WELLAND Jan. 9th, 1909. D. D. LEARBOY, Windsor, Ont.

Dear Sir:—Just a few lines in reference to the recent sale you conducted for me here in Welland.

Although I have had some experience with sales conducted by other promoters, I would just like to say that never have I known by a sale that experience or heard of a sale that considering all things was such a huge success as the one here.

When you think of the size of the store 11 ft. 6 in. by 75 ft. with a stock of a little over $6,000 and in 18 days to take in $5,500 in cash, it certainly is a remarkable thing and one that would hardly be credited by an outsider.

Your advertising schemes are certainly A. 1. the staff you have are the very best, and the way the customers are satisfied is the greatest point of all. I think I can safely say that not one customer went away dissatisfied and fully three quarters came back again. Wishing you every success in your future sales, I remain, Yours truly, GEO. A. PORTER, NIAGARA FALLS, SOUTH, ONT., May 23rd, 1909.

Dear Sir:—With great pleasure I can say that I could not help but be pleased with the sale you personally conducted for me last month, it far exceeded my anticipations in every respect, under your management it was a decided success. But I think the manner in which you engineered the whole thing, your good judgment, and your kind and genial disposition impressed me more than anything else and I can assure you my next sale will be under your charge and will cheerfully recommend you to all enquirers.

Yours sincerely, M. P. FRALICK. —The Dominion Parliament it is announced will meet on the 11th of November.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Jas. Hobkirk, of Crawford, is visiting relatives in Seaford this week.

Dr. Sinclair of Walkerton, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder from Saturday to Monday.

Miss J. Fraser went to Chatsworth last week on account of the sudden and severe illness of an aunt.

Miss Teskey elocutionist of Toronto, remained over till Monday, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. N. W. Campbell.

Mrs. Jas. H. Coleridge accompanied her husband to the Teachers' Convention and was a guest at his sister's at the Review office.

Mr. H. Caryeth, is away on a holiday trip to his home in Oshawa, in Toronto, and intended taking in a world's championship baseball game at Detroit.

Mrs. W. S. Horsburg, south of Holstein, is this week visiting friends in Hanover, Durham and Glenelg, the first visit here since she returned from Saskatchewan.

Miss Islay Campbell returned last Thursday from her uncle's in Alliston, where she has been visiting since leaving Muskoka. Her cousin, Miss McDonald of Alliston accompanied her home.

Mr. H. W. Lecson is at present confined to his room at the residence of his son, G. M. Lecson, by serious illness. Mr. Lecson has always been a healthy man and we hope he may soon weather this attack and be restored to his usual health. His son Dr. Fred is home next is expected.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Miller of Owen Sound, who a few days ago celebrated the golden wedding. Their distinguished son, H. H. Miller, M. P., was, of course at this interesting family reunion all the five sons and the daughter being present. The now aged couple have spent the whole 50 years in Owen Sound where they have a splendid record of public service.

Mr. Donald McIntosh, (brother of Mr. N. McIntosh in business here,) preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. He had a suggestive sermon from the confusion that occurred at the building of the Tower of Babel, where the builders went into their plans without taking God into account, and had warnings for us to avoid the same danger in modern times. He is a 3rd year student of Queen's University and is having a fine career.

SHAWELL-SWENEY.

On Wednesday, Oct. 6th a very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Michael's Church, North Branch, when Miss Catharine A. Sweeney was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Charles E. Shewell of Dornoch, Rey. Father Arnold of Walkerton officiating.

The bride looked charming in a princess gown of cream ladies' cloth trimmed with applique and brussels lace and beautiful hat to match and wore a handsome gold brooch, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by Miss May Shewell sister of the groom who wore a cream dress and pale blue hat and sash while the bride's brother, Mr. Edward Sweeney ably assisted the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sweeney, of Louise, where the relatives of the bride and groom awaited them. After a sumptuous dinner was partaken of, the afternoon was spent very pleasantly in music, singing, etc. At five o'clock about one hundred and seventy guests assembled where a beautiful tea was served. Afterwards, the evening was spent in dancing. The presents were numerous and costly and showed the esteem in which the happy young couple are held. Later they will reside on a farm about a mile from the home of the groom's parents. We extend our heartiest congratulations.

A Highland Wedding.

A recent issue of the Olan Times, sent by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McVean, of Killisnoe, Mull, to Mr. Neil Clark, of Bentinck, contains an interesting account of the marriage of their daughter, Iona McVean to Captain Durham Bentinck last winter and also in Bentinck. For 60 years a correspondence has been kept by Mr. Clark and his family with the McVean family across the water. The original correspondents have died but the second generation have kept it up. The paper has a tremendous list of prominent people who were guests, with presents and cheques to stock half a dozen households.

A church bedecked with heather and rowans; the congregation singing "O God of Bethel" as the bridal party entered, while the wedding march was played at the close of the service; the cutting of the cake by the bride with her husband's sword, were features novel to Canadians. But the most novel feature of all is told in the paragraph below and we will print wedding notices free to the first couple in Durham, who will follow the details as quoted: "It was the bride's wish that the wedding should take place according to the old Highland custom, so a procession was formed at Killisnoe House, and, headed by Piper MacColl, of the Scottish Horse, and Piper MacNeill, the whole house party marched towards the church, about a quarter

Watch Carelessness

Nobody deliberately allows his watch to fall—or intentionally abuse it.

But thousands allow their watches to run, or TRY to run, when they ought to be laid up for repairs.

What is the result?

Permanently injured watches.

We maintain a perfectly equipped department here. It is no trick at all for us to handle all kinds of repair work.

We can start working for you almost any minute you say.

a mile distant. On the way they were met by the bridegroom's procession, led by Mr. Hugh Livingstone, piper to Mrs. Cheape of Tirom. It passed and fell in behind the bride's following, and all marched to the church together.

Toronto Star's Popularity.

Recently the Vancouver Sunnet, a high-class weekly publication, described the editorial page of the Toronto Daily Star as the most interesting in Canada, and with this verdict in Canada, and with the editor of the Sunnet, make a practice of examining the whole range of Canadian publications, will be disposed to agree. While maintaining tone and dignity, it touches the lives of the people at more points than probably any other Canadian newspaper, and therein lies the secret of its popularity. What is true of the editorial page of The Star is true also of all its departments. In columns, in finance, in women's and sports, in features, The Star's departments are not surpassed, and thus wherever it is read The Star becomes the favorite paper of every member of the family, from grandfather, who probably finds the Khan's daily Chronicals the most interesting column, to grandson, who chuckles over the comic pictures and jokes. The Star is always interesting and readable from first page to last—that's why it has 6,000 subscribers, 15,000 more than any other Toronto paper.

WALKERTON BUSINESS COLLEGE GEO. SPOTTON, President. A. H. SPOTTON, Principal.

S. Grey Teachers in Session.

Teskey, both of Toronto, Mr. Dixon has a fine voice, well-trained, and with native fire enough to attract and hold his audience. Encores were hearty and frequent. In "Douglas Gordon" he appeared perhaps to best advantage, though the "Standard on the Braes O' Mar" furnished another instance where the personality was lost in the piece. "Sunshine and Butterflies" showed him in another mood but equally pleasing.

Miss Teskey stands right in the front as a high-class entertainer. Those who have heard "The Minister's Black Bess" before give her the palm freely, those who haven't were fired to fever heat as they looked, yes looked at the race in progress and gloried in the victory. The tragic, yet tender "Laika" stirred the feelings deeply, while "Dot Lettle Dutch Baby" and the wiles of the widow Commonskey were most laughingly alluring and cleverly done. She has a fine natural stage presence and her every number was encored.

Mrs. Newton was the accompanist of the evening and in addition to the accompanying gave two instrumental selections, marked by her usual ability: chaste and effective.

The general verdict was that the teachers had given one of the most chaste and pleasing concerts in a long time.

NOTES.

The officers elect for the coming year are: Pres.—Miss Margaret E. Mann, Markdale; 1st Vice—Miss Amy Edge, Durham; 2nd Vice—Mr. Gilbert, Secy.—Thos. Albert, Dur.; Managing Com.—Messrs. Rose and Marcellus, Misses Dohal, E. J. Wilson and McGregor, Auditors—Miss Margaret McKenzie and Miss Gretta Nichol.

Next meeting of the Association is to be held in Flesherton.

It was noted of course that the president for next year in spite of feminine aggressiveness is a Mann after all.

Pres. Rowe believes in all the national anthem and had two verses sung. The teachers didn't stampede either.

It was a good Convention and the impetus given to good reading will tend to eliminate some few mispronunciations that grated on the ear such as—constitout, dooties, jography, coloums, proprietor, con-tray-r, altitood, &c.

A Navy for Canada.

It has been long discussed but it is beginning to take shape when we hear of estimates of 10 or 12 million for construction and an annual charge of $300,000 for maintenance; when this question of the government's measures for the coming session; when two Naval Gunnery experts from Britain are already here and another coming and when we hear of the great shipbuilding firm of Harland & Wolff, of Belfast, conferring with the government in Canada at Halifax and Prince Rupert.

Captain Bernier, of the government steamer Arctic, has brought in the shape of letters from Cook, which substantiates Cook's claim to the discovery of the pole. The prior discovery of the pole, which character of Peary is also revealed by the letters in an unenviable light. Cook pays high compliments to Bernier and the Canadian government.
