---The Two Drinks.

The most excruciating agony of cricifixion is thirst. The great sufferer said. "I thirst." They offered Him a mixed trink, which He refused; then a refreshing drink, which He accepted. The mixed drink was drugged; it was intended to darken, to stupify, to nullify the pain. Dr. Samuel Johnson was a great sufferer in his long illness. They offered him a draught. "What is this for? Is It to cure me?" "No, it is to ease your pain." "I decline it. I want to face death with my mind clear, so that I may be in full possession of myself." So the tion, but an illuminant. Two Steamers to Run on the Skeena From Prince Rupert.

Mogul Engines and Steel Rails Ordered by G. T. P.

The Grand Trunk Pacific have now under construction for service on the Skeena River, British Columbia, two new steamers the same as the steamer Distributor, built last fall. The length of these boats between perpendiculars is 136 feet; width of beam, extreme on bottom, 29 feet; beam, extreme on deck, 30 feet; depth moulded, 5 feet 4 inches. The machinery for both these new boats was ordered from the Polson Iron Works, Limited, Toronto, and the hulls are being constructed at Victoria, B. C. These steamers will ply between Prince Rupert and the head of natigation on the Skeena River, and will be ready for service in Jane.

The 25 large Mogul engines ordered by the Grand Trunk Pacific from the Canadian Locomotive Company, Kingston, are well under way. Delivery of the first two will be made this week and the delivery of the total 25 will be completed by July this year. These engines have a total weight on drivers of 138,-176 lbs., total weight of engine loaded 161,976 lbs.; weight of tender 143,300 lbs., or total of 305,276 lbs. loaded. The driving wheels are 63 inches in diameter and the cylinders 20 inches by 26 inches, working pressure 200 lbs. In addition to these 25 eight-wheel engines have been ordered from the Montreal Locomotive Works, Longue Pointe, P. Q., to be delivered by July next. The weight of these engines on drivers is 74,060 lbs., tender loaded 143,-300 lbs., total weight on drivers and ten-dustrious and Prosperous.

The Indians of the great Canadian prairie Province of Saskatchewan are disproving the theory that an Indian won't work unless he has to. They are becoming industrious and prosperous. There are nearly 8,000 Indians in the Province and last year they had about 9,000 acres under crops. They raised 150,-572 bushels of grain and roots and 36,-

000 tons of hay, worth $136,023. The Department of Indian Affairs reports that the Indians are turning more agent of the Assiniboine agency, which may be regarded as typical, writes:

"I was greatly pleased to find that what it was the year before. The band had about 600 acres of wheat and 200 acres of oats. The Indians of this agency are beginning to farm on a large scale, and if they continue to do as well as they have in the last two years there will be some good sized farmers among them. One man had 155 acres in crop and another 125 acres and several had seventy acres each. There was a decided improvement in the way the land had en farmed."
