Durham 9; Walkerton 7.

Walkerton didn't win out in their second game here last Friday night, but the Bruce boys gave the locals a large sized scare, and came closer to turning the trick than any team has previously this season on the Dur-

They presented their strongest lineap yet placed on the ice, while the locals were weakened by the absence of Layingstone and Cowan from the team, and these two factors placed the teams on a more equal footing. Instead of the 12-2 score of the previous game here, Durham came out two goals up 9-7, and at that the game was won only in the last few minutes play, when the Durhams rushed in three goals in quick succession.

Murphy and J. McLachlan replaced Livingstone and Cowan and showed up well throughout, McLachlan displaying some effective checking. Lavelle played his usual whirlwind gamon the home and has the majority of the Durham goals to his credit. With Cameron, he was the strongest man on the ice. An unusual feature was the bunching of goals. Durham start ed out and in six minutes Lavelle had two counters, then, the visitors had he scoring all to themselves the ballance of the half. Durham's unbroken half time for Walkerton had secured 8.52 12.12 four, giving them a two goal lead 8.38 11.58 Freshened by the few minutes rest. time, and in 11 minutes Lavelle and Cameron had just 4 more in. Goetz Come to us for tickets and informa- added two for the visitors and tied game by taking the puck clean from the opposite goal and after passing four or five men in a spectacular rush, scored in front of the goal. This dis heartened the visitors and decided where victory should finally rest, for in 10 sec. Begley and then in 30 sec. Layetle again scored. Three goals in s de of a minute is going some. Wak erton added the final goal just before erton added the the call of time.

Is the White Race to Lead?

People on the Pacific, who are still fighting for a policy of exclusion, will have to learn some day that success in the contest for racial supremacy is not to be won by exclusion and repressive egislation. Eventually this lesson will have to be learned, however bitter it may be to those who think their white darker hue. If their claim to superiority is real it will assert itself without laws to crush the weaker. Neither Dominien nor provincial exclusion laws can permanently check the Asiatie advance, for the time is last approaching when the different races of nust be met, either face to face or in the products of his hands. The conditions are inexorable. White men should have no fear of competition They are not less virile than Aryan Hindoos or Mongolians, and ought not to be pessimistic of the outcome of the dividual, in fact, can hope to win success except by force of intellect and the practice of the virtues of skilful and thrift. Lacking these, the white nan's idea of his superiority is pure racial egotism .- Witness.
