RAMBLES THROUGH GLENELG.

By the Assessor.

We hardly know where to begin this time but however we will start as was customary with our late Receiver, Thos. McFadden Esq., as the assessors in general made a commencement with him.

As we have quite a journey from Lot 1 to Lot 54 at Priceville we cannot take up much time in each house so we will have to pass on as best we can even in a snow storm.

A lot or two west of this Rob Roy is Mr Bell's farms the late assessor, who also served the Township faithfully as assessor for sixteen years. We had the pleasure of meeting with him at the late Robert Bell's widow.

Coming to the top of the hill where the gravel makes a deviation from the old Durham Road we were reminded of that good old Scotch song "Ye'll tak' the high Road and I'll tak' the low Road."

Those who wrote on Teachers' training course, "The Life and Times of our Lord Jesus Christ," in Amos on Tuesday night, Mrs. Kenda, Misses Mandy Rowick, Minnie Halpenny, Agnes Rowick and Ella Renton. We wish them success.

A book on Rheumatism, and a trial of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy—Liquid or Tablets—is being sent free to sufferers by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis.

Constable William Gillespie, who lives between here and Cedarville, has brought some of those Jew peddlers before the magistrates and had them fined for not having the necessary licenses.

William McMurdo, Jr., is laid up in the house for some time and is not improving much. Mrs Dingwall, one of the first residents here, is very poorly for some time past.

As we have had a few nice days and our farmers are very busy seeding, but most of the land around here is wet yet.

Hampden

Mr William Sharp has been seriously indisposed during the past week. Mrs Thos. Ball visited friends on this side one day last week.

A number of the farmers disposed of their fat stock lately and have lighter hearts and heavier pocket books in consequence. Mr Henry Byers has been on the sick list about two weeks but is improving again.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by MacFarlane & Co.

Swinton Park. Owing to the almost continuous wet weather, seeding operations are much delayed, scarcely a foot of ground being now in condition to work.

There is talk of the ladies getting up a baseball team. The stranger who called at the store on Wednesday evening to enquire the distance to James Hay's talked boastfully of having walked fourteen miles that day.

A pain prescription is printed upon each box of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your Doctor or Druggist if this formula is not complete.
