THE WOOING OF ERNA

"Bless my soul! twenty! Why he's ! not more than twenty-eight himself." "Only twenty-eight!" cried Erna. "Why, that's young. Why did he go away? and why did he stay so long?" Mrs. Watson sighed and shut her lips tight, as if nothing would tempt her to answer those questions. Erna saw that she had made a mistake, but she also saw that she had asked the very questions she was determined to have answered, if possible.

"Is he nice, Watson!" she asked, with an air of remote interest. "Nice! Well, I should say, Miss Erna. Until he fell in with those men in Lon don, there wasn't a finer, better nobleman in the kingdom, if I do say it."

"Oh," said Erna, commisseratingly. "Did he have a taste for low company. "Low company!" eried Watson, on the defensive at once, to Erna's great delight, "Do you call a prince of the blood low company. Perhaps not the most what you call low, by any means." "It is too bad he had to stay away so long, isn't it," insignated Erna. Who told you he had to stay away That isn't so. He went away of his own accord, and no one knows that a word of what has been said about him is true. For my part I never did and never will believe the stories they tell. But, there: we won't talk of that. "What a pity!" said the little hypocrite, sadly, "that young men will be so " fast." thinking cap, and was beginning to see

"Such a pity!" she said, dryly. up here at the Castle?" inquired Erna, ly-wise manner of her Aunt Augusta. Now, Miss Erna," said Watson, rising der a glass of wine for you?" Erna placed herself in front of the her ample shoulders, while she assumed her most determined and threatening | your lordship, to-day!"

leave this room until you tell me all about Lord Aubrey. I do think it's a shame that you should act so; as if he had done something dreadful. I declare, I will ask him myself.

"Miss Erna!" cried Watson, turning pale with horror. "You would never dare do such a thing. Besides, I don't believe your aunt will permit you to come over | tone. here while the earl's in the Castle. I don't mean to say anything against the earl; but if I had a daughter as pretty as you-Well, well, well! I mustn't stand here talking, with so much to be

She pushed by Erna without much trouble, and made her retreat before she was betrayed into anything more as indiscreet as her last speech.

"You're a horrid thing!" cried Erna. "Just as horrid as Aunt Augusta. But if you think that I'm going to be treated like a wild, and not resent it, you're mistaken, If I have to ask him I'll find out," and she tossed her head in a terribly willful manner.

Selim was waiting for her when she familiar scenes. went out, and Jim was leading him up mind.

myself, but I'd go drown myself- throw I am changed outwardly." myself clean off the cliffs, if anything happened to you."

are you thinking of?" she cried, getting took the wall," said Erna, one after- "After flowers or something of the abundant health.

and leaping of the restive animal. "Wait for me, Miss Erna!" cried Jim, I loosing the creature's head, and spring ing back to avoid being stepped on. the latter seemed to conclude to post- to talk with him somehow. He's my a little trouble." pene further operations for the time, and | cousin, and I want to see a young man | His careless irony did not serve to rement that showed him off to splendid est men in the kingdom, who has one of ed, hastily:

"For Heaven's sake, Miss Erna." But Erna, with a laugh, was off down the avenue like a rocket, Selim taking matters into his own hands or teeth, to put it correctly-and making such a and during that time had remained se- had not come. plete control of the unruly animal. That, however, she could not do, though she enough-to see one of the gentlemen swered, saucily enough: did succeed in checking his headlong gal- who took it upon himself to call.

avenue of trees, she saw that the gate | going about his vast estate, riding Selim, cliff, smiling down at her with an air of was shut. It chilled her a little to see whom he controlled with the utmost that, but she raised her clear voice in a lease, and often going on foot, striding out of the lodge to hear and see her. beach, in a grim, tireless fashion that No one appeared, however, and the aroused the wonder of the people who great gate stood there to threaten de-

that her head was always clearest when she was mounted on a good horse. She knew she could not check Selim. In down on the gate. Ah! if it had only more slowly than was his wont. been a six-bar! he could have taken | Everything was old and familiar, even the wall? It was high. No horse had | taken in innocent amusements, taken it that she knew of, and she had There was the nesting, when he had listened to the men tell of all the great | perilled his life more than once scaling | was climbing up with the assurance and that would mean broken limbs, death, once he had joined a life-saving erew to but determined to put a stop to similar maybe! And poor Jim! he would kill go out through the breakers to save freaks in the future. When they were himself! that was certain. And she some wrecked unfortunates. And his both safely at the top, he looked calmly would never find out about the earl. It | mother had watched him, with four in at her for a moment, noting her ex-

All her girlish strength, and it was and had been so proud of nim when he of doing so. considerable-far more than your city- returned safely. to swerve him gently, so that he would of his becoming a brave, strong man,

The lodge keeper had come out an was gaping in terror, unable, if there had been time, to open the gates. There they could get out of the way. 'Now, Selim! Hi, boy! up!" It's a high wall, Selim! You would but now you are at it, clear it for the love of the beautiful creature, as wilful as yourself, who sits you so nobly and so bravely! Never blanching at the solid wall, but with clear eye and flamfen! bravely, bravely! Ah! well done! Over! tipped it with your hoofs, but the firm hand and quick eye of your rider saved you both! Noble Selim! That story will be told in the stables of road, his hoofs ringing clear and firm, and Erna was patting his neck with her little hand, as if she were praising no censure at all for his naughtiness in off down the road at a full gallop, passing like a rocket a stranger who had watched his sudden appearance over the wall with startled eyes, he murmured, as he stood looking after her. "I did not know there was a horse in the country could do that. And who through the wiles of the inquisitive visi is she? Some pretty hoiden from one of the county families. She was out of sight by this time, "Do you think he will have a fast set and he approached the gate, which was copying as well as she could the world- faced lodge keeper was staring in ter-more. You did come very near it, but The lodge keeper stared at the tall, and in addition what happiness may you can't do it any more. I ought to handsome man, and tried to recall where come from preserving a life to sorrow, have had my wits about me. Shall I or he had ever seen that grim face and perhaps." those stern blue eyes.

"Lord ha' mercy!" he suddenly cried. housekeeper, and placed her hands on "The earl, himself! I didn't know your lordship! We were not expecting you, "Watson," she said, "you sha'n't the earl, in a curt tone. "Who was keeper, still gaping at the suddenly returned earl. "And who is Miss Erna March?" demanded the earl in the same grim, hard curt wonder, "it is you, eh?"

"Miss Erna, your lordship." "Who is Miss Erna?" "Miss Erna March," replied the lodge

removed. But I do not know." "Hem!" said the earl "I seem to re- coast. member. Does she always go out that way? She will break her neck some ship. But there never is any knowing young nobleman. The earl was engaged what she will do; she's that madeap in recovering his breath, and Erna was one who has no further interest in the And the more she studied the less she and down in a very miserable frame of this is the same and only I am lest and handsome man she had ever different. The storms have raged seen-but not at all encouraging. trouble for both of us, I don't care for changes which I cannot see. I wonder if then at Erna. She noticed, with a sort Brown, of this place, is still one of the above and below ground. Gas escap-CHAPTER X.

'Happen to me on a horse, Jim! What | "That was the earl I saw that day I | perilous path she had descended.

now firmly in the saddle and sitting it | two things together, and decide that she | again? I won't let you fall." as if glued to it, in spite of the pawing had seen him, even though in that hur-"I wonder if he did me the honor to way of bringing it about." The subject of her thoughto, mean-

He did not confine himself to the Cas-But, as she swept down the broad | tle at all, however, but was continually

On the afternoon when Erna was What should she do? She had faced walking on the cliffs above, he was danger on horseback. It seemed to her walking on the beach below, though on the other side of the point. Perhaps he was thinking of a wasted life. His head was bowed, and his hands were behind his blind fury he would bear straight him; and he paced the rocky beach that. The men all said so; and if he to the hollows worn in some of the greater rocks; and seldom his eyes fell But it wasn't. It was a massive iron on anything that did not remind him gate, half as high again as any mortal of a day when he was under the guidhorse could leap. But she must do ance of the mother he had loved, and something. What? what? The wall! revered now. He laughed bitterly when Could she swerve him and try him at he recalled the boyish pleasure he had the almost perpendicular cliffs to get a agility of a chamois. But if he went at the gate ____ Ah! coveted egg for his collection. And bred girl would have had-was exerted | Oh, she had never stood in the way | explain the meaning of this?"

he had not. He had eaten of the Dead Sea fruit, and the ashes were in his

"Hoy! hoy!" The sounds floated down to him out a note of alarm in the tone that caused him to turn and look quickly up. Was it a woman he saw there suspended ap parently about a quarter way down the

"Help! help!" ish creature had wandered down there, not realizing, probably, the perilous namomentary danger of death. All this passed through the earl's brain as he self, and have not had occasion to use him Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They looked. The intention to try to save her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I thought you soon began to help him. His appetite

He quickly scanned the face of the they have wrought in Mr. Olding's the astonishment of his family and and as he recalled it he knew better During a visit to my home in Meri- Now, though the burden of well-nigh aboard the car at the forward end seven than before how dire the woman's peril gomish, N. S., some years ago, I was four score years is upon him, he is men, a very assorted lot of men, some have been to go around to a path about and friend, Michael Olding, very low. the enjoyment of good health, even and among them one man of phenomea quarter of a mile back and decend to "He is not expected to live," my moth- the asthma has ceased to trouble him nal proportions, a giant of a man, with is cool enough to watch me, why did she visit to my mother's, Michael Olding commend them to friends who are now open, and through which the white take such a fool-hardy risk?" he mut- was seemingly in better health than I ailing." "Who was that?" demanded the state of her understanding. I shall have had the pleasure of some good exercise, Electric Lamps Employed to Stimu- Elms on Canal Banks and Lindens though had his muscles not been harder | ing is put. At the London Zoological | Most of the streets and grachts or canthan those of the ordinary man of the Gardens small birds are called to break- als have avenues of trees. Utrecht has world, he would have given out some fast two hours ahead of their usual two rows of trees on either side of its time before. He kept steadily on his time by the turning on of the electric uquint canals . Its canal banks are con- ployees of the advertiser. But, on the "I came earlier than I said," replied way, and within ten minutes was drawn light, and quails are fattened for the structed as if in two storeys. The lower up on the ledge of rock, where a very London market in underground cellars, storey, almost flush with the water level, ails are thoroughly genuine, gladly pale young woman sat, her hands clasp- which are lighted up many times a day is lined with warehouses and vaults. ed tightly together, and her great brown to induce the birds to feed often and while the upper storey has dwellings and grateful for the cure.

tion of the best eliff-climber on the hungry and healthy.

There was a renewed silence on the ledge of rock after the brief exchange of "She never did it before your lord- words between the madeap girl and the engaged in studying, furtively, the face of her distant kinsman, subject and walked leisurely up the liked the situation. She found very litavenue looking around with interest | the encouragement for mirth in the stern ed under the tawny moustache. He was Cured His Aches and Pains and Gave (Dutch) per capita, but since that time and a sort of stern melancholy at the blue eves and set mouth, where it show-"Six years!" he muttered. "All certainly very handsome-the very nob-

her. Then his eyes wandered indifferent- hearty old gentleman. And like many enemy of trees, because quite small quan-

It did not take her long to put the can make the effort to get up there "Yes, sir," replied Erna, timidly, "Please don't trouble."

ask who I was?" she went on. "I sup- | in his short, grim way. "Well, since I healthy Kidneys can afford to laugh at Tromp and De Ruyter in the harbor of pose not, for they say he has simply have come up here for the express pur the ills of life. For healthy Kidneys Edam-the harbor which appears so tiny For a moment there was a battle be- shut himself up at the Castle and has pose of getting you away from here, I keep the blood pure and ensure good to modern eyes that one with difficulty tween the rider and the horse, and then seen nobody. I don't care; I'm going suppose I may as well insist on taking restful sleep. Dodd's Kidney Pills imagines "the terror of the North Sea" subsided into a dancing, sidelong move- of twenty-eight, who is one of the rich- store Erna's equanimity, and she answer- Best Friend. the proudest names, and who yet either "I am very sorry, but I would not "Good-by. Jim. I'm going down by remains abroad, or comes home to shut have called if I had thought you would Dabney way. I'm going to try the six himself up. I am going to talk with him, come up. I supposed you would come and I am going to find a highly proper around. I called to you to go back, but you didn't hear me. "Thanks for so much consideration," while, was nearer at hand than she sus- he said, with grim sarcasm, "May I inpected. He had been at home a week, quire what you would have done, if I pace as was not very safe in that place. cluded. That is to say, he was not pre- Erna's head drooped and her face Even madeap Erna felt that, and tried cisely in the Castle all the time; but flushed. It was a struggle between hard to pull him up a little, using every he had refused to send any sort of shame and indignation, and indignation artifice at her command to gain com- notification to the county families of his conquered, as it usually did with her return, and had even refused-politely | She tossed her pretty head back and an-

"I should have gone up alone." The earl slowly rose to his feet, and leaned carelessly against the face of the exasperating indifference.

"Oh!" he said, ironically, looking up loud call, hoping some one might be over moor and mountain, cliff and rocky the dizzy path and then down at her, "you could have done it, theu?" Perhaps his sarcastic manner, perhaps more still, his calm indifference toward her, stung her. She sprang to her feet with a flushed face, and exclaimed:

"Of course I could."

He caught her arm in his strong grasp an said, quietly "This is hardly the place for heroics There isn't room enough. She turned her face toward him, and her brown eyes flashed wrathfully as of workingmen in that country. "Oh, you are horrid!" "Quite likely. Shall I assist you now!" She compressed her lips in impotent anger and shook his hand from her arm. "I do not need your help, I can go alone," and before he could stop her, she had sprung to the face of the cliff and

He followed, shrugging his shoulders, her heart, perhaps, but with a calm air, quisite beauty, though he showed no sign "Well," he said, at last, "will you no "

MR. GOSLINGTON'S TROUBLES. Why I Recommend He Gives a Sample of the Things That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." Goslington, "but when I travel I always had always been ailing. In sheer des-means no rapidly regained his nealth.

The Particulars of a Remarkable Cure Told by a Presbyterian Clergyman--The Sufferer Brought Back from Death's Door.

St. Andrew's Manse, Cardigan, P. E. I., Jan., 1908. Though I have never been sick my- peration he had asked his wife to get ought to know of the remarkable cure | and strength becan to improve, and to grieved to find our next door neighbor able to do a fair day's work, and is in tall, some short, some thick, same thin, er informed me, "And you must go as in former years. But that would have taken to much over and see him, as he is liable to Mr. Olding himself, as well as his projecting up from top, and then time, and she might lose her precarious pass away at any moment." "Not ex- neighbors and the writer of this letter, watched with fearful interest the prosold in the meantime. He would scale pected to live," that was the opinion confidently believe that his rescue cossion as it started down the car, for He had done it before, and he not only of the doctor who attended from the very jaws of death-seeming- I was seized with a mortal terror that had done some Alpine and other moun- him, but of his wife and family as well. It so miraculous—is due under the big man would want to sit with tain-climbing since that made him feel Upon visiting him myself I found blessing of God to the timely and con- me. Really he ought not to, for I sat abundant evidence to confirm their tinuous use of Dr. Willaims' Pink Pills. two-thirds of the way down the car and

and lying on the sand. The next Mr. Olding had for years been af Mr. Olding himself writes: "I am ahead; but you never can tell about a moment he was climbing the rocks, flicted with asthma and bronchitis, but glad Rev. Mr. Smith has written you thing till it's settled. which seemed almost to lean over now a complication of diseases was about my wonderful cure, for I confi- "I watched that procession coming him. The woman above him ravishing his system. He had been dently believe that if it had not been with a great and fearful interest, the evidently glad to see me, he convers- impossible to exaggerate the desperate dwindle as one member after another. Class Advertising. He continued to climb with the agility | cd with the greatest difficulty, and | condition I was in when I began to | of it dropped out to take the first seat of a sailor and mountaineer combined, seemed to realize that it was the be- use the Pills. No one thought I could be came to, until all were seated except and the woman who had called to him ginning of the end. He was daily get better. I scarcely dared hope my the giant, who was left alone still four Once he stooped and looked down, and to eternity, and when I took his hand better in every way than I had been and what could I say but:

NOVEL USE OF LIGHT.

late Animals' Appetities. Stimulating the appetite is one of the He was quite confident of himself now, strangest uses to which artificial light abundantly. At the Berlin Zoological shops, Both levels are planted with There was a moment of silence be- Gardens a similar plan is adopted to trees.

tween them, and then it was the earl make certain bears hibernate. For sev- So many avenues of trees make a her two children with D. D. and is passed d'round an 'round it. It was eral weeks in fall their dens are bright. Dutch town exceedingly pleasant, espe- glad to tell others about it. She wrote a ticklish, trying job, but it was ac-"Oh!" he ejaculated, with a sort of ly illuminated, they have a plentiful cially on a hot day. The foliage tem- on Sept. 3 last: supply of their favorite food, and they pers the glare of the sun and the vis-"Yes, it is I," was the meek answer. | eat and grow very fat, so that, when tas of green are refreshing to the eye. | must thank you for so kindly inquiring It was Erna March, very much sub- winter comes and their dens are barri- These abundant growths in thickly popu- about my order and also the child. I for Hiram Brown.

"But since taking Dodd's Kidney

A Born Naturalist.

aunt in one of the suburbs.

eat has two sides, hasn't it?"

Little Ethel, who had lived so secludexcept in pictures, was on a visit to her

On the first morning of her stay the

Minard's Liniment used by Phy-

He Knew by Experience.

ture was making a speech on some momentous question, and, in concluding,

who wrote the dictionary, 'Give me liberty or give me death!"

ionary; it was Noah."

coat and whispered:

"In the words of Daniel Webster,

One of his colleagues pulled at his

'Daniel Webster did not write the dic-

"Noah nothing," repeated the speaker;

Noah built the ark."-Buffalo News.

----

Few Miners Kill Themselves,

Among the miners of Germany there

A member of the Nebraska Legisla-family cat walked into the parlor, look-

the Old Folks' Friend.

of The Hague was nineteen cents

parks have been laid out. of resentment, that he looked last at grandest sights in life, a hale and ing from pipes underground is the worst ly from her with more interest to the another Canadian veteran, he gives tities of it are deadly. For this reason Pills, all these troubles have gone. I grow where a linden will not. Trees consider Dodd's Kidney Pills a wonder- the old elms along the quiet grachts of Edam, one of the 'dead' cities of the Zuy-"Don't trouble!" and the earl laughed The aged man or woman who has der Zee, which saw the fleets of Van always make healthy Kidneys. That is anchoring there. Then there are the why they are known as the Old Folks' magnificent hindens of the Mailebaan in Utrecht, which appealed to the French monarch, King Louis XIV. Those lindens he commanded his soldiers to spare on peril of their lives,-The Hague correspondence Chicago News.

ed a life that she never had seen a cat He Knew All About It. son joined Sunday school, was asked St. Peter's, C. B. EDW. LINLIEF. by his mother how he liked it. ed around, then turned and walked out. "Why!" exclaimed Charlie, disgusted "Why, auntie," said little Ethel, "that ly, "they don't know much. The teacher asked what was the collec', and I was

> Ask for Minard's and take no other. ---Mormonism.

> "Is it true that many of these Mormons have half a dozen wives each?" asked a visitor to Salt Lake City of a policeman who was stationed near the Temple, says the Saturday Evening

"Well, will you kindly tell me why on earth a man wants to marry half a French Monarch Guarded. There is perhaps no other well populated country in the world which has so many well wooded towns as has Holland,

TREE CULTURE IN HOLLAND

each of its 250,000 citizens. It takes feel sure it is a splendid remedy for all I breathed more freely when I had What Dodd's Kidney Pills did two and a half Dutch cents to equal an kin diseases, and can highly recommend rounded the obstruction and was abid American cent. About ten years ago it. I will be glad to recommend it to cautiously to slide myself on to the the annual cost of caring for the trees | any one suffering with skin trouble." Him Restful Slumber-Known as many new trees and shrubs have been a self-addressed stamped envelope be outward. planted throughout the city and new enclosed.

"Miss Erna," he pleaded, "won't you here as they have raged around The earl, having recovered his breath, May 10.— (Special) Though well past of tree will thrive in the streets of a ratory, Department D, 23 Jordan street, risky. However, once I got the lifetake some other horse? There'll be me; and it may be that there are began to look up and down the cliff, and the allotted span of life, Mr. Hiram town, for trees have many enemies, both Toronto. Dodd's Kidney Pills the credit for his special precautions are taken against My idea of a good income and how to the leakage of gas in Dutch towns. How spend it is to get forty-four shillings a arm?' Of course the figure has only ready to mount, "Oh, dear!" and she noon, as she strolled along the cliffs. sort, I suppose," he said, curtly. "Don't am seventy-two years of age," Mr. electricity escaping underground acts uppatted the shining neck, now flecked | She was talking with herself, since you think you were unwise? But, of Brown said in an interview, "and I on trees as yet has not been sufficient he was working, and in spending it I with foam scattered by the impatient there was no one else near to converse course, you don't," he added, with the want to say that Dodd's Kidney Pills ly studied to be understood. Trees will should get a book and put all the procreature. "Stand still, just a minute, with, and as her thoughts were yet least shade of contempt in his tone. cured me of Gravel and Kidney Trouble. not grow in very narrow streets where visions I had in the house in it and the you beauty. Oh, won't I have a ride!" | much on the earl, she talked of him. She "You are Erna March, are you not?" | I was troubled with Backache, Headache | the houses are high; neither will they cost of them. I should first see that I "I'm going with you, miss," said Jim, had persuaded someone to give her a de- "Yes, sir," answered Erna, quite hum- and Dizziness, Cramps in the Museles with had persuaded someone to give her a dequite whits with lear of what he was scription of the earl, and she had learn-doing in letting Erna ride Selim, the doing in letting Erna ride Selim, the led that he had walked from the station unmanageable.

| The best trees for street planting in the Massies and Stiffness of the Joints. My sleep was broken and at times my limbs and Stiffness of the Joints. My sleep was broken and at times my limbs was broken and at times was broken Holland are elms and lindens, but the Every holiday time we should go for elm is the hardier of the two and will a day or two to a seaside resort. For a

MENT.

A little boy, who had just this seathe only one who knew."

"And what did you say, dear?" "Why, I told them pretty quick that it was a pain in the stomach,"-Pink

"Sure," said the policeman,

"I dunno," said the policeman, "una good one out of the bunch."

I travel."-N. Y. Sun.

Any Sufferer Can Write to Mrs. D. McGillivary, of Nanton, Alta., for There are undoubtedly many frauds in the testimonials of medical firms letters written by friends or even emother hand, in some cases the testimon-

Such a case is that of Mrs. D. McGil-

way, your fordship, replied the man caded, they quietly go to sleep for two lated towns are highly useful as well as am glad to say I received the three one was necessary, as the column measin a sort of emparrassment at the ignorance of his grim master; "they do young earl who had just performed a or three months, just as in their native ornamental. It is recognized that from dollar bottles of D. D. and two cakes ures forty feet in circumference—too say as she's your lordship's cousin far feat that would make him the admira- haunts. In spring they awaken, lean, a hygicnic point of view they are value of Soap safely, and am delighted with far to pass a rope around with ease. In Holland these useful services are The Soap is all that is required to com- to negotiate was the cornice at the gratefully recognized and the trees are plete the treatment. The little boy of top of the column. This is the heavcarefully tended by the municipalitie! two years and a half is to all appear- jest projection for throwback work in The cost of this care per capita in the ance cured of the dreadful Eczema. different towns varies somewhat. Last | "My baby girl at two months broke | over it with my back to the ground, year, for example, Utrecht devoted 21 out with the same rash, and I treated for all the world like a fly on a ceilcents (Dutch) to its trees for each in- her with D. D. D., and am perfectly sat- ing. habitant and The Hague 28 cents for isfied she is cured to our great joy. I I "I am not ashamed to confess that

If any reader of this paper should From below this appears flat, but it write Mrs. McGillivary, we request that is really bevelled with a sharp slope

----

GRATEFUL FOR ECZEMA CURE

Full Information.

For sale by all druggists. A Schoolboy on Domestic Economy.

family of good eaters it takes a lot of they shoud have it. I would also buy plenty of coal, with good shoes and stockings; also I would buy two beds to sleep on at night.-Letter of Schoolboy in Manchester Guardian.

I cured a horse of the Mange with MINARD'S LINIMENT. CHRISTOPHER SAUNDERS. Dalhousie.

I cured a horse, badly torn by a pitch fork, with MINARD'S LINI-I cured a horse of a bad swelling with THOS. W. PAYNE. Bathurst, N. B. In Arthur's Court. King Arthur had just instituted the Friend.

MINARD'S LINIMENT.

Round Table. "Fine," they cried; "but can you establish an untaxed table for the poor Herewith they perceived that chivalry amounted to little. Keep Minard's Liniment in the house. ____ AN ANGEL.

Thomas Nelson Page, in the smoke room of the Amerika, criticised trenchantly the work of a popular novelist. "This man," declared Mr. Page, "has no idea of precision. He doesn't tay are fewer snicides than any other class les he thinks that mebbe he can get what he means, he circles about his such an athletic wonder? We can meaning,

ISSUE NO. 19, 1909

Happen to Him When He Travels.

"Yesterday I made a little trip to a place about fifty miles from the city. 1

about two-thords back from the iront,

where I would ride easy and at the same time have something to look at ahead;

and of course that all pleased _ie very

"At the first station out there got way; of there's anything going

"I don't know why it is," said Mr. NEN AND WOMEN-TO SELL THE went to the station-early to get a sent camera in an hour. Send us your name and by a window. I managed that all right address with two references and we will I got a window seat and just where I tell you how to get a anapshot camera for wanted, not at the end of the car, but an hour's work. Bijou Specialty House, Ham-

FOR SALE.

I OTS IN PRINCE RUPERT, THE GRAND Trunk Pacific terminus, will be put on intending to invest should write for information and advice to the Prince Rupert Real-ty-Commercial Co., Limited, 400 Richard street, Vancouver, B. C.

A Norfolk farmer riding through the Welsh mountains came up with a mountaineer leisurely driving a herd of pigs. Where are you driving the pigs to? asked the inquiring farmer. "Out to pasture 'em a bit."

The Hogs Had Plenty J Time.

"To fatten 'em. "Isn't it pretty slow work to fatten 'em REV. EDWIN SMITH, M. A. there were plenty of vacant seats on grass? Up where I come from we pen them up and fatten them on corn. It saw what he was doing, and began to confined to his bed for months and for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would big man bringing up the rear, and then mountaineer, "but, bless your heart, wring her hands and cry out something was reduced to a skeleton. Though have been dead long ago. It would be with an increasing hopefulness I saw it what's time to a hawg?"-From White's A Woman's Sympathy believe their natural size, and the cold hand of death was upon his brow.

Once only he made a slip, and a scream out from the watcher. Then he range out from the watcher is no use," he said, feebly, "the docrang out from the watcher. Then he "It's no use," he said, feebly, "the doc- health. Though I am seventy-nine he kept a coming and passed them all been discouraged, too; but learned how to he kept a coming and passed them all ours myself. I want to relieve your burwail with startled eyes.

"I wonder if that's the usual thing."

I wonder if that's the usual thing."

The murmured, as he stood looking after the murmured, as he stood looking after the murmured, as he stood looking after the murmured the pain and the beach at each effort.

Though I am seventy-nine he kept a coming and passed them all years old people are always remarking until he came to mine, where he halt on how young I look—and I feel young.

The murmured the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and following after the murmured to make the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and following after the murmured to mine, where he halt the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and following after the murmured to mine, where he halt the came to mine, where he halt the immediately he caught the agonized cry: in parting it was the last time I expect for years. I cannot say too much in "No, sir,' and then he sat down, sitmmediately he caught the agonized cry: mediately he caught the caught the agonized cry: mediately he caught the agonized cry: mediately he caught "So I drew the fat man after all; but postage stamp). Your letters held confidentially. Write to-day for my free treatthings like that happen to me whenever | ment, MRS. F. E CURRAH, Windsor, Ont. ----

STEEPLEJACK'S BIGGEST JOB. Decorating the Nelson Column in Lon don With 40 Tons of Laurel.

"The biggest job I have undertaken," declares an English steeple jack, "has been the decorating and repairing of the Nelson column in Trafalgar Square, London. Nearly forty tons of laurel were used and the greater portion of this had to be carried aloft and fixed to the column offered by prominent citizens, who are at varying heights up to the top. "I thought out my plans," he says in the Wide World Magazine, "but eventually decided to lash ladders livary, of Nanton, Alberta, who cured to the structure by means of ropes complished without hitch or mis "Your letter to hand of recent date. I hap of any kind. "Two sets of ladders were used,

England and I had to climb up and platform which supports the statue. "I found it too covered with an inch

For free sample bottle of D. D. D. thick layer of greasy soot, so that to East Mapleton, Cumberland Co., N. S., It has been found that not every kind ( Prescription write to the D. D. Labo- walk about on it was exceedingly line secured to the statue all was plain sailing. "I discovered a crack in the hero's arm, which I repaired. When I tell people this they not infrequently ask ----

BETTER THAN SPANKING. Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble, Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 8, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home bread, especially if you do not bake, and blame the child, the chances are it can't shop bread takes a lot of butter. But help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

> Horseshoe Competition. In a thickly populated district of Burnley, the clanging of the anvil late at night caused the policeman on the beat to call at a blacksmith's shop. He found a competition in progress between two smiths as to which could make seventeen pairs of horseshoes in the shortest time. Each man was allowed an assistant as striker. The contest was for a wager and each contestant had his backers, there being nearly a hundred spectators. It was not until 1 o'clock yesterday morning that the competition was over, the winner

Minard's Liniment Lumberman's The Flea.

having accomplished the feat in two hours and a quarter and his rival in two hours and a half.-From the Westminster Gazette.

He cometh Would he would go, He makes pets miserable. He even attacks their owners. ..... But few people pay much attention

They worry about the force wasted

But they ignore the enormous strength of the flea's hind legs. Let those who thrill over University high jumps consider the flea; he So really what chance have we with

SURE CURE FOR SKIN INJURIES & DISEASES.

A purely herbal balm: best lidren, yet powerful enough to heal an adult's chronic sore; highly anticeptio; cases pain and smarting soon as applied that is Zam-Buk. Romembe It is purely herbal—no minera poleons, no animal fats. Power and purity combined !

only jealously poison him.

All druggiots and stores soll at 80c. a box.

MOB AFTER MRS. BOYLE.

Thousand Women Threatened to Lynch Alleged Kidnapper.

Only Saved by Strenuous Ffforts of Sheriff and His Assistants.

Man Concerned in Kidnapping Convicted in Record Time.

tacked by a mob of perhaps 1,000, most ly women, and it was only by great efness men and several others that the mob was prevented from doing great bodily injury to the woman, wno is charged with having kidnapped Willie Whitla, and who was placed on trial here late this afternoa, James H. Boyle, her al leged husband, had been convicted a kidnapping earlier in the day and he get her, and hang her. We don't need any jury," screamed a big woman who I'll make you climb a tree," said Mrs. Boyle, quietly, as she took a stand. "Why don't you go home and wa your face," added Mrs. Boyle as a final shot.

The mob swarmed around the wowas only with the greatest difficulty that Stuart, aided by several men, could work his way through and start on the six square walk to the jail. The women were most bitter and some of them shouted; "Get a rope and let's fix the kidnapper," at which Mrs. Boyle flung back defiance only and asserted Sheriff William Chess, who had charge of Boyle, did not tarry in the there might be in the mob's midst plot concealed to liberate Boyle, so la hurried him along, handcuffed, am with on hand always on the butt of his gun. The attack on Mrs. Boyle was the

the Court in record time. It to but one hour for the testimony of litle Willie Whitla, the kidnapped boy to convince Messrs. Anderson, Mil. and Stranahan, Boyle's counsel, this he had not a chance in the world They took him out of court and urge that he plead guilty, but he would not They finally convinced him that make any defence, and so the case was passed to the jury without au defence and a verdict of guilty was quickly reached. He will be sen tenced after, the trial of Mrs. Boyl finish of a most exciting day. James

Boyle was convicted of kidnapping b is ended. Mrs. Boyle was already in the court for her trial when the jury came is with the verdict against her husband Neither of them changed a muscle a the verdict was received, but busice themselves looking over the jury lis when a panel was being set for the trial of the woman. Mrs. Boyle tok a lively part

have a longing toward young and un selected and one witness, Miss Elle Boyle, sister of James Boyle, place on the stand when court adjourne ----HUSBAND GOT EVEN

Had Wife Arrested on a Charge Toronto despatch; Walking out of police court dock, where he had arr yesterday through a charge of support made against him by young wife, William Sheehan, of 4 L. place, strode into the office of the poclerk and swore out a warrant charthe young woman with bigamy. warrant was executed later by Detect

According to the police, the priso whose maiden name was Ethel Hugwas married to William Sheehan on 1 15, 1905. The couple separated about year later, and on Aug. 12, 1907, Shechan, it is alleged, using her ma name, married Archibald J. Mearns, marriage, according to the police, scarcely more of a success than her i woman made overtures, with a viet going back to "hubby" No. 1. She was satisfied with things as they n and refused all offers of conciliation

SIDE CREASES. Trousers of King Edward, Europ

Best Dressed Man.

Paris, May 10.-Frenchmen who res in Europe, has been interested in n ing since His Majesty has been in ; incognito that he wears his trop ereased down the side instead of

WHEAT SEEDING.

Welcome Rise in Temperature the Prairies. Winnipeg, May 10.-(Globe.)-B and sunny weather throughout the nature, and there is a fair promise May will atone for the shorten of April. There is no doubt that atmospheric conditions which pro ed during the month which has closed were most unsatisfactory, agricultural starfdpoint, as rie Provinces has changed the far