Their four children were present and nothing was lacking to complete their cup of happiness on this anniversary of their marriage. They were made recipients of many beautiful presents, tangible reminders of kind friends and the passing years.

The Review joins in the felicitations to the worthy couple.

Address and Presentation. A few of the young people and pupils of S. S. No. 10, Proton, gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Robert McKechnie to bid farewell to their teacher, Miss Gertrude Backus, who has resigned her position in their school. The evening was spent in singing games and music. The following is the address:

DEAR TEACHER: On the eve of our separation as teachers and pupils, we feel it our duty to express to you our appreciation of your endeavors to instruct us in the various branches of secular education and, although we have many times grieved you and sorely tried your patience you have always shown the gentlest and most lenient Christian character, chiding when needed, encouraging when necessary and always showing an example to your pupils worthy of imitation.

We are very sorry that you are leaving our school, but what is our loss will be others gain, and ere you leave us, we take this liberty of presenting you with this book, charm and collar pins, as a slight token of our esteem, trusting it may serve as a memento of the love and attachment of your pupils.

We would now wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Signed on behalf of the pupils and well wishes of school section No. 10, Proton. LAZZIE QUARRIE, MARY MUNRO.
