Mr. A. H. Jackson is having the excavation made for the cellar of his new residence on the breezy height above the fire hall. There will be no such commanding view in town as Mr. Jackson will have from his upper windows, east, west and south.

A gang of C. P. R. workmen have the "frog" laid for the switch into the McGowan Outrigger mill that is to rise from the banks of the Saugeen in full view of the main street. The excavations are well advanced, but work on the dam has not yet begun.

Invitation Cards have been issued this week to over 500 men to attend a Missionary Congress in Durham, Town Hall on 28th May, to inaugurate the plans and further the ideals of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. All men, young and old, without denominational distinction, should endeavor to be present. Read the extracts from the article by S. J. Moore on page 5, "A C. H. to Business Men."

PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS.—The women of Montreal took charge of every feature of last Saturday's Montreal Daily Witness, and brought out an issue greatly to their credit. They are doing it from a worthy motive: all profits are to go towards extending and making more useful the Parks and Playgrounds of the big city. There are 80 pages, an attractive colored cover with a frontispiece showing a barefooted girl wailing looking wistfully through a barred enclosure at some favored children at play.

The Annual Entertainment of the Durham Junior League will be held on Friday next at 8 p. m. in the Methodist church. Silver collection taken, to be devoted to the Supply Dept. of the Junior society. As this society is interdenominational it merits and needs the support of every church in town. Quoting from the Rev. Wray R. Smith: "The Sunday School stands for instruction. The Junior League for effort. The first for theory the second for practice. In the S. S. much of the work is of necessity done for the pupils. In the League the Junior is set to practice the precepts he has learned. Our Juniors are a germinal force of pledged menace to evil. A child is 1st, sincere, 2nd, earnest, 3rd, truthful." Come, one, come all, on Friday night, May 21st, and ham on Friday, May 28th, 1909, at 8 o'clock p. m.

MAY HANG UP INSTRUMENTS.—The Walkerton Band threatened on Monday night to hang up their musical instruments unless they got an immediate guarantee of $100.00 from the Town Council. While deploring the situation, the council decided to take no immediate action and left the matter over for further consideration.—Times.

PAPERS A-PLenty.—O. Sound has just lately had two new papers started within its bounds. The "Telegram" a small sheet is issued free, bearing the bargain day price of our contemporary. The other paper, the "Harold" is a more pretentious 7 col. to a page affair. We hope their enterprise will receive and deserve its reward. Mr. Harold Moffat, an old Durham boy, publishes the Telegram.

PIONEER DEAD.—Mr. David McMullen, one of the sturdy pioneers who settled in Artemesia township over fifty years ago, died yesterday at the home of his son, near Flesherton. The deceased, who was 77 years of age, was born in the north of Ireland. Forty-seven years ago he was married to Miss Jane Madill, of Artemesia, who died two years ago. Six sons and one daughter survive.

AN EXCURSION COMING.—Parkdale Council, No. 418, C. O. C. F. will run an Excursion to Owen Sound, Durham, Hanover and Walkerton, via Canadian Pacific Railway, on Saturday, June 26th, 1909. Obituary

Mrs. JANET GRAHAM.

On Saturday last there passed away at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Calder, Mrs. Janet Graham in her 69th year. She survived her husband, Mr. John A. Graham, almost 30 years. The cause of death was pneumonia, following a stroke of paralysis.

Deceased was born on Yonge St., Toronto, on 10th of March, 1841, and with her parents moved some years later to Victoria Co., where the chief years of her youth were spent. In 1859 they moved to Elderslie, and in 1861 she was married to Mr. John A. Graham, who died in 1880, leaving wife and mother with the care of a large family a charge which she seems to have borne most worthily. In 1883 she moved to Paisley, and since 1887 has made her home with her daughter here, Mrs. Wm. Calder.

To Mr and Mrs Graham were born eight children, three deceased, Archie and Malcolm, and Mrs. Greig, who died four years ago of the survivors, only one, Angus, of Vancouver, was not present at her deathbed. The other sons are Neil D. and John A. of Sioux Falls, S. Dakota, and Findlay in Midland. Mrs. Neil Graham accompanies her husband, a reunion of all the family had been planned for next month, but Providence ruled otherwise.

Three sisters of deceased were present at the funeral Mrs. Munn and Mrs. Welsford of Paisley and Mr. McDougall of O. Sound, a daughter of the latter also being present. Two sisters not here were Mrs. Williscroft, Vancouver and Mrs. Galbraith, Winnipeg; a brother Mr. Neil McNeill lives at Carleton Place. To all the mourners and especially to the children between whom and their mother there was the warmest affection, we extend sympathy. Mr. Dan Graham, Priceville, was also present. He is a cousin of Mr. Graham in Scotland.

The funeral took place on Monday, interment being made in Durham Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Newton her pastor, conducted the services, referring in his remarks to the Christian character of deceased and the motherly devotion she bore to her children, the yearning to see them before she died having been gratified, though but for a short time. Rev. Dr. Farquharson offered prayer. The pall bearers were Messrs Wm. Lawrence, Alex. McLachlan, J. H. Brown, Alex. Russell, Don. Graham and Colin McDougall, and there were some beautiful floral offerings.

WILLIAM SMITH.

A letter received by us yesterday from Mrs. Harte (nee Maggie Smith) of North Vancouver, brings the sad news, of the death of her father, who, just a year ago went west to join his family. He had good health in the west, was quite smart and enjoying the Pacific province, until about the first of April when a recurrence of the trouble that afflicted him over a year ago laid him low and though he is reported to have held his own bravely for four weeks and had every kind ministrations it was too much for him in the end and he passed peacefully away on the 30th of April, aged 77. The funeral took place, 3rd of May and was largely attended, the floral offerings being numerous and beautiful. He was interred in the Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Smith was born in the north of Scotland and in early life acquired a good book education. Becoming a sailor, he added greatly to it by his experiences in many parts of the world, and it was a treat to get him to tell of life in many lands as picked up by his observant nature. He gave up the sea however, taught school for a while and ultimately became one of the early settlers in North East Normanby, where his brother and brother's son, both Alexanders, still live. Here he married, here his children were born, but the lure of the west drew his family out, one by one, till all were gone but Maggie. His wife died in the west a few years ago where she had gone to visit her children and was deeply mourned. He retired from farming, lived at Varney for a while, and as we have said went west a year ago, also in the Providence of God to die amidst his family and be laid to rest there. One much-beloved daughter, Mary, Mrs. Hungerford, died nine or ten years ago, widely lamented owing to her ability and public spirited usefulness.

The family again called upon to mourn now consists of William, Mrs. Harte, (Maggie) Mrs. — (Christie), Annie and Alexander and to them we extend sincere sympathy.

The funeral of the late Hugh Mackay took place on Saturday last and was largely attended. Rev. Dr. Farquharson was the officiating clergyman. Deceased's brethren of the Orange order conducted the funeral in accordance with their rites. Three of the pall bearers Messrs H. McLean, T. C. Morton and R. Torry were chosen from Ben Nevis Camp, the others from the Orange Society Messrs Geo. Moore, Job, Brigham and —.

Deceased left a will directing the division of his insurance and as soon as the legal forms are complied with, his family will benefit.

Mr. John Kelly returned from his trip West last week.

Miss Edith Chadwick of Durham, spent Sunday with Miss Maud Wilkes. —Walkerton Times.

Postmaster McKinnon and daughter Laura, Priceville, visited his brother, Mr. Allan McKinnon Monday.

Mrs. McPhail, west of Priceville, was visiting her aunt, Mrs. McCormick in town for a few days this week, also with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch McCormick, Aberdeen. Her sister accompanied her home Tuesday to Priceville.

MODEL SCHOOL RETAINED.—As we go to press an official letter from the Education Dept., informs the School Board that the Model School is to be retained here for 1909 at least, on the same basis as last year.

GASOLINE PLOUGH—Ever enterprising, Mr. Charter Smith has about completed a 30 h p gasoline plough, which he is constructing for a Mr. Young, formerly a South Grey boy, who holds the patent. This is only a 2-furrow one in the meantime, but each blade turns 16 inches. Where men in relays can be had and good moonlight the thing could be worked day and night. Our prairie friends will now be making enquiries.

Trustees of rural schools are reminded that by applying to the Forestry Department of the O. A. C., Guelph, they may get free of charge seedling of the Norway Spruce, White Pine, Scotch Pine, White Cedar (evergreens) and White ash, black locust, Manitoba maple (boxwood) catalpa and tulip tree or whitewood (deciduous) for planting in their school grounds. A liberal planting of these this spring would beautify many of those yards which are now bare of any adornment. The Manitoba maple is said to be a beautiful shade tree and very suitable for this purpose. June is the most suitable month for planting evergreens.

DIED.

MATTHEWS.—In Glenelg, on Wednesday, 19th May, Mrs. John Matthews, aged 82.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Geo. Smith was in Forest last Friday on business.

Mrs. J. Levine spent last week end with friends in Wiarnton.

Mr. T. N. Walpole visited in Bolton the beginning of the week.

Barrister Telford made a business trip to Owen Sound last week end.

Mr and Mrs Fred Glass left Saturday to visit Georgetown relatives for a few days.

Miss Islay Campbell is visiting friends and attending the Gipsy Smith meetings in Toronto.

Mr Allan McFarlane left Tuesday for Raven Lake Cement plant, where he has secured a position.

Rev. Mr. Newton went to Toronto Wednesday and will attend the Gipsy Smith evangelistic meetings.

Mr Geo. Stinson spent from Tuesday to Saturday last week visiting relatives in Alma, Elora and Guelph.

Miss Melinda Grasty, of Oakville, is home visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs Wm. Grasty, north of town.

Mr and Mrs Chapman returned to Toronto Wednesday after attending her father's funeral, the late Hugh Mackay.

Mr D. Coleridge, St. Bromore, has been visiting her son at Holstein and is at present the guest of her daughter, Mrs C. Ramage.

Mr Findlay Graham returned to Midland Wednesday. His two brothers, who were also present at the funeral, will return to Dakota this week.

Mr. Wm. Black is a judge in the horse contests in Markdale on Monday next and has also promised to perform the same duties in Flesherton on 1st July.

Miss Christine Jackson entertained a number of her friends to a cheerful party Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Widdfield, of Owen Sound.

Mr Keith Newton came home last week from the S. P. S., Toronto. We congratulate him on his success in passing second year exams in Mining Engineering.

Miss Edith Blackburn, nurse, underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Cleveland hospital last Friday. We are pleased to report she is recuperating finely.

Rev. A. B. Weatherall, B. A., who recently completed his course in Knox College, Toronto, and Miss Mamie Campbell, of Hanover, are spending a few days this week at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs Jno. McKechnie.

Mrs. A. McClinton and little daughter left on Tuesday for her new home in far away Saskatchewan. Her husband preceded her almost two months ago and has a comfortable house up of material he took with him. Miss Glauser of Hanover went by same train and her companionship was gratifying as she goes within one station of Mrs. McClinton's. We hope some one will rise up to take Mrs. McClinton's place in the Fine Arts Department of the Fall Show.
