The Lime Light Exhibition advertised to come off on Saturday evening in Durham Town Hall promises to be of unusual excellence. It is under the auspices of L. O. L., No. 632. Mr. Jas. Stubbs, of Peterboro, has been engaged for the evening and an excellent program is planned. Amongst the views are a series representing the great Passion Play at Onnemaugau.

The sale at Levine's store, Durham, will continue for 10 days more as there are plenty of bargains left yet in men's and boys' suits and overcoats. A full line of dress goods, Ladies' coats, waists and suits which have got to go at big reduction, prices and your chances are good to save a big margin by buying from Levine's bargain store, Durham.

Next Sabbath, March 16, Union Services of the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations will be held, owing to Dr. Farquharson's prolonged illness. Rev. Mr. Prudham will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit in the morning and his own in the evening. There will be no morning service in the Methodist, nor evening service in the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Chris. Firth last week was unfortunate enough to get more brokenbones. She had not quite recovered from the effects of her fall from a stairway, but with the aid of crutches was gaining strength. Rising from a chair, it in some way tipped and she fell heavily on her left wrist, breaking some of the bones in that member. Even this new accident has not dashed her spirit and her many friends hope for a complete and speedy recovery.

A Prospective Industry.

Last Friday a gentleman from Guelph, at present running there on a small scale a factory for the manufacture of metallic window stripping, was in town. The Mayor and Councillor Lenahan got busy and hurriedly called a meeting of as many business men as they could reach to listen to the proposition of Messrs Jacob and Furber.

These two are in partnership and are anxious to expand their operations by making a number of new and standard articles such as wash stands, kitchen sinks, cabinets, &c. They have no capital to put into the business, only some machinery and stock. They desire the formation of a joint stock company to place $4000 or $5000 banking strength behind them, and they will give their skill and best endeavors to work up a profitable business, one as technical manager, the other as traveller and their services to be required by the company at $1500 a year each.

They propose to employ 10 or 12 men at first. The proposition is not gilt-edged, but the impromptu meeting turned the matter over to the Industrial Committee of the town and we may or may not hear more of it.

Attend the "Murphy" Social in the basement of the Presbyterian church on Monday, 17th March.

Rexall Wine of Cod-Liver Oil will build you up, after an attack of La Grippe. $1 a bottle at Macfarlanes.

Another Horse Fair is billed for Thursday of next week, 20th inst. May or Black has assurances of buyers being present.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Arnett (nee Eva Booth) Deloraine, Man., will learn with sorrow of the death of their youngest child on Sunday, Mar. 2nd.

The Sacrament will be dispensed in St. Columba Church, Priceville, on Sabbath, 16th inst at 11 a. m., and at Swinton Park at 3 p. m. Preparatory service Swinton Park, Thursday, 13th inst at 3 p. m., Priceville, Friday 14th inst. at 3 p. m.

St. Patrick's cards and Pennants at the Central Drug Store.

L. O. L., No. 632 will give a limelight exhibition in the Toxa Hall, Durham on Saturday evening, March 15. Mr. James Stubbs of Peterboro, has been engaged for the occasion and an excellent program will be furnished. See bills. Admission 25 and 10c.

Much property is changing hands this spring. Amongst the latest we have heard of is that Mr. Walter McDonald has bought the Ford farm in Glenelg, while Mr. Ford has bought Mr. Chas. Arnett's farm. There will come a day when Ontario farms will be at a premium.

HOUSE PRICES.—Recent issues of papers dealing with house markets have articles making it clear that a period of depression exists at present preventing buyers from giving prices that prevailed six months ago. Besides the West is now largely supplying its own markets from Ontario mares shipped there in past years.

BEST ORATOR IN VARSITY.—In the recent oratory contest held in Toronto University, Mr. Wm. McL. Clark, Port Elgin, brother of Miss Margaret Clark, formerly teacher at Mulock, and nephew of Inspector Campbell, came out with flying colors. The judges awarded him first place and the gold medal, taking into consideration the matter, its arrangement and the delivery of his discourse. The subject of Mr. Clark's prize-winning oration was "Has India benefited under British Rule?"

Address and Presentation

Mr and Mrs Allan Boyd.

A houseful of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. Gillan Boyd, Glenroaden, on Monday evening to give a piece of their mind and other things to Mr and Mrs Allan Boyd, who are leaving for the West in a few days. The assembling came as a surprise to the parties, but a very pleasant evening was spent, the address below being read at an appropriate time and a presentation made of a handsome purse having in it a sum of over $20.00. Mr Boyd on behalf of himself and wife made an appropriate reply and several pleasant hours were spent in neighborly chat, music, &c., before the final good-byes were spoken.

Following is the address.

Dear Mr and Mrs Boyd,—

We, your assembled friends and neighbors, in this the eye of your departure from our midst, take this opportunity of spending a social evening together, and of wishing you God speed in your new sphere of life in Western Canada.

The occasion that calls us together to-night is one to which there are many parallels in life, for time and again we are called upon to say farewell to friends and fellow-workers. These changes and partings cannot but give rise to feelings of melancholy and thoughts akin to sadness, yet our feelings are modified by the fact that, owing to your industry and progressiveness, a bountiful prospect is awaiting you 'mid your new environment. To leave the haunts of our nativity and all the dear associations of youth, to make a home for ourselves 'mid new conditions and strangers, is no easy task, but it is often necessary to do so in order to accomplish our ideals in life. The true spirit of neighborliness and hospitality which has always characterized you, will make your removal a keen loss to the social life of the community, and, to assure you in more than mere words that our feelings are truly genuine, we ask you to accept this memento of the occasion, not on account of its intrinsic value, but as a slight token of esteem in which you are held by your large circle of friends. And as you leave for your new home there will accompany you the sincerest wishes of us all for health, happiness and prosperity and may the old, familiar faces and sweet memories of Glenelg find a place in Memory's Eye, when to the session of sweet, silent thought, you summon up remembrance of things past.

Signed on behalf of neighbors and friends.

Obituary

MRS ISAAC KUNSENHAUSER.

Startlingly sudden did the call come to the above lady on Wednesday, 8th March, 1913. She was moving about the room in presence of her daughter, Mrs. Bailey, Mulock, with whom she has resided for the past three years, when the latter heard a peculiar sound and turned in time to save her mother from falling. Simple restoratives were applied but death was instant. Aneurysm, and there was no long agony for the loved ones to witness, the heart had failed and her journey was over.

Deceased was born in Baden, Waterloo Co. 77 years ago on 20th Feb. last and subsequently resided, with her husband, (who died in July, 1910) in Carrick, Brant and Bentinck. To them were born 3 sons and 3 daughters, all of whom survive: Levi in Hespeler; Lizzie, Mrs. John McKelvie, Brant Tp.; John and Isaac in Hanover; Lucinda, Mrs. Wm. Reid, Leithbridge, Alta.; Hannah, Mrs. Wm. Bailey, Mulock.

About 13 years ago advancing years caused the aged couple to move to Hanover where they spent 10 years, and for three years past the deceased has been kindly ministered to by her daughter, Mrs. Bailey.

Besides the immediate mourners, one brother of deceased survives, Mr. Enos Hunsberger, of Baden, he being the last member of a large family. The last named attended the funeral as did a brother-in-law, Amos Snyder of Baden and daughter Hannah and Mr and Mrs Jos. Schartz, of Hayesville.

The funeral took place on Saturday last to Hanover cemetery amid many tokens of sympathy and respect. Services at the home were conducted by Rev. Mr. McDonald, of Mulock, and at the grave by deceased's pastor, the German Methodist minister.

Mr and Mrs Bailey desire to thank friends and neighbors for kindly sympathy and assistance in their hour of sorrow.

Hampden

Misses Bella and Hattie Byers are visiting friends in Ayr and Welland at present.

Mr and Mrs A. McLean spent an evening recently with Mr and Mrs M. W. Byers.

Mr W. Mather, of Priceville spent Sunday at Mr A. Park's.

Mr and Mrs Henry Byers entertained a few young people one evening recently.

We are pleased to report Mr Albert Mearns able to be around again after his illness.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mr and Mrs L. Marshall gave a party to the old and young of Hampden. Mr and Mrs Marshall and family are moving to the West and before leaving, their many friends and neighbors, on occasion to show their regret at their departure. An address was read by Mrs M. W. Byers and Mr and Mrs Marshall were presented with a suit case, Miss George a brooch and Mr George a pipe. Mr Marshall replied, thanking the people for these tokens of remembrance and for their kind wishes. They will be much missed in the neighborhood.

Women's Institute At-Home.

Thursday last the above body of energetic ladies held their annual At-Home, this year in the town hall, and notwithstanding the blustery weather and filled in roads, a fair representation of country and town members and friends were present.

Mr Irwin was an efficient chairman and had an interesting program to call off. The meeting opened with "The Maple Leaf Forever," followed by Mr Irwin, who compared the present state of advancement to that of twenty five to thirty years and thought though in some things the olden times still had the lead, as in the matter of bread, which to his idea had a sweeter flavor than that now. He suggested that the Institute branch out further by going out among the needy and aim to show them approved methods of how to cook and sew. Mrs Stonehouse contributed in fine effect two numbers "My Ain Folk" and "Mary of Argyll," a solo, "Three for Jack" by Mr P. Ramage; a well given recitation by Miss Flor. Barclay and two brilliant piano solos by Miss Rita Irwin, helped to make an attractive program. Rev. Mr Prudham, of the Methodist church, was present and gave some timely thoughts on character and how to achieve to have it. A trio composed of Misses Lee and Morrison and Mrs Geo. Lawrence on violin, piano and autoharp respectively, provided sweet music. A humorous recitation by Ernest McGirr and a pretty piano duet by Misses Leah and Gerlie McComb finished the program proper.

At an appropriate time Mrs T. McGirr was called upon to read an address to one of her members, Mrs D. McCrie, before her departure for the West. The address below explains it self and their remembrance, a gold brooch with ruby inset, was presented by Mrs Thos. McComb.

As the chairman stated, the real program was to follow, in the nature of a good and tasty luncheon, which needless to say was done full justice to by all, this enjoyable evening was closed by singing the National Anthem. Following is the address:

To Mrs DAVID MCCRIE:

We, your friends and neighbors and members of Durham Women's Institute, take this opportunity of expressing to you our gratitude and esteem and to show our appreciation of you and your work in connection with our Institute. It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we think of your departure and that of your family for the far West. You have been a faithful and diligent worker and attendee at our meetings and for several years our efficient president, always willing to help and work for its advancement, often at the sacrifice of private interests and we must give you due credit for the success it has attained.

In your new home we wish you success and prosperity and perhaps you will have the privilege of continuing the good work of organizing and being a charter member of a new Institute among new friends in Sask.

As a tangible reminder of these sentiments and of the happy hours we spent together in our society, we ask you to accept this brooch and be assured that the hearty good wishes of your old friends of the Durham Women's Institute for success, health and happiness to you and yours, will follow you to your new home.

Signed on behalf of Durham Women's Institute:
Mrs McGirr, Mrs Ramage.
