A WOMAN'S WITNESS.—For one day in the month of May, the Montreal Witness will be entirely run by women even to the Financial and Sporting pages. The profits are to be applied in a propaganda for better playgrounds for the city.

The friends of this paper will please hand us news items when they are fresh. We prefer not to publish a birth after the child is weaned, a marriage after the honeymoon is over, or the death of a man after his widow is married again.

GIRLS DON'T FLIRT.—The first question a man asks when he sees a girl flirting is whether she is respectable or not; it raises a doubt at once. This being the case no modest girl can afford to indulge in the pastime. When the down is brushed from a peach its beauty is so marred that it can never be restored, and when a young girl modestly reserve so becoming to a maiden, and which so elevates her and enables her to command the respect of all, she loses the great charm, and becomes rather cheap and common to use no rash terms. Flirting may seem to the giddy and thoughtless girl, wonderfully amusing, and she may get the idea that she is fascinating, but it is a most degrading thing and she should be frowned upon by every young lady who has an ambition to become a worthy and charming young woman.

Address and Presentation.

To Donald Smith, J. P.

Thursday evening last, 25th March, the home of Mr and Mrs Donald Smith, Dornoch, was invaded by a host of friends, in number believed to be over 200. They had come to spend a few hours with them for "Auld lang Syne," before they moved to their new home in Kent Co., near Valetta, where Mr Smith has bought the old home farm of Mr Donald Farquharson, who is now Collector of Customs in Chatham, and not known in Durham.

The separation of Dornoch and Donald Smith is no common affair as was shown by the enthusiasm of a last regretful and loving gathering. From childhood to manhood he grew up among them, respected and honored. In a sense he formed a link between the past and the present. The best years of his parents' life were spent at Dornoch, all his own years were spent there, there he was married, and there his children were born. For long he has been prominent in Church circles, his shrewdness and good judgment commended him for the office of Magistrate, which he has filled for many years and we think with acceptance even though his decisions may have ruffled at times.

What wonder then that his coming removal should call forth sentiments of respect and love, revealing itself not only in kindly words, hearty handshakes and warm good byes, but in the more tangible form of a handsome dining room suite of furniture, which will tell in coming days of neighborly regard and respect.

An impromptu program was carried out, Rev. N. A. McDonald presiding. Many kindly words to Mr and Mrs Smith were spoken in the brief addresses made by the pastor and by Messrs Hay B. Corlett, Sr., Alex. McClung, Hugh Kiddell, Dr Smith, Mr Mitchell Williamsford, and others. Along with regrets of course were mingled good wishes for the future. The evening wore on into the night and at last the final good byes came from warm lips and hearts.

The large gathering was a fine mixture of old and young, showing that to the generation before him as well as to that coming on, the departing friends were dear. Mr Smith and two of his sons left on Tuesday for their new home with a car of stock and other things. Mrs Smith and the others will soon follow and the Review joins in the chorus of mingled regrets and good wishes that have marked their departure.

The actual address was taken home to make some alteration on it, and was to have reached us ere now with more details. We deeply regret its non-appearance this week.

Press Association Meets.

On the 51st occasion, one of the largest continuous records of any organized body in Canada, between 100 and 200 members of the Canadian Press Association met in Toronto last Thursday and Friday to discuss problems vital to the publishing interests, and incidentally partake of social festivities. The meetings are usually of great benefit to the general public as well as to the editors, as various new ideas to improve the publications, are, among other questions, presented and imbibed.

Thursday evening, in company with the ladies, the members attended a fine banquet given in McConkey's, the dinner being followed by toasts to the King, Parliament our guests and the press. These were proposed by the President, Mr D. Williams of Collingwood and various members and responded to in brilliant addresses by Hon. Mr Hanna, Col. Hugh Clark, M. P. P., Messrs G. T. Bell of the G. T. R., Geo. Ham of the C. P. R., Hawkes of the Can. Northern and Nicholson of the Northern Navigation Co., and a number of the prominent editors present.

Through the courtesy of the C. P. R. and the Peterborough members, the Association, again accompanied by the ladies, enjoyed a trip to Peterborough by special train Saturday. In spite of a furious snow storm the delegation that morning were shown through the General Electric Co's plant and the Canadian Cordage works there, both of which proved extremely interesting. Dinner was provided the visitors at the three hotels, and in the afternoon all had the pleasure of seeing through the mammoth Quaker Oats factory, from which we learned forty carloads are shipped daily. It was most interesting and enlightening to watch the different steps in the manufacturing of the breakfast foods from the raw material with everything possible being done by machinery. Before leaving the visitors were treated to a dish of their own make, wheat berries and cream. It was much regretted further time could not be spent, especially to see the famous lift lock, the largest in the world and other industries there but time at their disposal was not adequate. The visitors greatly appreciated the hospitality of the mayor, council, editors and citizens during their short visit to this progressive city of 17,000 inhabitants, which has a manufacturing output proportionately greater than any other city in Canada. All returned Saturday evening delighted with the outing.
