Address and Presentation

On Thursday evening, Jan. 23rd, about 32 of Crawford friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald and presented Mrs. McDonald with a purse. Mr. W. Cook read the address, while Miss M. E. Fischer presented the purse. After the presentation Mrs. McDonald made a very suitable and lengthy reply, in which she thanked the kind friends for their gift, also that both she and Mr. McDonald welcomed their friends into their new home, after which followed short addresses by Mr. Wade, Vancouver, B. C. and Mr. W. Cooke, Crawford.

The evening was then spent in games and music. After lunch was served and singing of "God be with you till we meet again," all went home feeling they had spent a very enjoyable evening with their host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald and wished them many happy years in their new home.

To Mrs. A. McDonald, Crawford.

Dear Mrs. McDonald, We, the members of the Crawford Presbyterian church, have met and are with you on a most pleasant occasion, and at this time wish to express in some tangible form, the esteem in which you are held by us and our appreciation of your labors for the welfare of our congregation in the past, both as an organist and a teacher in our Sunday School, and in everything that was for the good of the congregation.

It is with feelings of pleasure that we realize that we are not going to lose your service and influence in our congregation.

We are glad to know that you and your esteemed partner are going to live in our midst.

Recalling the years of service and faithfulness of both of you in the past, we respectfully ask you to accept this purse as a token of our regard and accompanying it are our earnest wishes that you may be spared many years to continue the good work.

In behalf of congregation:

William T. Cooke,
James Hobkirk,
M. E. Fischer.

WHAT TO EAT.

Unusual Ways of Serving Celery and Winter Apples.

Among the appetizing relishes so much used is stuffed celery. As a change from celery stuffed with cheese, try the following: Select four tender stalks of celery of the same length and cut in halves; stuff with a mixture of equal parts of chopped raisins, dates and figs. Arrange them in star shapes on a round plate and garnish with celery tips.

A dainty luncheon or supper dessert, says Good Housekeeping, is apple cup. Here is the recipe:

Select medium sized firm apples; scoop out the centers from the stem end, leaving about one-fourth of the core at the blossom end. Cook in a sirup made with equal parts sugar and water until the apples may be pierced with a fork; they are not in danger of breaking. Remove to the serving dish and fill each apple with a mixture of chopped raisins, dates and figs. Pour a little of the sirup over them and garnish with whipped cream. If desired uncooked apples may be used, in which case the skin should be left on. Red apples are the most attractive.

COLONIAL RUGS.

The Hand Woven Sort Are Again in Favor.

The hand woven rug or the colonial squares have come back to favor in the general return to the colonial styles of interior decoration that have swept over our homes. There are many forms of hand woven rugs, the braided form being the easiest. A single braid of three strands is made of strips of cotton materials of many colors, sewed in long strands and collected in large balls before the braiding is begun.

The plaited rug can be in a round form or a long oval rug. Some women are emphasizing one color, and therefore the long strips are dyed by any of the directions that come with reliable dyes on the market.

A hooked rug may be made of pieces of linen, silk, gingham, etc., and a piece of burlap or bagging. The small pieces are pulled up through the weave of the burlap by means of a rug hook. The strands are drawn tightly on the under surface, and when finished the wrong side resembles a series of plain stitches. On the upper side there are loops one inch deep. The whole material is filled in with loops in single patterns. Squares, circles, borders, etc., are marked off and then filled in. When finished these loops should be cut about a quarter of an inch off the top. The result will be a soft, solid pile.

Telling of the progress made in combating the terrible 20th century plague—Consumption.

Notwithstanding the enormous increase in population in Canada in the past few years, it is more than gratifying to be able to record that the fight which the National Sanitarium Association are putting up against the "white plague"—consumption—is proving a winning one.

Prior to 1896 deaths from Consumption were on the increase every year. In 1910, despite the greater number of citizens, the figures in Ontario alone showed a decrease of 118 over those of ten years ago. Isn't this splendid testimony to the noble work going on?

Maybe you haven't a father, mother, sister or dear friend of your own afflicted, but wouldn't it feel good to help some poor soul in the throes of the dread disease to get back into the wage-earning class—to return cured to wife and loved ones?

Our proud boast is that no needy Consumption has ever been refused admittance to our Free Institutions at Weston and Muskoka because of poverty. But the good work cannot expand without your kindly sympathy and material help.

The need is urgent. If you are blessed with that greatest of all blessings, good health, think of your needy suffering brother and sister.

Send along your mite, however humble, to Mr. W. J. GAGE, Chairman of the Executive Committee; or to Mr. R. DEXBURN, Sec. Treas., 347 King West, Toronto.
Every penny you send goes to help.
