to the man

ut Work

nety around irksome windows ouet reerease instead . carry our awake with ct indifferitten in our then impanedicine, or at will give e would not arally. And edicines and ligions reap ralent deluell quick. KS SO 01838. realth plays igion. We n quick and want to get some cheap odliness. and danstic efforts. they chalead some s is a sad nat attends many who some easy that touch of characind peace ood of life. nothing in ntment, a pinch of religious of getting an the old ince, faith. the Bible. the humble nters are scrvices. hurch serway of beval road to of success e way of f-denying ir life into n Merrill.

overflowing stives of alpalms, the ut in some the performv. Mayor ed the greater that he E BRANCE OF as yet they are develops Lendon, or personages tre Sir E. J the Royal n Richmond. . Mr. Frank nn Burns. Be Clean. ord Mayor of reproach that t in the south s organized a ity. Many of en into dirty to teach them TOOESN'T'S leave your dealer a big profit, ...

MILEYS.

But it does leave a lasting favorable impression upon the palates of all giving it a trial.

CEYLON TEA. SEALED LEAD PACKETS ONLY.

MEVER SOLD IN BULK,

For Weal or for Woe;

Or, A Dark Temptation

The servants had been up, and the decor-Crimson and gold bunting floated from glimpse of fairy-land.
the majestic trees, the colored waters of And it was a quaint the fountains glowed rainbow-hued in the caught and held the eye. olear, bright light of the early day; brilliant lanterns swung from the green ing satin robes and waving plumes, masks branches, and the lawn was dotted here covering their dainty, smiling faces; stateand there with great vases of passion by young queens ablaze with diamonds roses, lilies of the valley, and circles of and golden crowns; the trimmest and nolia blessoms greeted the eye wherever the bewitching, bewildering waltz. Ione Leighton told herself as she gazed room, and Grace smiled triumphantly as critically about her, that the lawn fete she beheld her she and she alone knew and mask ball which was to follow in the her by her costume. evening would be a grand success.

as carriage after carriage dashed up the red mouth; white kid gloves extending to "Porbare as carriage after carriage dashed up the second paper, avenue, depositing their gay, chattering burdens, a little figure with a death-white face and great, burning, dark, tear-swollen eves crouched behind the heavy, silken len eves crouched behind the heavy worn, they were so ex-

Percy Granville was rather late in ar- In her hand she carried a simple spray

he had but known-if some kind fate the hall and gained her side. watching him from the window where to stand still around poor, hapless Gay; the silken curtains were so closely the wonder was that she did not die, so drawn, what a world of agony might have great was her emotion as she raised her letters, letting me know how he is," she to a plain melted butter sauce. letters, letting me know how he is," she can been spared two hearts, whose every eyes and saw the tall plumed knight bow.

toward the coach again, then Gay saw ing before her-the handsome, passionate that he was not alone; two white, jeweled lover who had married her on the imhands were held out to him, and the next pulse of the moment-the lover who had instant a silken-clad figure sprung into first awakened her heart with the sweet

ment Gay remembered the haughty heir- gleaming stars overhead shone on themcame between us; but, mark me, the Yet, for all this, how her passionate hour will come when his mad infatuation little heart went out to him! for you will die away, and his heart will How she longed, with a pitiful yearning return to me and its old allegiance." words cannot tell, to touch his hand or tween him and his love. How he must beemed to live ages in those few moments. Lord Ribblesdale, is a Socialist, and the same quantity of water and should she throw herself on her knees. Should she throw herself on her knees. lost love how I wish that I were dead!" before him and cry out:

"Yes," answered Grace Leighton. "I'd prayer. I have been more sinned against like very much to come in. May I?" than sinning. My life has been as pure as For answer Gay opened the door, but an angel's take me back to your heart-Grace stood quite still on the threshold. love me again, or I shall die. grying?" she demanded. "Why, your eye- low before her with a winning smile. lashes are wet with tears; has has Ione "The band is about to strike up a waltz," been saying anything cross to you?" she he said; "may I claim it?" inquired, smoothing back the bright gol- Gay bowed she dared not trust herself said Gay, choking back a hard music.

"You must not talk like that, Nell." struck up that tender walts refraincried Grace Leighton, throwing her white "There's Nothing Half so Sweet in Life as arms in impulsive girl-fashion about the Love's Young Dream. slender waist, and kissing the dimpled Gay was thinking how cruelly her dream peachy cheeks. "I like you better than of love had been shattered; and she was fete, though I know how awfully hard it while others were cruelly awakened from must be to listen to the music and to be love's young dream.

ever imagine. I'm going to smuggle you into the ballroom this evening, and you the waltz permitted him. shall enjoy yourself to your heart's con-tent behind a friendly mask. Now don't tory and see the fragrant flowers?" he tent behind a friendly mask. Now don't look at me with those big, startled, dark eyes of yours, for come to the ball you through his arm.

Sixty other cadets, carrying his hand the little trembling hand the army, studied electrical enginmust. No one will be one bit the wiser. He bent his handsome, fair head eager. I have the jauntiest and the sweetest cost ly toward her, but he could not hear the

the fairy bride. Come, now, what do you her lips. ly yet lown in her heart there was a passion to the Highland House; and the Hi being so near Percy—herself unseen—a joy love scene that was enacted under the recent Divorce Commission. so keen that it was almost pain. "You glimmering light of the golden stars rose | Earl Russell has declared himself and leave soaking for some hours. seniority.

Grace reckless, impulsive, warm-hearted To be so near her love, yet further apart in the world. We may yet be favor- preferring them. Grace it might have been better for her. from him than the cold, gleaming stars ed with the spectacle of Earl Rusgirl's two white hands in her own, "ro Gay's tortured heart could endure. future no matter what fate might tempt letter that had nearly cost her her young me to do-promise me, Grace, you of all life-forgot if they ever met again it was went on, "that drive one to the very verge | the love of her girlish heart.

In after years Grace Leighton remem- me? in the beautiful dark lustrous eyes raised It was not very hard, after all, to gain servatory, over the soft strains of the very midst of the folly maskers in the Gay's clear young voice rang out shrill ballroom every throb of the girl's heart and piteous as she flung herself down at him in the form of mud. urged her to accept what chance offered on her knees before the tall, handsome her one more opportunity of being near knight, crying out:

"I will go, Grace," she whispered tremu- me? "That's right," declared Grace, "After Granville's bosom seemed to stand still; it's over you will tell me it was the hap- he regained his composure with a bitter piest hour of your life. I'll go and bring sigh.

you the dress directly, for it is nearly | How mad he had been to imagine Gay's

Don't Miss

It's the "Best Ever" Send Post Card to-day for particulars.

74 St. Antoine St., Montreal, Can.

life, that was ever given. The grand parnificent dancing-hall beyond were ablaze mind for the time being. lors, the reception-rooms, and the magatlons had been going on since long be- with light from a score or more of electric fore daylight at Leighton Hall on this globes, and odorous with the perfume of memorable day, and it was a gala scene gorgeous banks of tropical plants and "My Dear Percy,"—it roses, that made the scene appear like a

And it was a quaint and novel eight that Gorgeous princesses, in their shimmer-The interior of the hall was quite as gypsy maidens that ever were seen lean-Great banks of roses, palms and max- ed partners, or whirling in the mazes of Gay had just entered the glittering ball-

The guests began to arrive early in the turned to look at Gay. and the old Hall were thronged with radiant in the white, glistening robes of takes you away from us so unexpectedly."

I am sorry such a sad circumstance dry materials, and mix quickly but takes you away from us so unexpectedly."

The stood a little apart from the rest. The stood a li Found men.

The window of Gay's room afforded an excellent view of the entrance gate, and a sparkling blood-red ruby star.

A white silk mask reached to the pretty as carriage after carriage dashed up the red mouth, white hid gloves extending to the red masked ball the red masked ball the red masked ball the red mouth, white hid gloves extending to the red mouth, white hid gloves extending to the red mouth, white hid gloves extending to the red mouth of baggage to the red masked ball the red masked ball the red masked ball the red masked ball the red mouth, white hid gloves extending to the red mouth. len eyes crouched behind the heavy, silken herself might have worn, they were so excurtains, peering breathlessly and eagerly quisitely trim and dainty, peeped coyly out from beneath the silvery silken skirts.

ed him with a wild sob of the keenest eyes from that slim girlish figure since lightning-like rapidity through her brain: lemon, raspberry, or strawberry the directions for lemon, raspberry, or strawberry the direction of lemon, raspberry, or strawberry the lemon, raspberry, or strawbe had but warned him whose eyes were For one brief instant the world seemed file her."

ing low before her. When Percy alighted he turned quickly | She knew it was Percy who was standpossibilities of love when he pressed upon One glance at the proud, triumphant her lips that thrilling kiss at the altarblonds face as it was turned toward her, the man whom she loved with all her soul, then poor Gay recied back from the win- at whose very name sne trembled, whom dow with the keenest throe of jealousy she idolized in her girlish heart, who had that ever rent a young girl's heart-she vowed so earnestly he would shield her forever from the cold, cruel world, who In the bitterness of that terrible mo- had sworn eternal constancy while the ess' words, "We were lovers before you who had sworn all this, then cast her off.

At that moment there was a hurried "Oh, Percy, Percy, my darling, I am not ap on the door.
"Is that you, Grace?" she asked, vainly Tremaine of my own free will. I was trying to keep back the sobs that shook | forced away-abducted. Listen to me, my love. Hear my pleadings-listen to my "What's the matter, Nell, have you been | The handsome plumed knight bowed den curls that clustered around Gaynell's to speak and placing her little gloved fushed face with her cool little plump hand on his arm, they were whirling away "only I am very unhappy, Grace, Percy wondered why the slender form in and I feel just just as if every one in his embrace trembled so how was he to know that it was because the band had

"Grace," she said, suddenly, catching the in the blue heavens, was more than pray for me, Grace. My feet are on the on her knees at his feet crying out:

CHAPTER XVII.

Oh, my love, my love! Don't you know For one brief instant the heart in Percy voice had spoken to him: Gay, his beau-

It was the gayest masked ball in high tiful young bride, whose lips he had kissed He turned to her courteously, quite beeving she had mistaken him for an-You are evidently in error," he said bowing low before her, and removing his mask with one hand; "we are strangers, you see."
Gay recoiled from him with a choking

"Strangers"-the word seemed shricked out shrilly on the perfumed air. It was written in letters of scorching fire upon her brain. The cruel words of the note he had penned recurred to her with stinging "If we meet again, let it be as strandestinies, never was uttered, for at that moment one of the servants of Leighton Hall entered the conservatory, glancing hastily around.

His face brightened as he saw Percy Granville standing unmasked under the drooping branches of the sloe-tree. "I was afraid I should have some diffi-culty in finding you, sir," he said. "A telegram has just arrived for you from Redstone Hall. And he put the envelope he held in Percy's outstretched hand. At that moment Evelyn St. Claire en-"I see you have found Mr. Granville," she said to the man, staring hard at the lovely young figure beside him as sae spoke. "I hope no one is ill at Red-Evelyn too had removed her mask and was standing before Percy, laying one white jeweled hand on his arm. This was more than the tortured hear of Little Gay could bear; she turned from them and fled like a flash through the gorgeous tropical blooms out of the conservatory. Percy was too astounded and bewildered by this sudden action to think of following her or attempting to account for it. Evelyn St. Claire turned to him with a yourself while you discover the contents

She might at least have permitted me to take her back to the ballroom," said Percy, anxiously and thoughtfully. spoke, and ran his blue eyes over the puddings, although heat-giving and message; as he read his face grew white, nourishing, are not good for young playthings, fasten them by a string and his eyes troubled. The contents of the telegram banished children, who find them difficult of had fled from him so strangely from his table butter or nut lard for suet, Hall, Passaic, and was from Dr. Gray, low, delightful puddings may be General Granville, has met with a fatal ishing them as well as pleasing lose their stiffness. accident-you must return home without delay if you would see him alive." last words slowly aloud.

away listening to mirth and music while he lies dying. himself that Evelyn had a tenderer heart than he had ever suspected.

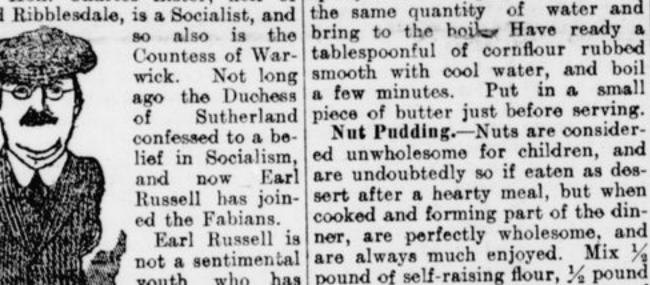

return home? I shall be so anxious to "I will write you all about it, Ione, af- water, thickened with cornflour, The corn will pop quickly and thorknow. the faintest suspicion possible of triumph and flavored. Or make the sauce ed him with a wild sob of the keenest eyes from that slim girlish figure since lightning-like rapidity through her brain;

With slow, deliberate steps he crossed with Percy—but I'll bafthe hall and gained her side.

The artiul mink, how quick she is to get up a flavor. Follow the directions for making the jelly, but use less water Ione flushed burning red under the flar- and serve it hot, or whisk it to a Then I will be indebted to you both for to a plain melted butter saves retorted maliciously, turning her black Ginger Pudding.-This is always eyes full upon Evelyn. reference to uncle's condition immediate- half a small jar of preserved ginly upon my return home, Miss Leighton," said Percy, sincerely grateful that ger, and free it from the syrup, letshe too took such an interest in his un- ting it drip till dry. Cut it into cle, and at that moment the thought dice and mix with it, stoned and drifted across his mind that some time he would write her, inquiring who the cleaned, 2 ounces of raisins. Beat the fairy queen at the masked ball. (To be continued.)

RED FLAG IN THE LORDS.

fete, though I know how awfully hard it must be to listen to the music and to be cooped up here when you are longing with all your heart to dance. "Don't grieve, I say," she went on breathlessly, "for I have planned just the folliest little lark for you that you could be love in the grieve in the peer business for out and put a good slice of butter about the King on the top, sprinkle lavishly with a breathlessly, "for I have planned at first to give with milk, put into a buttered ballove's young dream.

It was planned at first to give with milk, put into a buttered ballove's young dream.

While others were cruelly awakened from love's young dream.

They had reached the entrance of the grieve in the peer business for out and put a good slice of butter out and put a good slice of butter on the top, sprinkle lavishly with a brown sugar and serve with a brown sugar and I have the jauntiest and the sweetest cost tume for you imaginable. You are to be faintly articulated reply that fell from the form both of th served on the London County but this variety will be sure of a camera men, but Albert told them sary. Grace, I-I-don't know whether I little creature beside him-an attraction Council, and is credited with the reought to go or not, murmured Gay, maint -euch as he had felt toward Little Gay sponsibility for some of the most a buttered dish, add a quart of He went aboard the ship in the

"every one is so cold and cruel to me. I For once the cool, green, flower-embower- in favor of the nationalization of Then put into a slow oven, and think I should die if I were to lose your ed conservatory with its perfumed, mur- land, and this declaration has ex- bake very gently for three hours. muring fountains and fragrant bloseoms cited very great interest, in view of Serve with cream, or add a wellplied Grace, promptly. "I could do any- Percy found his companion a seat be the fact that he himself owns land beaten egg just before serving up. carnestly down into her eyes, then turned of course, could not be; he could not saway with quivering lips.

These puddings are all very number of the line of course, could not be; he could not see her face until the gilded clock in the see see her face until the gilded clock in the ballroom was on the stroke of twelve. one of the wealthiest land-owners stitutes for meat, most children death has vanished." sell vigorously supporting Mr. matter what you may hear of me in the She forgot the bitter words of the cruel Lloyd George in his forthcoming Spinach Soup.—Wash the spinach the world will believe in me you will to be as strangers. She only remembered the red flag in the House of Lords. cook it in as little water as would the world will be were see she was standing face to face at last with the has for long been regarded as keep it from burning, stirring it dark, pitiful secrets in many lives she the handsome young lover who had won the "bad boy" of the ducal family, constantly. Boil from 10 to 15 minone's woe. If you love me. And with a piteous cry Gay slipped down and some of his peers would dearly utes, according to its age. Drain "Oh, my love, my love, don't you know like to convert him to more ortho- it and rub it through a sieve and dox views or quietly suppress him. take five tablespoonfuls for the

It's the CLEANEST, SIMPLEST, and BEST HOME DYE, one can buy--Why you don't even have to know what KIND of Cloth your Goods are made

Just what you need after a boiler in the oven it takes less time hard day's work-A Refresh to become firm. ing cup of

LIPTON'S TEA

Goes farthest for the money

£2222222222222

Winter Puddings for Children.

Contrary to popular belief, suet all thoughts of the beautiful partner who digestion. By substituting vege-The message was dated at Redstone and following the recipes given be-"My Dear Percy,"-it ran-"Your uncle, placed before the little ones, nourtheir palates.

Percy's lipe grew white as he read the Feather Pudding.-Mix together Evelyn St. Claire gave a little hysteri- 6 ounces of flouf, 3 ounces of granucal sob as she wrung her white jeweled lated sugar, and 3 ounces of vege-"Let me accompany you back to Red- table butter or nut lard. Add a stone Hall, Percy." she implored; "I could teacupful of stoned and cut-up not dance the long hours of the evening prunes, dates or raisins; figs and currants, of course, must never be He pressed her hand gratefully, telling given to young children. Boil a flat pillow on your lap. The change breakfastcupful of milk, stir into it of position is very restful. Half an hour later their carriage stood half a teaspoonful of carbonate of of position is very restful. before the porch of Leighton Hall. Ione and Grace bade them good-bye with the most sincere regret.

A ball of string in the guest room is a convenience. Often when a rubbed smooth; pour this into the made of golden syrup boiled with

"I shall be very pleased to write you in a nursery favorite. Take about cleaned, 2 ounces of raisins. Beat by pound vegetable butter to a cream with the same quantity of castor sugar. Stir in 6 ounces of self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins, mix to a soft dough self-raising flour, add the ginger and raisins flour flower f little creature was who took the part of 1/4 pound vegetable butter to a and raisins, mix to a soft dough The House of Lords has under- with milk, put into a buttered bagone many shocks of late, and sin, allowing plenty of room to "His heart has gone back to her," rest her weary head just one minute on mounted Gay, rocking herself to and fro his breast, and feel his arms close tightly with piteous sobs. "I was mad to dream around her."

words cannot tell, to ne minute on nervous peers are anxiously inquiring "Where's it all going to end?"

For sauce, mix two or three table-> ago the Duchess a few minutes. Put in a small of Sutherland piece of butter just before serving. King George's Second Son Leaves on the farm of J. D. Crosbie, of least four children confessed to a be- Nut Pudding .- Nuts are considerlief in Socialism, ed unwholesome for children, and and now Earl are undoubtedly so if eaten as desyears since he and its juice, and mix very thor-ship will go to Gibraltar, Malta ring on one of its legs. grandfather, the oughly. Make into a stiff dough and the Mediterranean.

Two Spinach Dishes. soup. Slice one large onion; boil it in boiling salted water; drain it Even the man who wants the and fry in one heaping tablespoon-It was not very hard, after any dance music that floated out to them, earth doesn't care to have it thrown ful of butter to a light brown. Boil one quart of milk with one dozen whole white peppers and add the onion. Simmer it gently for half an hour, strain out the onion and whole peppers and add the prepared spinach. Mix all smoothly and boil up, thickening it, if necessary, with butter and flour worked together. Serve with croutons of fried bread. Spinach Pudding .- Three or four rolls are soaked in water or milk, and when soft pressed and rubbed through a sieve; then add one chopped and browned onion, four heaping tablespoonfuls of cooked spinach, four yolks of eggs, seasoning of salt and grated nutmeg. When everything has been well mixed the stiffly beaten whites are folded in. Butter a mold, sprinkle with fine breadcrumbs, fill with the mixture, Gay sprung to her feet, her lovely face

Send for Free Color Card, Story Booklet, and Cover with a buttered paper and Cover with a buttered paper and steam for two hours. When cooked mold and served with butter sauce. If the pudding is cooked in a double Useful Hints.

Clothes will not freeze fast to the line if a cloth is dipped in salt water and rubbed over the line when the clothes are ready to hang

If there is too much blurring in the rinsing water, all bad effects can be avoided by adding three or four tablespoonfuls of household

Croquettes, when fried in deep fat, should stand in a warm place for half an hour before frying; this will make them brown more quick-

To wind a curtain, remove i from the brackets, wind it up by hand and then put it into the brackets and pull it out full length. Repeat if necessary. If the baby is too little to hold tion that they will not get out of Towels should not be put in the guest-room when they are brand new. Use them until they have been laundered several times and

When using oil for frying the oily taste can be taken away by making the oil very hot, and then fry a piece of onion in it. When brown, take it out.

After sitting for a while embroidering, the eyes and back are apt to become tired. Try putting a

Corn can be very successfully two tablespoons of lard in the pan securely and shake it about on top of the range over a very hot fire. J.P.

peeling. You will find the thick burn. rind will cook as tender as any part | The death is announced at Dunbe much improved.

When the vinegar cruet has be- years. a teaspoonful of lye in it; let this measles 16 children died in Balli- which emanates from the French remain for a few days, then wash nasloe during the first week in De- Ministry of Marine. It runs thus: out. It will be perfectly clean. cember. with linoleum should have rag rugs ton of hay, the property of Jas. legacy destined to promote mar-

Lettuce can be kept very fresh if erate show of cattle and trade was tain of the squadron of vessels now it is thoroughly washed, then all rather dull. the water should be shaken from A bull was roasted alive in an candidates for the legacy must send the leaves and it should be put in a out-house of Mr. Birkwyse, Glen- a statement of their qualifications tin pail with very tight cover, then gormley, Belfast.

PRINCE ALBERT A SAILOR.

on Six Months' Voyage. Prince Albert, the second son of Russell has join- sert after a hearty meal, but when King George, sailed from Devoned the Fabians. | cooked and forming part of the din- port recently aboard the training guilty of murdering his wife and Earl Russell is ner, are perfectly wholesome, and ship Cumberland on a six months' was sentenced to death. not a sentimental are always much enjoyed. Mix 1/2 voyage. He will go first to Teneryouth who has pound of self-raising flour, 1/2 pound iffe, Canary Islands, and then to Island, Waterford, the seat of Mr. been seized with of breadcrumbs, and 4 ounces of the West Indies. He will arrive in a sudden fad for ground Brazil nuts together, Bra- Porto Rico on March 18, in Jamaica offered for sale. Socialism. He is zil nuts are so rich in fat as to on March 22, at Havana on April 3, now 47 years of make a good substitute for suet. and at Hamilton, Bermuda, on Apage. It was 34 Add the grated rind of an orange, ril 10. From the latter place the

as I have," says Sir George Bird- the residents of the Claddagh.

THE newest thing in sugar -and the best-is this 5-Pound Sealed Package of Extra Granulated. In this carton 5 pounds full weight of Canada's finest sugar comes to you fresh from the Refinery, and absolutely free from any taint or impurity. Ask your Grocer for the 5-Pound Package.

CANADA SUGAR REFINING COMPANY, LIMITED, MONTREAL

LAND'S SHORES.

string. A bunch of baggage tags Happenings in the Emerald Isle of demand for fowl in the County of Interest to Irish-

A destructive fire broke out at with the popcorn. Put a cover on Seafield House, Monkstown, the from it and the wheels of the cart residence of Mr. J. E. McCormick, passed over him, killing him in-Considerable damage was done

When turnips are young, wash by a fire which occurred in the La-of the vegetable and the flavor will shaughlin Workhouse in county Meath, of Michael Smith, aged 116 come clouded, clean it by putting As a result of an epidemic of task as that set out in a circular

Traumere, Osborne Park. was done by a fire that broke out Epiphany and undertake to have at Ballyheigue Castle. At Leinster Assizes in Dublin, The famous old Irish castle, The

G. P. Fitzgerald, is shortly to be William Bert, a farmer, living near Ballyconnell, county Cavan, shot a black bird which had a gold

Mr. M. F. Keogh, secretary of the folliest little lark for you that you could ever imagine. I'm going to smuggle you to his heart—closer than the courtesy of lot the great house of Policies. The going to smuggle you to his heart—closer than the courtesy of lot the great house of Policiest.

The local Government Board Wellesley. have written to the New Ross Dis-

Bishop O'Dea of Galway, opened | deal a handsome new hall, which has "When one comes to live as long been erected at a cost of $5,000 for

FROM ERIN'S GREEN ISLE shot piercing his clothes, but he was not hurt.

Munster Assizes sentenced to 5 years' penal servitude for the manslaughter of Michael Doolaghty, on the Creagh estate. Owing to the shortage of meat, caused by the cattle restriction, the Tipperary fowl markets has greatly increased. A. J. Slush, farmer, was building a load of hay at Torlugan, near Aughnacloy, when he was thrown

TASK FOR NAVAL OFFICERS. Must Choose Husband for an Orphan Girl of Toulon. Naval officers are not often called upon to perform such a delicate

M. Ruyter Warfusse has be-Every kitchen that is covered Between twenty-five and thirty queathed to the town of Toulon a anchored at Toulon. Would-be accompanied by documentary evi-

ing to the terms of the will, be mar-Damage to the extent of $4,000 ried on the forthcoming feast of the

Patrick Jordan, 73, was found TWO KING'S LETTERS FOUND

Curious Discovery at Town House of Dukes of Wellington. It is said that a most curious discovery has been made at Apsley House, Hyde Park Corner, London, the town house of the Dukes of Wellington. In the cellars there has been found all the private and State correspondence of George III. and George IV. These documents, cov-ments the Iron Duke's name was never Wellesley. The family name was Colley, and his grandfather was adopted by an Irishman named

It's awfully hard to convince a man that he is getting a square Grandmother - "Whatever are you doin' with the boy ?" Grandwood, who has just celebrated his Mr. John Shiel, J.P., Kilbegnet father-"He's gone and took his Father Time-"Black Knight assures a bright New Year to all users".

It's a pasteeasilyapplied-and gives a brilliant, black polish that is not affected by the 10c.—STOVE POLISH—10c.

Ask your dealer for "Black Knight" and see for yourself how easy it is for stoves, grates and ironwork. 45

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

The JOHNSON-RICHARDSON CO., Limited, Montreal, Canada.