Gambling in Towns

The Bowmanville Statesman, in re ferring to recent arrests in Oshawa o a charge of gambling, intimates that the gambling evil has prevailed to a alarming extent of late in the town i which the arrests have been made,

It is to be feared Oshawa is not the only Ontario town in which this evil exists. There is reason to believe that nearly all towns in the Province are more or less afflicted in the same way. And it is a great evil-a very great evil. There is no practice more utter. P- ly demoralizing than that of playing cards for stakes. The game is always played at night, and the fascination Sil. gray dork. c—Luxton. P—Luxton

The blood fevered and nerves unstranged. the blood fevered and nerves unstrung. Such practices cannot go on for long without undermining the constitution,

Nor is this all. The moral nature is demoralized by the creation of false ideas of value. Where the stakes become at all heavy-and in but few cases are they kept within anything like moderate limits-the rapid change of piles of coin from one to another causes earnings in wages or salary to seem so small by comparison that a Wh. turkey c-Luxton Hen-Luxton distate for honest labor as a means of making a livelihood is developed, and then the victim is in a fair way to

Vigorous action, such as has been taken at Oshawa, would do much to clear up the moral atmosphere of a good many places, and might, by causing others than those directly inare drifting, be the means of prevent-
