given to music, so many to ment that clouded his face; then he fore the flowers and birds were quite reading, and so many to household emasleep, the sharp voice of old Caterina ployments. The music Inez never miss- "He came on purpose to see me," she would be heard calling the young sig- ed; it was the one solitary pleasure of cried to herself. "He looked and waited nora in; it was time to close the house her life. When that was over, the rest for me. He has thought of me, just as I

After a few cold, formal words with not spend it now as she had been oblig- "Where have you been, signorina?"

was fair and charming, while the reality passed. Sometimes it would be one of seeing something like disapponitment in the regions in India and elsewhere, and those questioning the passed that there is evidence of a was dull and prosaic beyond measure. It the heroes of her dreams—a cavalier ridthose questioning eyes, she said: "It is maintained that there is evidence of a was easier for that gifted, artistic, iming at full speed. Carriages, ladies, a bonny, bright face, young lady. You radical arrangement of terrestrial salt aginative being to make a world for hercountry people—all and everything had will know its value some day," she adddistricts. self and live in it, than to school her an interest for her. They belonged to, ed, smiling as she spoke. proud spirit to bear patiently the mono- nay more, they were part and parcel of It was a break in the monotony at suddenly," she thought; "and she will when hill, valley, and stream all belong.

When the hour's reading was ended, by Montalance The broad for Montalance Livening Valley. all the more probably comply with my ed to the Monteleones. The broad, fer- Madame Monteleone kissed Inez more Standard. No word was said to Inez that gave little remained of the once large estates; her. tile lands had been sold or forfeited, and tenderly than usual as she dismissed her any prospect or hopes of brighter but that little was picturesque and plea"This long day," said Inez to herself; always cure my coughs and colds." the bread of life. and cross as grandmamma. What will - e trees ran by the little stream that my life have been?—how shall I bear it found its way into the river near Seville.

Large myrtles lent their shade: trees.

When the evening hour drew near, again she waited, and, hearing once more board from which the clubmen may tell mother's place. No one in the wide clear to Inez Lynne—she was walking as No words can describe the blank feeling With her guardian's tears still wet ward she remembered how the sun shone of desolation that seized the girl's heart. upon her face, the girl lacked courage and the flowers bloomed, how the birds she might have some pleasure and hap- led to the city, when she heard the sound of a horse galloping quickly. Looking back, she saw a horseman vain-winter and summer, spring and autumn, of its rider. Through all that terrible mot you'd call in training, but I would-his self-possession. His courage and fat old josses in the corner."—Argonaut.

calmness won the victory at last, and the trembling steed recognized a master's The cavalier was obliged to dismount, for in the struggle the plumed hat had fallen from his head, and the silvermounted riding whip lay upon the ground. As he raised them he caught sight of the beautiful face watching him so intently. A cry of surprise fell from his lips, and he gazed in bewilderment, doubting whether it was a vision or reality. But when he saw the rich crimson her guardian thought, "to control and Inez, one bright morning; "I am seven- knew that it was a beautiful reality flush that covered the face, and the Experiment in London Has Proved a keep within proper bounds that wild, teen; in ten years more I shall be twenimpetuous disposition."

London is experimenting with the proper bounds that wild, teen; in ten years more I shall be twenwhich had so greatly startled him. Raisair schools. They are for poor children, their service is from June 1st to October done. To all the young girl's longing, happen soon, I shall run away, and make had seer his face distinctly! it was The beginning was made last summer dark and handsome; but had the poor, and was purely experimental. The aumotherless child been older, she would thorities made a grant of £400 to see have distrusted at a glance those false how the thing worked. They have inlips and those deep, piercing eyes. As it creased the appropriation for next sum-was, she saw but the beauty of the first mer to £2,000 and three schools will face that had ever looked admiringly be established. leave the boundary of the castle. In well; you speak French and Italian brow, the dark mustache that concealed classes of twenty-five each. The staff vain she asked of the absent father fluently. All accomplishments are use- the treacherous lips, the deep, dark eyes will consist of one head teacher, three that had gazed so ardently upon her. He assistant teachers, a nurse, cook and belonged to the gay world. Perhaps even | helper and a janitor. then, she thought, he might be hasten-dreams, she had a real hero for them; set up on the grass and the chairs of

CHAPTER XVII. Those few words, "You will never see |"if I shall ever see that face again." "I wonder," thought Inez to herself, leone had she seen it, and caused her to or near Seville. The friends of her youth Madame Monteleone, while ascending no one there likely to help her in the ago. She saw no use in it. There was the few romances she had read, un- ble. In any case, I will keep Inez with if she was disappointed; she had neither perial use, gave an order thus: known to Madame Monteleone, gave her me. If she goes to England, she will hoped nor expected to see him; she had "For the color, let it be like that of

she was in gay palaces and brilliant felt too sorry for the young girl ever asked Inez, simply. "Tell me, if you rooms. Love and homage surrounded to control or betray her movements. So, were to see my face once, would you cal Society in London, H. G. Tomkins of the long. her; the bravest and noblest sought her smiles.

From such close and noblest sought her when the music was ended, and old Catthink of it, and want to see it again?"

Cal Society in London, H. G. Tomkins offered a new explanation of the long-standing mystery of the bright rays emission of the bright rays emiss

Many faults, many errors, must be and dreamed, but which she had never about; a real incident had happened, No Flirting at Glasgow University. Some who passed by noted the beauti- she had ever dreamed of, and she was through the long years?"

Large myrtles lent their shade; trees, whose rich and luxurious perfume loading board from which the clubmen may tell at a glance just what members are in the long pause the rider made by the club and whether there is mail for but they come to harvest in daylight. One evening it was past the usual opposite state of things. As nearly You cannot do much good for men if you seek to do good only to the good.

Some of the books in the library, he demontation of the books in the library, he demonts of the good. mother's place. No one in the wide clearly detail of it was vivid and there was no sound of a horse's callen time; she had been reading for nearly 3,000 names appear on the board it is you seek to do good only to the good. "He has forgotten me," she said; "he is tired of never seeing me, and will not come again." (To be continued.)

Taking His Pick. The burly prisoner stood unabashed

PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR

OPEN AIR SCHOOLS.

Of course there are buildings which ing to see some lovely lady who would are occupied a part of each day, as well smile upon him and call him her knight. in pleasant as in unpleasant weather; How handsome, how brave, how cour- but unless the weather is hopelessly bad almost all the time is spent in the That night when Inez dreamed her open air. A blackboard on an easel is and he lost nothing from her vivid, the pupils are grouped before it. The children are small and the course calisthenics, nature study in the open, and the results of all these in physical ties of that hall since Champ Clark made improvement are said to be very grat! a speech there last summer."

leones. Isolated from the world, Inez DR. HUNT'S BUST DEVELOPER Will develop your bust from two to three inches in a very short time. ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS. Price $1.00, express prepaid. The Edward's Medicine Company, 611 Bathurst Street, Toronto, Ont.

Dogs to Match,

The late Dowager Empress of China the most powerful personage of the I was called of Rheumatic Gout by day, yet between the lines of a recent MINARD'S LINIMENT. imperial edict a delightfully femin-

Inex Lynne's ardent imagination led and then farewell forever to the race of Suddenly upon the calm evening the sleeve of a golden robe, or the

SOLD ON

The senate of Glasgow University toms.

the court, or the grand mariage she exThey were not very extensive, those by far than her mother ever was. If threaten to refuse to enter the classpected to make. "Let it come upon her grounds of Serranto. Time had been I were but well now, all would be safe."

I were but well now, all would be safe."

I were but well now, all would be safe."

I were but well now, all would be safe."

I were but well now, all would be safe."

ed the air, grew as they would. The shrubs, and heard his half-muttered exgrounds were not cultivated; they were clamations of disappointment at not see any of the members. The peg board in the covers several large panels in the c wildness. The boundary that separated the high road from the grounds was a long week the same thing happened: trance hall. Each member's name is Nothing clears up remote difficult that did not bring him past Serranto. are inserted in the holes to show an himself usually despairs of the universe.

DODD'S

WANTED

Being the Largest Manufacturers of High-class Furs in Canada we can afford to pay===

Highest

WE INVITE CORRESPONDENCE

Thoroughly Subdued

"Your town hall," said the travelling entertainer, "is an excellent one to speak in. There isn't the slightest echo, and of study is light. There are games, too, village hotel; "there hasn't been a blamed thing the matter with the acous-

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

Crows on a Spree.

Sitting in an Indian garden one day, Boston Record. and irritated beyond measure by the petty larcenies and effrontery of a party of Indian crows, the writer was tempted for once to put them to the proof in this matter. They had taken the bananas from the table in front and the biscuits from the plate at his side with shameless persistency. So a few more biscuits were procured and surreptitiously soaked in rum. It was not long before half a dozen crews came down and cleared the plate as usual.

The spirit worked very promptly upon them, and in ten minutes they were all in a state of semi-intoxication. While a few made futile efforts to reach branches overhead others essayed to perch on the roof ridge of the nearest 9 Adelaide St. East - TORONTO has got to make good on this farm on into the gutters .- London Globe,

Halifax. ANDREW KING.

I was cured of Acute Bronchitis by MINARD'S LINIMENT. LT.-COL. C. CREWE READ.

I was cured of Acute Rheumatism by MINARD'S LINIMENT. Markham, Ont. C. S. BILLING.

Mrs. Howe's Eloquence.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is getting more eloquant as her years increase, her friends declare. She is now nearly 90, and the other day at a recepopen for the negro we might at least

Origin of Californian Petroleum, In a recent paper A. M. Edwards discusses the origin of the petroleum of California. The relation which has been proved to exist between presentday deposits of marine diatoms and Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in cows. | more ancient sources may have had a asphalt and petroleum, suggests that the Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria. like origin. The petroleum of California may be the result of the decomposition of ancient beds of marine dia-

Slim Diet.

A certain father, who is fond of putting his boys through natural history examinations, is often surprised by their mental agility. He recently asked them to tell him "what animal is satisfied "The moth!" one of them shouted confidently. "It eats nothing but holes." -Atchieon Flobe.

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper. ---Sentence Sermons.

Character is eaught, not taught. Living for bread is one way of losing ways cure my coughs and colds."

Men are to be judged by where they are going rather than by whence they He falls into pride's pit, who passes by on the other side whenever he sees one who has fallen. It's not the wrongs we do Him that worry the great Father of us all; it's the ill we do ourselves. When you take the rats of business worry to the church, it's not strange they leave you nothing but chaff.

No matter how elequent you may be talking to your Father in heaven, it will not balance a sour disposite to o start where charity is said to begin.

your family here. Henry The Girl-How did he The Bachelor-Well, he them.-New York Tow

Prices

THE SELLERS GOUGH FUR CO. LTD.

244-250 Yonge Street - TORONTO

Making the Thing Clear.

my voice could be heard distinctly in class, the members of which are mostly 150 OLD TIMESONGS The visitor, a speaker well known for nipeg. The Underwood is now at home in Helifax, St. John, N. B., Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London, and Edmonton, with agencies in all the other cities.

What interests me about Wagner, says a writer in London Opinion, is his affection for live beasts and animals. In "Siegfried" we have a dragon and in "Lonengrin," as you are all aware, there is a very beauti- Displacements, Falling of the Womb, Painful swan. When the late Sir Augus- ful or Irregular periods, Uterine and Ovartus Harris produced this latter opera ian Tumors or Growths, also Hot Flushes, Just before the rise of the curtain, Back or Bowels, Kidney and Bladder troubles. ably surprised and startled to hear sex. You can continue treatment at home at the indignant voice of one of the a cost of only 12 cents a work. My book, stage hands resounding from the "Woman's Own Medical Adviser," also sent free on request. Write to-day. Address, realms behind, inquiring with char- Mrs. M. Summers, Box H. 8, Windsor, Onc. with the damned duck?"

NEW ADVERTISING AGENCY. Press Agency, Toronto, and Mr. Fred tion given her in Boston made what W. Thompson, manager of the advertis-GASOLINE her friends say was the finest speech ing department of the same company, are to which the bishop replied that he of her life. She said that when she in the city to-day completing arrange. never suffered from insomnia. The carl began to talk about woman suffrage ments for the establishment of an adver. observed that he wished he knew the "It was my good fortune to get in- been secured in the Royal Trust Building, simple. If he felt drowsy he started to was told that, when the bell rang, he was to answer it. When, therefore, he heard it ring, he picked up the receiver and shouted: Hello! Who's there?"

were dead."-Tit-Bits.

completely turned the tables on an incallow youth, eager to score off a well known married suffragette who had just Miss Gawthorne reflected for a second. "Well," she said, her voice taking an Repeat it:-" Shiloh's Cure will al-his verbose and circumlocutory mode of "Epitome,' children, is in its signification synonymous with synopsis."

Wagner's Swan,

The answer came back: "I'm 105." "Go on," said the boy. "It's time you

Miss Mary Gawthorne, the suffragette, terrupter, who, in a clumsy attempt to ridicule, asked her, "Don't you wish you were a man?" by replying, "No; do earnest, intimate note, "I don't know

-- London Times.

The superintendent of a Sunday School class in Philadelphia recently called up-speech, began his address as follows: 110 COMIC RECITATIONS, THE PRACTIC-"This morning, children, I purpose AL POULTRY KEEPER. 10 cents each or to offer you an epitome of the life of 3 for 25 cents and our Catalogue of 400 Book St. Paul. It may be perhaps that there | Bargains FREE. are among you some too young to grasp | The R. O. SMITH CO., Dept. A., Orillia, Ont.

UNITED TYPEWRITER CO.

Some time ago an office boy, answer- PAZO OINTMENT is guara

Wit of a Suffragette.

"Don't you think mothers should stay at home with their children?" asked a about that: but I do think children should stay at home with their mothers."

----Color of Human Hair In the case of human hair color we find that children are not ordinarily darker than their darker parent. Consequently, if both parents have flaxen hair the children willh ave hair of the same sort. From this principle, applied generally, it follows that when both parents have an organ in a low condition of development it will be so also give her a Bible. After he had bought it in all of their children. This principle he did not know what to put on the purchase a modern hotel in the most prosper-ous town in Saskatchewan, on the Soo line; makes an annual profit of twenty thousand. It will require twenty-five thousand cash to bandle it. Reasons for selling purely domestic. Will consider smaller hotel in exchange as part payment. W. T. McKenzie, Royal ho-tel, Weyburn, Sask.

DATENT FOR SALE. GAS BURNER oloves, heaters and furnaces, F. G. Crone, 49 East Utica street, Buffalo.

FOR SALE-DETROIT DRUG STOCK AND fixtures; new, modern building; estab-lished; $25 daily sales; exceptional opportun-

Words and Music Complete

$8 a month in food," said the manager of one of the biggest farms in California to me, "and they don't do $20 worth of work. You see plainly there is no use paying them $15 a month wages, or the balance would be on the wrong side, Mexican greasers cost us between $8 and $9 for food a month, but they will do a "But take your husky young foreigner or native born American worker. He costs less-about $6 a month when you of wheat up or it goes."-Outing. ----

To All Women: I will send free with full instructions, my home treatment which

An Insomnia Cure, Messrs. Fred Diver, manager Central Lord Rosebery. Lord Rosebery comtising agency in this city. Offices have remedy. The bishop's formula was very After a few cold, formal words with Madame Monteleone, the young girl was dismissed to her room. Standing by the dismissed to her room. Standing by the words with the fore you been, signorina?"

Where have you been, signorina?"

Young girl was dismissed to her room. Standing by the dismissed to her room. Standing by the whole of the price is low. Full particulars free.

"Where have you been, signorina?"

Young girl was dismissed to her room. Standing by the whole of the price is low. Full particulars free.

"Where have you been, signorina?"

Young girl was dismissed to her room. Standing by the whole of the price is low. Full particulars free.

"Where have you been, signorina?"

Young girl was dismissed by the whole of the other. This seemed to me an intoler office will no doubt secure its share of bery, we are told, replied that it was his practice to choose the lesser evil, and able tyranny. I couldn't help but Montreal business.—Montreal Herald, his practice to choose the lesser evil, and he preferred want of sleep to reading > case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in to 14 days or money refunded. 50

The Unexpected.

"You're on," responded Brooks. "I beg you pardon," said the fair maiden, flashing a radiant smile on Brooks; "but I am a trifle lame. May I ask you to help me off the car?"

A Woman's Sympathy Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's bill a heavy financial load? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? I know what these mean to delicate women—I have been discouraged, too; but learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your here dens. Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and Bromine, useful in medicine, photography, the manufacture of dyes, and in certain metallurgical operations, is produced commercially in but four States of the United States, Michigan, Ohlo, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Last year's output was 1,379,496 pounds.

A little boy wanted to give his mother mother, with the author's compliments." THE FAVORITES MATCHES "Silent as the Sphinx!" THE MOST PERFECT MATCHES YOU EVER STRUCK Always, everywhere in Gasode, ask for Ridy's Matches

ISSUE NO. 53, 1908

HELP WANTED.

GENTS-MEN AND WOMEN ARE MAK vention; send 25c for sample and full par-ticulars; money back if not satisfied; ex-clusive territory. Alcono Company, Beams-MBITIOUS MEN AND WOMEN, WORK our advertising material. Good pay, cast weekly; reliable, send stamp. Dept. C., Simp-lex Mfg. C., London, Ont.

ROUTEMAN - REGULAR CUSTOMERS, salary or commission. Affred Tyler, London. Ont.

FOR SALE. MODERN HOTEL FOR SALE. HE MOST REASONABLE PROPOSITION

Where Negro Labor Doesn't Pay. "The Southern colored people cost me good $1.59 worth of work a day. are catering on a big scale, but be wants a choicer class of food; but then he works. I can afford to pay such young fellows $2 or $2.50 a day and have a bigger margin of profit than for the profit side of accounts, from a blade

An amusing story is told of the late Bishop of London, Dr. Creighton, and sermons.-London Globe. PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

"Bet you a dinner," said Rivers, in an undertone, "she faces to the rear when she gets off."

An hour or two later. "I judge," remarked Rivers, as they sat down to the dinner he was paying for, "that the beauteous damsel overheard us."

will if you will assist me.

All you need do is to writ for a free box of the remedy which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one box will cure you—it has done so for others. If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for 2c (the cost of a postage stamp). Your letters held confidentially, Write to-day for my free treatment, MRS. F. E CURRAH, Windsor, Ont.

Production of Bromine

The Usual Formula

Block

I wen'y

Herald

liny form of fainting fro rades. Revie the work of the fire go the water we scone by the Dines the fir their streams Firth avenue which vantage the hose, F ad been dest New York. of "The Three brought under the actors and had passed in The fire camign on the fre ing and spread tre building and which were op: reported to t here was smi the building. went behind th the situation to them to cut the quickly done, an

the upper gallery reached the stre behind waiting to hurry out, as waiting for their driving snowstorn dress.

red without any

The big crowd

chowing that a fir udience.

giving a thought conventional atti-DEVELOPS

Effect of Medicine

Body and Mi

SCALED MT. H Miss Annie S. Peck New York, Dec. 28 triumphant tour of th des, during which the highest peaks in ! Annie S. Peck, of P ernment. In speaking of her the precipitons slope of caran, Miss Peck asc her success to the two who accompanied her. to the experience of t aided by what I myself scaling the high summi and a number of detac the Andes and Rockies Peck, "that I succeede the 24,000 feet altitude the summit of Mt. Huar arrived here to-day about Alliance from Crystal, successful ascent Miss sonally congratulated Leguia, and a gold sented to her by the I

ht, I believe, surpass