The Yellow Bill

We trust all those of our subscribers who have recently received notice of being in arrears, will before now have attended to the matter. If they have not we beg to remind them of their duty and hope they will see to it at once. Not for a long time have we asked through the paper, but the individual sums, though small in each case, mean a great deal to the publisher who must pay his bills at least monthly.

"United for God and the War"

Under the above heading last week's War Cry has the following account of the marriage of Miss Sophia Jack, formerly of Durham.
"Brigadier Taylor recently performed a very pleasant ceremony in a graceful hall at Toronto No. 1. It was the marriage of Miss Sophia Jack, daughter of Mr Jack. A splendid crowd assembled to witness the ceremony, and on the platform were seated a lady and gentleman with whose family Sister Jack has been connected. They gave a splendid tribute to our comrades' personal worth and Christian character.
The Corps was present in full force for both comrades are greatly respected.
The Treasurer owes a great deal to the Corps, for prior to his conversion, he was a heavy drinker; but he bears a striking testimony to the fact that although a bricklayer, and having to work in the hot sun, he has had no temptation to drink intoxicating liquors. He is a fully uniformed Salvationist, so devoted to the meetings that he has only missed four services for the last ten months.
Sister Jack has occupied several important posts in the Corps, and is at present the Band of Love Leader. Her home circumstances have given her the opportunity of showing a motherly spirit to her brothers and sisters, and so thoroughly has she risen to her duty in this respect, that a brother with whom she had not seen for fifteen years, came to Toronto to be present at the wedding.
Brigadier Taylor, also, on behalf of Captain and Mrs Townsend, presented the young couple with a Bible. God bless them."
