BY A CHORUS OF JOLLY DUTCHMEN IN COSTUME.

The regular bi-weekly meeting on Tuesday evening, March 16. In spite of the fact that the weather was very stormy at times duri ng the latter part of the afternoon and evening, a large crowd was present when eight o'clock came. A patriotic program of considerable length had been prepared, and it also contained several numbers of a different nature.

Shortly after eight o'clock the program began with a rousing chorus by We were sorry indeed to learn of the young people. " Red, White and meeting were then read by the Secret. ary, Miss Margaret McGirr. Master John Weir gave a patriotic recitation, which was followed by a splendid mouth organ instrumental by Mr Mat Staples, accompanied by Miss Annie Aljoe on the organ, This number was evidently enjoyed and appreciat. ed by the audience, as the performers were heartily applauded and compelled to respond to an encore. Next followed a patriotic address by the chairman, Mr Arthur Weir, on "The British Empire" Another thrilling and soul-stirring chorus "Queenston Heights" was sung by the school children. Miss Clara Ritchie then gave a recitation in a manner that marks her already as an elocutionist of exceptional talent. A fine solo was given by Mrs J. T. Tolchard to ber own accompaniment, in a very pleasing manner. Mr Samuel Scott added to his already great reputation as a reciter, by a fine recitation. This was followed by another hearty choru by the young people and the school children, "The Union Jack." This number affected the sense of sight as well as the sense of hearing, for two little girls, Irene Ritchie and Chrissie Mc-Girr, who stood in the front row, wayed flags during the singing of this thrilling patriotic song. Miss Eva Atkinson then gave a comic reading. The next number on the program was a Dialogue, "Bridget's Investment' in which the leading character was Miss Annie Aljoe, who acted her part well. The other participants in this interesting performance were Miss M. McFadden. Messrs Joe Patterson Ernest McGirr and Master Willie Weir. This was followed by an excellent impromptu recitation by Miss Mabel Mead, who possesses such skill in holding the attention of her hearers that one could almost hear a pin drop during her dramatic recital. Another chorus " Fair Canada " was sung by the young people, after which the meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

At a meeting of the Executive after the program it was decided to discontinue the meetings for this season. riage Licenses, Durham, Ont. Although Literary and Debating Soure, the young people of S.
