The Co. Council did a fair thing when it refunded the excess taxation collected from urban municipalities during the three past years. Durham profits by the sum of $170.00. The discovery of the error was due to Dr. Mearns who has succeeded in getting Co. Council's support to a bridge also, though they wouldn't guarantee Durham debentures.

S. S. No. 12.—In the crush preceding the holiday last week, the following item got overlooked: Wednesday last a very enjoyable picnic was held in Mr And. Henry's bush in connection with S. S. No. 12, Egremont, of which Miss Irwin is the popular teacher. The day was ideal and there was a very fine mixture of the old and the young of the section. A great number of the young people had recitations, &c., for the platform program. Rev. Mr Kendall being chairman, the recitation by a son of W. J. Watson being especially good. Rev. Mr Rice made some very profitable remarks, and was followed by Mr C. Ramage, an old teacher of the section. Abundance of good things were provided for the inner man, and swings, games, races, &c., for the spirit of youth. It is the first picnic held here for a number of years, and its success will lead to successors.

Address and Presentation. Tuesday of last week, the pupils and friends of Latoit School, Miss K. McDonald, teacher, met at the school house, and it being the last teaching day, the pupils had a nice little program prepared, Master Alex Turnbull being made chairman. At an appropriate time the teacher was called upon to be spoken to and Miss Lavinia Mortley read the address given below, while the presents, a handsome suitcase and silk parasol were handed to her by Misses Carrie Mortley and Ivy Dargavel. The donors were fittingly thanked by the teacher, who is leaving in August for Zelandia, Sask. Miss McDonald has not only shown herself a teacher of ability but has won golden opinions from every one for her courteous demeanor and winning ways with young people. These qualities with her public spirit, will make her an acquisition in any community.

Following is the address: Dornoch, June 29th, 1909 To Miss K. McDONALD:

Dear Teacher, We, your loving pupils of S. S. No. 3, Bentinck and Glenelg, while expressing our sincere and heartfelt regrets at the loss of the guidance and care of a conscientious, kind and painstaking teacher, who has ever had our best interests in view and has done much for our physical, mental and moral advancement, would take this opportunity of showing in a slight degree our respect, esteem and love for you. We cannot adequately express our thanks for the interest you have shown in and the care you have taken over us for the past two and a half years while you have been our teacher, and we feel that your departure is a great loss to us and to the whole of the community. We would therefore ask you to accept these presents as a slight reminder of our well wishes for you and your future welfare.

Signed on behalf of the school: Carrie Mortley, Ivy Dargavel, Lavinia Mortley

Saugen Presbytery.

There was a splendid attendance of the members of the Saugen Presbytery at the meeting in Holstein on July 6th. Rev. Mr McNamara, the moderator, was in the chair and with the reverend clerk at his accustomed place there was the assurance of all being done in due order. No burning questions disturbed the proceedings, indeed it might be said that all were of one accord in one place.

Rev. Mr McNamara and Young and Messrs Aikens and Swanson, elders, reported their attendance at the General Assembly. The question of the relation of Queen's University to the church and the great issue of Church Union were the subjects in which interest chiefly centred. The former matter had been relegated to a commission and the latter will be before the church at a later stage. In the meantime the commissioners gave the warning that the vote on the question of union was not taken on the issue itself but on the motion that the church be further consulted in the matter.

In the rearranging of standing committee Rev. J. W. McNamara is assigned the convenership of the Home Mission Committee and some other changes are made corresponding to the changing membership of the Presbytery. Mr Young reported having represented the Presbytery at the funeral of the late Rev. M. C. Cameron on June 19th and a committee was appointed to prepare a minute for insertion in the Presbytery records as to his life and labors.

Mr Rice who has completed his theological course at Princeton Seminary was heard in Public probationary trials for license. The discourses he presented were excellent, while the candor and intelligence with which he answered the questions addressed to him and his evident sincerity and soundness in the faith made a deep impression on the Presbytery. In a service dignified and impressive, the moderator by the authority of Presbytery and in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, licensed him to preach the gospel wherever Providence would open his way. The absence of any item on the docket as to the call from Attwood to Rev. T. McCullough led to private enquiry which elicited the information that Guthrie church had risen to the occasion increased Mr McCullough's salary by $200.00 and given him such assurances of confidence and appreciation that he had declined the call without allowing it to come before Presbytery. The next meeting of Presbytery will be held in Harriston on the third Tuesday of September next.

Young People's Societies. The meeting of the Presbyterial association of the Young People's Societies also held at Holstein was a decided success. No warmer welcome could be given to any church gathering than that with which the Presbyterial Young People's Society was greeted on Tuesday. Even Holstein and their genial pastor, Mr Little outdid themselves in their hospitality. Mottos on this walls proclaimed the spirit of the meeting, while a streamer stretched above the platform proclaimed a welcome. The President, Dr Brown, whose zeal and earnestness has provoked very many, was all sunshine and words entirely fail to express the grace and charm with which the ladies distributed their bounty on the richly laden tables in the basement.

The program was largely a clerical one, the only addresses from the laity being those given by the President and by Miss Clara Patterson, of Harriston. It was Miss Patterson's first public appearance and much appreciation was expressed of her address. The clerical speakers were Rev. D. L. Campbell, Wm. Cooper, J. W. McNamara, R. A. Cranston, George Kendall and John Little. Each presented the subject assigned with clearness and force, all the subjects were timely while that of "Our Young People, their greatest danger, their only hope," presented by Rev. J. W. McNamara seemed exceedingly timely and helpful. The Rev. W. R. McIntosh, of Elora, as visiting member, spoke in the afternoon as well as in the evening. He has a forcible manner of speech and a ready humor which never fails to hold the audience. In his conducting the question box he found himself face to face with problems all the way from the question of how to hold the young men in the Society to the enquiry as to the problems of Higher Criticism, the book of Genesis and the origin of the world. It need not be stated that ten minutes is too short to deal exhaustively with all these topics yet there were flashes of light and finger points to show the way over many of the perplexities that rack the human mind.

The crowded church both afternoon and evening and the general enthusiasm indicated a life and vigor in the work of Young People's Societies that is refreshing. Mr Howe, of Palmerston, is the President elect and the next meeting will be held at Palmerston. Votes of thanks were given to Mr Little and the ladies of the congregation, to Dr Brown the retiring President and to Mr McIntosh the visiting member. Deep sympathy was expressed for Rev. Wm. McD. McKay, who was prevented from being present owing to the death of his father, and the inspiring meeting of 1909 passed into history.

Dromore Picnic.

Nowhere in the broad Dominion was Dominion Day more loyally celebrated than at Dromore. For miles around the people simply abandon everything and go and this year again, the weather being fine, they "went." It was estimated by the sale of tickets alone that 12,000 at least were present. On an admission of 10 and 15 cts, the gate receipts amounted to $140.00 while $12.00 more were the tent receipts, so the I. O. Foresters, who were the organizing body, are on easy streets as to finances.

For this small fee a generous lunch is given as evening approaches and really it was worth the money, only to see the feeding of the crowd—we had nearly said—animals. A wired-in enclosure, with entrances and exits, is plank-seated but without tables, the intention being to allow a hundred or more in at a time. The feeding Dromore air gives an appetite and the stewart doorkeepers a strenuous time keeping oak the struggling masses who all wanted to "get in early to avoid the rush."

Once in the army of waiters dispensed abundance of excellent provision. We would suggest two entrances another year, on opposite sides.

A program, Reeve Hastie, Chairman, was conducted in the leafy shade during the hot hours. Fine music was supplied by Swinton Park string band, and tries, duets, &c., by various combinations. Best address by Rev. Mr Kennedy, C. C. McInnes and C. Ramage, and step dancing by Mr T. McIlraith, gave variety.

Out in the field football teams from Ramona and Dromore strove for victory but no goals were made, later Durham tried Dromore with the same result. Dromore team was composed of D. Henry, J. Renwick, R. Taylor, forwards; the others being S. Patterson, D. Eccles, D. Clark, A. Renton, P. Hay, J. McKenzie, G. Gaudes and G. Finlay.

Besides all this there were swings, races, &c., and we close our account of an enjoyable day by giving the prizewinners:

Boys under 10—Gordon McLeod, Will Lane, James Haas; Girls under 14—Mary Finlay, Jennet McDougal, Nedie Acclison. Boys under 16—Liam Keadley, R. Davis, W. J. McLeod. Boys under 18—Noel McDougal, W. McKennie, Alex Findlay.

100 yds open—E. Hudson, W. Knox, C. McKenzie. 200 yds open—E. Houston, Bert Saunders, W. Knox. Ladies' race, 80 yds—M. Swanson, Mary Ramage, Beil Patterson.

Hop, Step and Jump—Morton, 35 ft. 9 in.; Duncan Clark, 35 ft. 3 in.; E. Holtzman, 33 ft. 8 in.
