

Vigorous Health Restored to Run-Down Woman

Seemed to Have Lost All Ambition, Was Pale and Anæmic.

Made Wonderful Recovery When Dr. Hamilton's Pills Were Used.

"I was never actually sick," writes Mrs. Norman La Pierre, wife of a well-known resident of Laboune, "yet I never could get strong like other women. I ate well enough, but somehow rich and red blood I could never make. When I married I took a great pride in my housekeeping, but it kept me tired all the time. Mrs. Lechance, my neighbor, looked well—she told me her health had been made up by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I only thought of pills as a physic, but now I know that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are more, for they quickened my stomach, liver and bowels—made me stouter and stronger, gave me such color in my cheeks as I never had before. I sincerely believe Dr. Hamilton's Pills should be used by every woman—that's why I write this letter."

No medicine invigorates and renews health and spirits like Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box, five for $1.00, at all druggists and storekeepers, or postpaid from the Cattaraugus Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

FOR GERMAN WAGE-EARNERS. Government Labor Bureaus Protect Their Homes.

The German state or municipality takes a vital interest in and even assumes responsibility for the man out of work. It does this not in the spirit of charity or philanthropy, but in self preservation. Every broken home is a rift in the state which spells ultimate peril. Every industrial municipality in Germany of any magnitude has a municipal labor exchange. Nationally they are combined into a "Union of German Labor Exchanges." There are nearly 300. This practically abolishes the private labor agencies.

With capable men at the head of these exchanges and in command of their various departments, the labor market of the country is studied with mathematical exactness. The man who has worked for years in a certain industry and is suddenly thrown out of work naturally has an outlook limited to the industry he was employed in. The trained heads of the municipal labor exchange in his city, however, know exactly the national market of allowing the man to drift for months until he has found work and his home broken up in the meantime, the municipal labor exchange comes to his assistance and finds work for him in the shortest time possible.

The agricultural market is studied as much as the industrial market, and no man is allowed to remain idle in the city while there is work for him in the country. Where a man has to go a distance from his home in search of a job reduced transportation is frequently given him.

Unemployment caused by the sudden depression in industry is dealt with by state or municipal authorities. The municipality or state keeps the necessary public works for just such seasons. Employment on these public works is limited to residents and married men.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited, Gentlemen, Theodore Dorais, a customer of mine, was completely cured of rheumatism after five years of suffering, by the judicious use of MINARD'S LINIMENT. The above facts can be verified by writing to him, to the Parish Priest or any of his neighbors. A. COFFE, Merchant, St. Isidore, Que., 12 May, '36.

Truth by Accident.

The best definition of a demagogue will always remain with that little girl of seven, who said: "A demagogue is a vessel containing beer and other liquids."

"NA-DRU-GO DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

Proved of Great Value to Me"

There is only one explanation for the numbers of enthusiastic letters that we receive praising Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and that is that these tablets certainly do cure any kind of stomach trouble.

Here is a typical letter from Miss Eliza Armstrong, Canino, N.S.: "It is with pleasure I write to inform you that your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets have proved of great value to me. I tried remedy after remedy but without any lasting good. Having heard of your tablets curing such cases as mine I decided to give them a fair trial. They proved satisfactory in my case."

The remarkable success of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is such a success as can only come to an honest remedy, compounded according to an exceptionally good formula, from pure ingredients, by expert chemists. If you are troubled with your stomach just ask your Druggist about Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, and sold throughout the Dominion at 50c. a box.

WOMAN THE TOILER.

In Japan the Male Workers Are Outnumbered 2 to 1.

Japan's inner life contains quite as many problems as that of any other country. One of the most serious is the relation of capital and labor, and herein woman takes an important part.

"In no other country in the world," says J. D. Whelpley in the Century Magazine, "does a larger percentage of women participate in wage earning. In the United States for every eighty-six male wage earners there are fourteen female. In Great Britain it is seventy-five, in Germany eighty to twenty, in Italy seventy-eight to twenty-two, while in Japan there are nearly twice as many women as men on the pay-rolls of the country."

It is the testimony of all large employers that the women are the industrial backbone of the country. The employment of women and children is the secret of the competitive power of the Japanese textile and other light handicraft industries, and it is for this reason that the possible operation of a law enforcing sanitary provisions, and even the common decencies of humanity, in factory life is viewed with alarm by the manufacturers in their necessarily strenuous competition for foreign trade.

"The new law limits hours of employment, forbids the use of children under certain ages and the employment of women at night and in dangerous occupations. It can be understood, therefore, whence comes the delay in even promulgating a law which takes effect fifteen years after its promulgation. The moneyed classes and the 'interests' necessarily control a legislative body like the Japanese Diet, many members of which are elected by a most amazing and open system of corruption and vote buying, a system which puts to shame in its entirety the worst days of ward politics in any gang-ridden city in the United States."

CLEAR HEADED.

Head Bookkeeper Must be Reliable.

The chief bookkeeper in a large business house in one of our great Western cities speaks of the harm coffee did for him. (Tea is just as injurious because it contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.)

"My wife and I drank our first cup of Postum a little over two years ago and we have used it ever since, to the entire exclusion of tea and coffee. It happened in this way:

"About three and a half years ago I had an attack of pneumonia, which left a memento in the shape of dyspepsia, or—rather, to speak more correctly, neuralgia of the stomach. My 'cup of cheer' had always been coffee or tea, but I became convinced, after a time, that they aggravated my stomach trouble. I happened to mention the matter to my grocer one day and he suggested that I give Postum a trial.

"Next day it came, but the cook made the mistake of not boiling it sufficiently, and we did not like it much. This was, however, soon remedied, and now we like it so much that we will never change back. Postum, being a food beverage instead of a drug, has been the means of banishing my stomach trouble. I verily believe, for I am well man to-day and have used no medicine."

"My work as chief bookkeeper in our Co.'s branch house here is of a very confining nature. During my coffee-drinking days I was subject to nervousness and the blues. These have left me since I began using Postum, and I can conscientiously recommend it to those whose work confines them to long hours of severe mental exertion."

Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. "There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. Always read the above letter! A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Many a man who is sure he is right hasn't energy enough to go ahead.

GARLIC FOR TUBERCULOSIS.

Why Pungent Vegetable Is So Beneficial.

Dr. Minchin of Dublin has discovered that garlic is of great value in treating the dreaded "white plague."

He declares that garlic is not only of value after other treatments have failed, but that it is highly efficacious in all cases where the feet, hands and joints have been affected, and that amputation has, in a number of cases, been avoided by the simple use of garlic. It is also recommended that the patient eat garlic, raw, at least once a day.

As is perhaps natural, the medical profession has questioned Dr. Minchin's discovery, but further investigations seem to fully confirm his findings. The scientific name for the active principle of garlic is allyl sulphide, which is a powerful germicide. For this reason, people who are in the custom of eating garlic are far less subject to any form of tuberculosis than those who refrain from the odorous vegetable. The "garlic treatment" is not designed to supplant the outdoor treatment for the two complement each other. Garlic is the specific for the disease and living out of doors is the treatment.—London Lancet.

HER SYMPATHY MAKES HER SPEAK

DAME MAYER TELLS HOW SHE FOUND A CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Suffered for Three Years From Rheumatism, Headache, Palpitation and Bright's Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Kidneys and Made Her Well.

Rheberdeau, Argenteuil Co., Que., March 3 (Special).—"I am always glad to tell of my cure, because I sympathize with others who may be suffering as I did." So says Dame Joseph Mayer, well known and highly respected here. "For three years I was a very sick woman. Rheumatism, headache, palpitation of the heart and Bright's disease were my successive troubles, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them all. I used twenty-four boxes to complete my cure, but they certainly made me well."

"I will never be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house." Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Dame Mayer's ills because they are all caused by diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys, and with cured kidneys straining the seeds of disease out of the blood, the rheumatism, Bright's disease, headache and palpitation of the heart are bound to disappear. You never heard of a case of kidney disease that Dodd's Kidney Pills would not cure.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S PETS.

Her Majesty Possesses a Burial Ground for Her Animals.

In her garden at Marlborough House there is touching evidence of Queen Alexandra's love for dumb animals.

At Sandringham one used to find such evidence in the large variety of dogs that visitors were permitted to see, and in the unusual thoughtfulness displayed in the treatment of the horses and ponies, especially those exclusively used by her Majesty and her daughter.

But the Marlborough House garden contains a more direct illustration of this trait in Queen Alexandra's character, for it possesses a burial ground of some of her four-legged favorites. It may be that of visitors to the mansion have not in every case seen the little cemetery, which is not visible from any of the entrances or windows.

To find it one follows a curving walk half way round the garden, and there under tall trees, on neatly cut and carefully watered turf, one discovers four tiny gravestones. The scene is so fresh and fair that at first the presence of a burial ground is difficult to realize, but the inscriptions on the stones, and the care with which moss is prevented from growing in the clearly carved letters, prove that it is not only a cemetery, but one on which affection is still bestowed.

Five pets of Queen Alexandra lie beneath. What they were and when they died is told with precision in every case, but the one which possesses the largest stone (the height being about eighteen inches) bears a most striking inscription with the heading "Poor Little Boxer." The stone bears no date, nor does it name the soldier, as he evidently was, whom Boxer accompanied to war, but the truth is that the master was the Duke of Connaught, who took his four-footed friend through the Egyptian campaign of thirty years ago, and afterward gave Queen to the Princess of Wales, Alexandra.

As to the other stones, the most recent is exceptional inasmuch as it records the death not of a dog, but of a rabbit, these being the words cut on it: "Bonny, the favorite rabbit of H.R.H. the Princess of Wales, died June 8, 1881." When this grave was made twelve years had passed since the royal mistress of Marlborough House had been moved to do honor to a dumb pet. Then the epitaph was "Tiny, the favorite dog of H.R.H. the Princess of Wales, died March 16, 1880, aged eighteen months."

PIMPLES BROKE OUT AROUND CHIN

Burst and Formed Ugly Scabs, Burning, then Itching, Had to Go Without Shaving for Weeks, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Skin Perfectly Clear.

151 Close St., Toronto, Ont.—"I was troubled with facial eczema for nearly ten years. The first signs were pimples breaking out and then burning and forming nasty scabs around my chin. Very often the sensation was that of burning, then itching so that I scratched the sore. I had to go without shaving for weeks at a time. I used many patent remedies but did not find a permanent cure. Every spring and fall the disease appeared at its worst. I sometimes got rid of it for a few months, then it returned as bad as ever."

"About six months ago I received a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and found great relief after a few applications. I purchased two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and some Cuticura Soap and used them as directed and now my skin is perfectly clear. I can shave with pleasure." (Signed) Wm. MacBean, May 27, 1912.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczema and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, many scales, dandruff, dry, itchy, and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped nails, nor do it so economically. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post card Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 433, Boston, U. S. A.

STREET NOISES IN PEKIN.

Street Vendors Raise Bedlam of Sound.

An analysis of the street noises of Pekin has been made by the correspondent of an American newspaper and ought to be useful when the anti-noise crusade reaches the Orient.

The great cause of confusion here is the various street vendors, each of whom is armed with a noise-producing instrument by which he advertises his trade. The barber has two prongs of steel through which he draws a spike and thus makes a loud whir. The seller of sweetmeats holds in his right hand two brass cups which he jangles together. The buyer of old clothes taps a small drum with a bit of bamboo, getting by this combination a plunk, plunk, that attracts trade. The man who has tricks baskets to sell beats half a gourd with a drumstick, the clothes seller swings a drum which has two bits of metal attached to it by strings, the toy dealer strikes a brass gong of a peculiarly penetrating tone, the knife grinder claps three blocks of iron together, and the seller of charcoal announces his coming by a repeated tap, tap on a block of wood.

The watchman introduces a little variety. He is armed with a wooden drum, which he taps in different measure to mark the different hours of the night.

Ease That Sore Joint Nerviline Will Do It

The Champion Clog and Pedestal Dancer of Canada Tells How to Keep in Trim.

Few men in his profession are better known than Mr. Thomas Hogan, of 27 Fortification Lane, Montreal, who writes: "To limber up a stiff joint, to remove every sense of soreness from tired muscles I can tell you nothing compares with Nerviline. It is really a wonderful liniment, and I use it continually, simply because it keeps the muscles and joints supple and entirely free from pain and stiffness. I earnestly recommend Nerviline to every person that requires to use a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment."

For Rheumatism Nerviline is a wonder; for Sciatica it cures where others fail; for Lumbago, stiffness and cold, nothing surpasses it. Keep Nerviline handy—it's good to take inwardly, does internal pains quickly, and is just as good for outward application. Large family size, 50c.; small size, 25c. MAN-MADE SPONGES.

Substance Obtained From Paper Treated with Zinc Chloride.

When paper pulp is treated with zinc chloride there results a viscous mass. Sodium chloride (or ordinary table salt) is added to this. The mass is then thoroughly rinsed with alcohol, and is finally submitted to the action of a press which produces a flat form with a number of fine metallic points or projections. These penetrate the mass, forming tubes like those in an ordinary marine sponge known as "canalicules."

The block thus obtained is of a spongy consistency and is both insoluble and unalterable in water. It is smooth and pleasant to the touch, and is not susceptible of putrefaction. It is a very ingenious employment of the cellulose to which we owe so much.

ALFONSO'S HEALTH.

Concern Felt About King, One of Whose Lungs Is Affected.

A correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, while declaring that the ominous rumors in regard to King Alfonso's health may be exaggerated, says they are certainly not without foundation. He did not inherit a robust constitution from his father, who died of consumption six months before the birth of the present King.

His mother's care resulted in an increase of the strength of the young monarch, but nothing could make him a strong man. His stooping shoulders and trailing gait tell their own story. The expression of his face is often of such ghastly weariness that his subjects are now forbidden to take snap shot pictures of him and the police vigorously confiscate all cameras.

It is credibly reported that one of the King's lungs is seriously affected, and the family history is sufficient to account for serious concern about any indisposition of this kind. A French palmist has made a "reading" of King Alfonso's hand from an inked impression, and the result is far from being a happy one. She declares that the line of the heart is almost absent, which indicates sensuality and cruelty. The head line shows brain trouble, which will develop in middle life, while on the life line is marked a serious but not fatal illness when about 30 years of age.

Death-Rate of Middle Age.

Dr. Arthur Newsholme, chief medical officer of the Local Government Board of England, says that in spite of a marked reduction in the general death-rate, due to improved social and sanitary conditions, the death-rate among Englishmen between the ages of forty-five and sixty-five is increasing. Doctor Newsholme thinks that the cause of this increase is the movement of the people to the cities, with the consequent change from agricultural to industrial pursuits. The English Mechanic and World of Science, on the other hand, believes that the difference between the present death-rate and earlier ones merely reflects the toll of the feeble lives that improved hygiene and advancing medical science had saved in infancy and youth.

TO FIT THE CRIME.

Ancients Had Severe Punishments for Food Adulterators.

Complaints about the inferior quality of food, the adulteration of food, the high prices and the cheating weights have been common for centuries. There are some curious pages in Henri Estienne's "Apology for Herodotus," and that book was published in 1566. But offenders were often punished and in most appropriate manner. Witness an edict recently found in the archives of Huy-de-Dome: "Whosoever shall have sold watered milk in his mouth shall be set a tube, and into the said tube shall be poured the watered milk till the doctor or barber there present shall assert that the culprit cannot swallow more without being put in danger of his days. Whosoever shall have sold butter containing turnips, stones or any other foreign substance shall be seized and attached in a very curious manner to our pillory of Pontet. Then the said butter shall be placed on his head till the sun shall have melted it completely, and in the meantime the children and meaner folk of the villages shall insult him with such outrageous epithets as shall please them—subject to the respect of God and his majesty. Whosoever shall have sold evil or rotten eggs shall be seized by the body and exposed in our pillory of Pontet. The said eggs shall be given to the children of the villages, who shall, by way of joyful diversion, throw them in the face of the culprit, so that all may be full of merriment and laughter."
