"The Maple," the beautiful residence of Mrs D. Jackson, was the scene of a most pleasant evening, New Year's night when a large party was held on the occasion of the 'coming out' of her daughter, Miss Christine. About 75 invited guests were present, chiefly from the town, who enjoyed the evening with dancing to the accompaniment of Mr Dundas of Markdale. Supper was served about midnight and the gathering broke up after 3 a. m. Among the outside guests present were Messrs. Tod, Knight of Collingwood and Stewart, Armstrong and McGillivray, of Toronto, all former C. P. R. men here. Miss Stevenson of Bradford, was also present, the guest of the debutante, Miss Christine Jackson, for a few days.

Plain Facts

Tennyson and Longfellow could take a worthless sheet of paper, write a poem upon it and make it worth $65,000; that is genius. Rockefeller can write a few words on a sheet of paper and make it worth 5,000,000; that's capital. England can take 122 grains of gold, stamp upon it 'King Edward VII' and make it worth $5; that's money. A mechanic can take material worth $5 and make it into watches worth $1,000; that's skill. A woman can purchase a hat for 75¢ but prefer one that costs $27; that's foolishness. A ditch-digger works ten hours a day and handles several tons of earth for 1.25; that's labor. The printer of this can write a cheque for $90,000, but it wouldn't be worth a dime; that's truth. But when a man or woman wants first-class Jewelry or Silverware, they go to Webster's, Durham, Ont.; that's common sense.

25th Wedding Anniversary.

Mr and Mrs C. Ramage.

Friday last ye editor and wife completed twenty five years of married life and marked the occasion by having around them a number of relatives and friends, who, notwithstanding an inclement day got here from O. Sound London, Ceylon, Holstein, Mt. Forest, Varney and North Egremont.

Afternoon, and especially in the evening there was a spirit of sociality and good fellowship abroad as became the occasion. The "happy couple" of course received abundance of congratulatory and good wishes and during the evening many beautiful tangible evidences of good-will were presented in the spirit of love and respect.

An impromptu program of speech, song, music and story was undertaken and in the midst of it, Rev Dr Farquharson called a halt and there was presented, quite unexpectedly, a magnificent silver fruit dish, the united gift of a number of Durham friends. Accompanying this was the following address which was read by Dr Hutton

To Mr and Mrs Chs. Ramage:
We with ourselves hail with pleasure the inception of the New Year, and unite with you in thanking a bountiful Providence for past favors.

Doubtly joyful is the meeting with you on this occasion, the celebration of the 25th anniversary of your wedding day.

We extend our congratulations and felicitations. We trust that many happy years may yet be extended to you that you may each enjoy good health and many blessings and so progress on to the golden age of your matrimonial life.

We have learned in the past 13 appreciate your worth and many excellent qualities.

As a mark of our esteem and respect, we ask you to accept this "Fruit Dish," and we wish you and your family a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Dated January 1st, 1909.

The recipients were musically assured that "they were jolly good fellows," and of course strove to convey to all and sundry their appreciation of the beautiful gifts, individual and collective, and more than all of the kind words and expressions accompanying them.

At an appropriate time the company of fifty were served with refreshments, the 25 year-young bride cutting and dispensing an elegant four-storey wedding cake bearing the legend 1881-1909, the work of Mr Geo. Stinson, baker.

More music, instrumental and vocal, followed and the company broke up about 2 a. m. with many mutual good wishes.

The relatives present were Mrs. D. Coleridge Sr, Mr and Mrs. Jaa. Coleridge, Mr and Mrs. Wm. Ramage, Mr Peter and Miss Mary Ramage all of North Egremont; Mr and Mrs. D. Coleridge, Holstein; Mr and Mrs. Wm. Coleridge, Owen Sound; Mrs Legate, Ceylon; Mr T. Coleridge, London. Miss S. A. Coleridge, Toronto, was prevented by illness from being present, and Mr. Frank Coleridge in far Saskatchewan was another absentee.

To all relatives and friends who have written their congratulations the celebrants return very hearty thanks.

The Earthquake.

We use the word "the," seeing that the stunning calamity which befel Southern Italy and Sicily last week is the greatest calamity of its kind ever recorded. The deaths were not alone from the earthquake and monster tidal wave, but hundreds, perhaps thousands more, have died since in unrelieved agony, pinned fast or held fast in the ruins, and many from starvation.

The work of rescue is going on still even after 8 days some being found alive, but the appalling fact remains that over 200000 human lives have been snuffed out. Shocks are still being felt and poor puny man stands helpless.

The misery has drawn out mercy and money from all nations, and one good springing from it is that it tends to the solidarity of the human race.

A Happy New Year

To all of our many friends, and customers, we extend the heartiest compliments of the season.

We also take this opportunity to thank all for their kind patronage during the past two and a half years and solicit a continuance of their trade, along with that of many new friends, for 1909.

McPHAIL—McCORMACK.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. N. A. McDougal of Dornoch in the presence of immediate relatives, while Mrs N. A. McDougal played the wedding march.

They were attended by Miss Katie McCormack of Durham and Mr D. McCormack, brother of the bride.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents from her friends in Rochester and Benitack.
