G. & J. McKECHNIE

J. S. McIlraith

The year 1908 with its pleasures and pains and its losses and gains is now a matter of history, but everybody is still striving to get pleasure and gain. It is now eight months since we commenced our new system of doing business. Then, wise people shook their heads and business people discussed the matter. It was claimed that we were losing money, or in other words that the people were getting too good bargains. In reply we would say that we gave the people good and we intend doing so in 1909 as we did in 1908. We do what we say and we do say what we do. Our customers make money through buying from us, and we make money through selling the goods. Our motto for 1908 was LARGE SALES AND SMALL PROFITS, the same for 1909.

> We have an excellent stock of New Dry Goods and we are having daily arrivals of the newest styles and the neatest patterns.

> > Boots & Shoes

Our Stock is complete—we have all sizes, kinds and quantities.

We have a complete stock of Gents' Furnishings

Arriving daily-Fine New Groceries

We have an excellent store and most efficient and obliging clerks, and we would cordially invite those who may not have been customers to inspect our stock. Five minutes inspection is better than an hour's description. Good buying means good selling.
