TORE HIS ARM.—While running the steamer in Robt. Smith's sawmill outfit at Dornoch last week, Mr Thos. Ryan, of town, met with a severe accident. A belt slipped off and pieces entered his arm, causing deep incisions which required a number of stitches. He will be off work for a couple of months.
A FINE EXCURSION.—The excursion to Toronto and the Falls under the auspices of the Furniture Factory last week was fairly well patronized. From Walkerton to Shelburne 312 tickets were sold, almost 200 from Durham. Only 65 came home same day and they did not reach the town till 4.10 next morning. Many remained till Monday. The company as to expense will break even, perhaps slightly better.
HOLSTEIN PICNIC.—We had expected a report of this mammoth affair but not having received it we can report only the echoes of great things that have reached us. They had the weather, the crowds, the amusements that go to make an Ontario picnic but they had more in the way of profitable addresses from Prof. Dean of the O. A. C. and others. It was under the auspices of the Creamery patrons and a very successful entertainment was given in the evening by the Women's Institute, at which Mrs Hyland and Prof. Dean were the speakers.
A FAMILY RE-UNION.—It is ever a pleasant occasion when a family, widely separated can re-unite, if only for a day or two, and it was indeed a happy gathering last Saturday when the Brown family re-united at the home of their sister, Mrs Thos. Brown south of town. All were present except two of the brothers, and spent an enjoyable time at Hayward's Falls and Holstein. Those who came were Miss Jean Brown, Toronto, Mr and Mrs A. Reynolds and two boys of Alpena, Mich., Mrs R. being another sister; Mr and Mrs Jas. Brown, and children, also of Alpena; Messrs Will and Norman Brown, of Independence, Kansas; Mr Walter Brown, Pary Sound, and Mr and Mrs Stonehouse, of town.
Rev Mr Wright will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday evening in the Methodist church, as he is leaving for Durham next week. There will in all likelihood be a large turnout from all denominations to bid him farewell. There was considerable length and breadth to Mr Wright, and he well understood how to do his duty, without unnecessarily colliding with other religious institutions, and as a consequence was held in favor by all creeds. We wish him every success in his new field of labor and can assure the Durhamites that they are securing an able pulpiteer and a profound scholar as their pastor.—Palmerston Spectator.

Successful Jubilee Services

IN FINE WEATHER
Sunday and Monday last will long be remembered by Durham Presbyterians for the interesting services held to commemorate the completion of fifty years of an ordained ministry. In May of 1859 the late Rev. Wm. Park was ordained and inducted into the Durham charge. Over a year previous he had come from Scotland, and after doing some work in Quebec and as assistant to Dr. Bayne of Galt, he was called to Durham where he ministered faithfully for over 25 years.
There were three divisions of Presbyterians in the early 50's of last century; the Church of Scotland, Free Church, and United Presbyterian. These were all represented in Durham and ministers of the various denominations gave occasional service. The two last named bodies were at the time discussing union in their higher church courts and it should be mentioned to the everlasting credit of the Durham representatives of these bodies, that they gave an example of union before the main body of their churches had accomplished it. Mr Chas. Moffat Sr. whose regrettable illness prevented him from being present at the Jubilee, informs us that the scattered members of the two bodies here, finding they were each too weak to give a call, came together like sensible men and after some time agreed that a young man who had preached to them occasionally would suit them both and accordingly a "call" was extended, and later accepted. That young man was Mr Park. The young minister, Mr Moffat also tells us was not a month in charge till he asked his choir and congregation to adopt the standing position in singing, which they did, in this also being in the van, for the sitting posture was general at the time.

It is this settlement which was commemorated on Sunday and Monday last. The beginnings of religious teaching in Durham were nine or ten years earlier. Sunday School and other workers of the early period were Thos. Brown, (father of Mr John H. Brown,) James McGirr, James, Gordon and Thos. Burgess, Mr Gillies, (father of Mrs Jno. McKelvey), Duncan Campbell, the veteran clerk of Hanover, and no doubt others. Nor were men only active. Then as now women were to the front and Mrs Arch. Hunter was one of the first if not the very first to give a stimulus to church building by contributing $10.00. For a time there was a movement among the Skenes, Ledingham, Smiths and others round Dornoch to join with Durham in the erection of a common church, but this fell through and "Latona" soon after had birth. Before the days of churches, meetings were held in private houses, in the "Synagogue," in a little school house and elsewhere. One of the good boys of the time, who came in from the country to attend to heating arrangements was C. C. McFayden, who has yet a vivid memory of the time.
After some years of teaching and preaching under not very suitable conditions, a committee was appointed consisting of Mr Stewart, who married a daughter of Mr Allan, from whom Allan Park was named, and who for a time was both Treasurer and Secy.—Alex. Hunter, Gordon Burgess, and John Hymeneal.

SUMPTION-McDONALD
"Ferndale Farm," the pretty home of Mr. Dugald McDonald, Bentinck, near Lamash, presented a pleasing sight on the 23rd of June last when over 100 guests assembled to do honor to a daughter of the house, Miss Jessie Campbell McDonald, on the occasion of her union to Mr James Edgar Sumption, a prosperous young farmer of Bruce Township. It was an ideal day and on the beautiful lawn under an evergreen arch the young man took his place at 6 p. m., and all hearts expectant looked while they listened to the strains of the wedding march played by the bride's sister, Mrs Andy Hastie. Soon the bride, radiant and happy, attracted all eyes as she approached her husband to be. She was given away by her father and there, beside the man of her choice they mutually pledged life long fidelity to each the officiating clergyman being Rev. A. Leslie of Elmwood. After congratulation all were seated on the front lawn and got photos taken by Mr. Roloff of Hanover.
Then came the wedding repast in the dining hall, eye and appetite enchanted by the tasteful display of splendid viands and beautiful decorations of evergreens, white roses and bells. Covers were laid for 50 at a time, the tables being decorated with pink and white flowers; it was a sumptuous supper and greatly enjoyed.
The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music and friendly converse.
The bride looked charming, in white net over white silk, trimmed with valenciennes lace and insertions and wore a beautiful veil of silk chiffon caught with a cluster of orange-blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern tied with white silk ribbon.
Miss Esther McLean, cousin of the bride was flower girl and looked sweet dressed in white silk with white clamy lace insertion, and carried a basket of pink carnations and maiden hair fern tied with white silk ribbon. Master David S. Vase, of Chesley, was page, in a neat white suit and did his part well.
The presents were numerous and costly telling of the esteem for the bride and expressive of good wishes for the future. The young couple will reside in their beautiful home on the 10th Con. of Bruce, overlooking Lake Huron.
Friends from a distance were Mrs Wm Sumption, the groom's mother; Mr and Mrs G. A. Brooks, Mr and Mrs John Howe, Port Elgin; Mr and Mrs G. H. Bailey, Underwood; Mr John Tremblay of Robin's Rest; Mrs Alex McIntyre of Priceville; Mr Donald McLean and Miss Ellis, of Shallow Lake; Mr and Mrs John Savage of Chesley.

Off to Owen Sound.
Sometimes the above expression has a sinister meaning, but this time we mean that the Band of the 31st Regiment and No. 4 Co., entrained at the C. P. R. station on Tuesday morning of this week for the annual drill at the military camp at the County town. The band under Prof. Wright was up to the regulation strength, but the Company was very much emaciated only three privates turning up in uniform, and we believe 17 are required. We hope they will pick up more en route, else how will they "fore four?" The late date is responsible for some of the hesitancy.
