Men's Overcoats and Suits

CORRECT DRESS is easy to recognize, yet many men just miss it. Too often an ill-fitting Suit or Overcoat is the fault of a Suit or Overcoat that does not fit well, and is without style, will mar an otherwise perfect attire. We claim to have in stock a line of Suits and Coats that is sure to please anyone. They are made from best materials and are right up-to-date in cut and style.

Great wall paper sale on at Keeler's. M. E. Stewart, traveller, better known as 'Dime' Stewart of Orangeville, who was injured in the capital and London wreck, got judgment lately from the C. P. R. for $11,500 and costs. This was the largest sum paid by the C. P. R. for damages in the last 20 years.

FULL PARE NOW.—It has been a custom with the railway companies from away back to allow clerks a one day reduction on tickets. On the first of January this year the practice was discontinued, and preachers will now have to pay out 100 cents on the dollar when they go travelling.—E.S.

COMMISSIONERS MAY GO.—It is announced by certain prominent Conservative newspapers, that the government will introduce legislation to wipe out local income commissioners, and appoint a Central board with headquarters at Toronto to issue licenses for the whole Province. In many counties, owing to the spread of local option, there is nothing for the commissioners to do, but they have to be appointed all the same. In North Grey for example there are only two licenses to be issued, and the inspector and commissioners have a pretty soft snore.

WALKERTON'S NEW FACTORY.—McCarty Bros. the new biscuit men are ready for business at last. This week they are making samples for the first batch to come out. They will immediately put them on sale. One of the new proprietors is a practical man with about 15 years' experience in the biscuit trade. He has worked for Patterson, Christie, McCormick, Perrin, and some of the big factories of Montreal. Experience is better than capital, and he is going to make the best of his biscuit boxes will read, McCarty's Golden Crown Biscuits. Quite a catchy name.—Walkerton Telescope.

About forty of the business men of Orillia have formed a syndicate and have taken over the Daily House from Mr. M. Waiters. This was done partly to help out the shed accommodation for farmers' teams and partly to have accommodation for the public. Mr. W. S. Fair, who has made a specialty of the Orchard Point Inn for the past three years, has been engaged as manager and took charge on Saturday. I shall always be glad to see you for the honor, and will endeavor to give you every courtesy and assistance in transacting the business of the C. unit. Again I thank you for the honor, and will endeavor to give you every courtesy and assistance in transacting the business of the C. unit. Again I thank you for the honor, and will endeavor to give you every courtesy and assistance in transacting the business of the C. unit.

Other communications were read, among them the following: Application from Lieut.-Col. Cleland for a grant of $500 to the 31st Regiment for 1909.

Letter from Middlebro and Sampson for the purchase of the house to Peter Smith of Froton.

Petition of ratepayers of Owen Sound to have certain lands taken from Owen Sound and attached to Sydenham.

Petition signed by 284 ratepayers of Brooke against the incorporation of said village.

The report of special committee to strike standing committees was then presented.

The third meeting of the session was held Thursday forenoon. The agenda presented some important documents, one of which was an application from the township of Normandy for refund of expenses of an arbitration with the township of Carleton, in which the sum total asked for amounted to about $1150.

Reports from E. H. Burgess, inspector of schools in West Grey, and Samuel Hafl, inspector for East Grey, were both bulky documents, giving much school information.

Reeve Saunders of Durham, wrote, asking that the county guarantee $10000 debentures of the town of Durham.

The Chatham Collegiate Institute forwarded a bill of $33.40 for students who had attended it from Grey Co.

Business men of Durham recommended Arthur Brookes appointment as county constable.

Dr. Mearns, chairman of Education, asked for refund of certain money paid over by urban school sections.

MacKay, Telford and Gosh wrote in reference to a deviation in the Bruce County line at H. novel.
