A clever, popular Candy Cold Cure Tablet—called "The Cure"—is being dispensed by druggists everywhere. In a few hours, Preventives are said to break any cold—completely. And Preventives, being so safe and toothsome, are very fine for children. No Quinine, no laxative, nothing harmful nor sickening. Box of 48—25c. Sold by MacFarlane & Co.

Man that cometh into this world is sinners' temptation in a hill. He groweth forth in the morning warbling like a lark. He meeteth an adversary and is knocked out in one round of two seconds. His pursuit on his best paint and behold! he is struck all the country, and low a thunderstorm smiteth him sore, which filleteth him with wet and rheumatism. He carrieth a red-headed girl with a wart on her nose, and in two weeks her father goeth under with few assets and great liabilities, and cometh home to live with his beloved son-in-law. He goeth to the races and betteth with all his stakes on the favorite Gray, while the Black Flier with a blaze face winneth. Weary and heavy laden he returneth to his home and behold! the house is empty, his wife absent at a bridge party while he fast goeth to bed hungry. When his life is far spent he dieth and his life insurance and estate goeth to his wife's second husband.
