The popularity of the Keeler Sale is evident from the large daily attendance which speaks for the quality of the goods and the lowness of the prices.

Mr Keeler announces his intention of giving up business in Durham as the head firm of Keeler & Son of Welland requires his personal attention.

The Sale will be continued every afternoon and evening until March 17th.

This is an excellent opportunity to procure many lines of highclass goods at your own prices.

A very pleasant family gathering took place on Monday evening at the See the beautiful fine gray corton, from the best Seedsmen, at lowest tience, the above gentleman passed 28th. The Presbytery put on record bome of Mr and Mrs John Weir, on occasion of the fiftieth anniversary their marriage. About four or five Sclock in the afternoon the sons and daughters and nearly all the grandchildren of the yenerable couple gathered at the old home. Besides these there were several other relatives and friends including Dr. and Mrs Farquharson of Durham. The time was passed pleasantly in social intercourse until about six c'clock when all were summoned to partake of a sumptuous such as tobacco, confectionary, fruits, repast. After this was disposed of quite a lengthy program consisting of songs, music, recitations, speeches and dialogues was entered upon. De, Farquharson who had been chosen as chairman gave an eloquent opening gifts were presented to them. Mr Jno, Weir, Sr. then made a brief reply. Then followed a series of brief Bank of Prosperty is yours by at. addresses eulogistic of the virtues of wishes to them, delivered by Messrs John, Adam and Wm Weir, Mrs John
