> The Lambion St. bridge was open for traffic last week after being closed for over nine months. In appearance it is practically similar to its ill fated predecessor, and with abutment and first cost, has been one of the most costly bridges the town has erected. However its convenience is now appreciated especially by team sters after its long absence and w hope to see it withstand all future floods and tast for several decades.

W. H. M. S. Presbyterial Organized

A meeting of the 24 auxiliaries of the Women,s Home Missionary Society for the Saugeen Presidery, to organize all the various auxiliaries into a Presbayerial Society, was held in Ducham Presbyterian church on Wednesday, Jan 15th. Durham being the oldest auxiliary in the Presbytery, or ganized in 1967, had the honor of entertaining the first meeting of the Presbyterial.

Mrs Needham, one of the very capa ble travelling Secretaries of the Sociery, was the organizer and was also chairman of the meeting. She gave a very clear and business like address to the delegates and ther ladies present, describing the needs of the Society and giving the verious places she had founded auxiliaries, 19 in all in this pre-bytery so that with the five previously organized, it now conteins 24. The roll was called by Mrs. Ramage and Mrs Campbell read the rules and regulations of the Society. Mrs Mark, Mt Forest, gave the dedicatory prayer, and Miss Wenger, Ayton read an appropriate chapter.
