Spring Millinery Opening

You are invited. Everybody is invited to come and look over at their leisure our display. The diversity and charm of the new hats will at once appeal to the modish woman in search of fashion's latest innovations.

The new Millinery is best described as a sumptuous color scheme. Garlands of velvet flowers circle the crowns while white Oriental mounts play an important part in trimming this season.

No effort has been spared to make this event more attractive than ever to our patrons, and we are certain that the satisfaction ensured each buyer will make our rooms very popular to our customers through the season.

TOWN TOPICS

Buy your Clover and Grass Seeds at the Central Drug Store.

Ladies Ready-to-wear Print dresses from $1.15 to $2.00 each at Grants.

March winds will have no effect if you use Rexall Face Cream 25c a jar only at Macfarlanes.

Choice Clover, Timothy and other Grass Seeds at right prices at Central Drug Store.

The Canadian Order of Foresters have changed their night of meeting from the 2nd and last Friday to the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month.

The next regular meeting of Glenelg Centre Farmers' Club will be held on 28th of March inst. Mr. Otto Knodol is to be the speaker of the evening.

TAFETY.—A taffy social will be held in Varney church on Easter Monday evening, March 24. Good program and lots of taffy. Admission 15 cts and 10 cts.

MATRICULATION EXAMS.—The Department of Education has issued the time-tables for the annual examinations in June. Students enrolled in the middle and upper schools will begin on June 12, and will finish their work on the 30th. The lower school and Model and High school entrance examinations will be concluded on June 13. All work will cease before the 1st of July.

PERHAPS LACROSSE.—The annual meeting of the Can. Lacrosse Ass'n on Good Friday in Toronto brings the national game again in the limelight. The various lacrosse organizations are to be affiliated this season into one strong body and the prospects are that Durham will enter a team in the intermediate series and not attempt Junior or Juvenile. There is good material in town for an intermediate bunch and a meeting will be called in the near future to discuss and decide on the situation and organization should a team be entered.

SPRING ASSIZES—These are in progress this week in Owen Sound with the interest largely centering in the Love murder trial. Father and son have been kept strictly apart and it is said many other witnesses have been secured since the preliminary trial.

Mr. H. D. Gamble of Toronto has been appointed Crown Counsel, Dr. Arthur Jukes Johnston of Toronto will give medical testimony on behalf of the Crown and Prov. Inspector Henry Reburn whose investigation brought about the arrest of Love will assist the Crown Counsel. The case for arson against McDougall of Crawford will also be dealt with. Two civil cases also promise to be interesting, one of them a claim for alimony and the other to annul a marriage, the women it is said having a husband living in England. This is a reversal of the usual story of wife desertion.

Here one feels certain that spring has truly arrived. The variety of shapes and modes of trimming is surprising and all the hats are suggestive of the incoming season. They are smaller than formerly and oblong shaped, or longer than the width appears to be the prevailing style. The puffy from Paris and tam crown hats are very fashionable and conspicuous in the display.

The flowers deserve a word of special mention. They are wonderfully realistic in form and in mounts are used extensively in trimmings, representing nearly every variety of bloom from field and garden. Melrose and tailored bows are also prominent in the trimmings. A most attractive array of little girls' hats is to be seen.

MISS MOONEY

"It was the best yet" remarked Miss Mooney, referring to the opening last week. The parlors, brilliant with flower-trimmed headwear, were a bower of beauty to the vision of the fair sex. The hats of the season are long and narrow very much reduced in size, and in many new shapes. A new and attractive shape is the French hat, while there are also boat and men's christy shapes. Some striking new shades appear in shapes and trimmings. Coche De Rochs, tulle, saxe, cerise, apple and lemon, being the most fashionable hues. Very little trimming is used, almost all being ribbon or ostrich or flower mounts. These latter are of great beauty and look as natural as the flowers they depict, while every shade is represented.

BORN

McDONALD.—At Lamias, on March 16, to Mr and Mrs Alex McDonald, a daughter.

Sale Register.

WEDNESDAY, 20TH MARCH.—On this date, David McKelvey, lot 10, Con. 22, Egrement, offers for sale Farm Stock and Implements. Terms: 10 mos. credit, 5 per cent per annum discount for cash in lieu of note. No reserve as proprietor has rented his farm. Sale at 1 p. m.

D. McPHAIL, Auctioneer.

Mr. Harry Kress, O. Sound, is visiting the parental home for a few days. Miss Amy Kelly returned home last week, after visiting for some time in Toronto.

Mrs Archie Brown, of Crawford, visited at Mr and Mrs H. McDonald's for a few days.

Mrs Schooley returned last week from a month's visit to her sister in Toronto, who has been quite ill.

Mrs T. G. Lauder received word that her father, Mr Bell, is seriously ill in Southern Manitoba.

We are pleased to be able to report Mr. Allan Bell is recovering from his recent illness. Until he is again his usual self, his undertaking business, &c., will be in charge of Messrs Lenahan and McKechnie.

Mr. Alf Watson, who has spent the winter months at his home on town line Glen and Egrement, left Tuesday for New Ottawa, near Fielding Sask. He is accompanied by his brother Jos, who goes to Brock.

We are indebted to Rev. Mr. Prudham for the cut of the great Missionary explorer, Livingstone, which appears on page 8. His centenary is being observed in every civilized country and an interesting special service has been arranged for Easter Sunday morning in the Methodist church, to be conducted by the Sabbath School. The other churches are taking notice of the double occasion also and interesting services are assured.

The New Millinery

S. F. MORLOCK

A most attractive display greets the eye on entering Morlock's millinery parlors. Here Miss Walker is in charge and the success of the openings last Saturday is a tribute to her taste and forethought, along with her capable assistants, in preparing for the event.

The great artists in the world of millinery seem to have been doubly inspired this season, so original and striking are the new models. The hats are much smaller on the whole, have a long effect and many of them are but lightly trimmed, but so smart are the designs, and so cleverly are the brilliantly colored mounts, etc., adjusted, that charming effects are produced. Among the latest shapes are the Arabian draped turbans, Peggy from Paris turbans, elongated turbans, and hats with soft rembrandt tam crowns. The popular colors appear to be brass, taupe, purple, cerise, king's blue and champagne. Flowers and sprays in variegated colors are much in vogue. For trimmings, fancy ribbons of the prominent shades, feather and mounts are extensively and almost exclusively used.

Damage by Swollen River

The WM. MCGOWAN DAM GONE

Section of Lower Town under Water and Danger not yet Over.

While many last week were enjoying the summer-like weather, few could have foreseen the disasters that were likely to follow Friday forenoon a jam of ice formed just above the Lambton St. bridge, all in a few minutes. One of our staff happened to be there and other spectators gathered remarking on the muddy appearance of the water and the size of the ice floes. A few minutes and the explanation was furnished: the dam at the oatmeal mill had succumbed to the pressure and half of the central cemented portion gave way, liberating the confined water and much of the ice above it.

For a little while the ice floes got between the buttments of the C. P. R. bridge, but soon a jam occurred here which had in it an element of danger to this structure also. Had the large field of ice still on the upper part of the dam broken loose the danger would have been greater and indeed there is still a risk should a sharp thaw come accompanied with rain.

The section got quickly to work with axes and pike poles to relieve the strain and after some hours of hard, trying even dangerous work they got the ice through.

Meanwhile came the startling news that down by the old skating rink a river had begun to flow across Garafra Street, surrounding some of the homes and of course filling cellars and stables on low ground. Mr Wm Connor got his cow out in time, but before he got his horse liberated the water was rising so, he got on its back and rode out!

The new residences occupied by Rev Mr. McCausland and Frank Lenahan were soon surrounded, furnaces put out and other damage done. Joseph Brown's house fared similarly and he made preparations to lift his carpets. A story is told of one family being removed through a window to a conveyance outside and without doubt there are other hardships which will never be told.

This new stream had its origin at a point east of the John McGowan dam where an immense grounding of ice had taken place damming and backing up the water till at a low point on the south bank it found an outlet and poured out on to Lambton street and near it and after surrounding Mrs R. McGowan's house, found its way to the roadway under the overhead bridge through which it is running and thence down the valley at that point to the old skating rink neighborhood a course which may have been an old river bed at one time.

The bridge over Lumbton St. ravine was never intended to resist water, so by Sunday it was found that one of the buttments was being undermined. The railway men had to go to work at once placing bags of gravel and stone in a protective position, and no further danger is apprehended.

Hundreds of citizens on Sunday strolled out to see the evidence of water's mastery. The council are in a quandary and thought of taking steps to free the jam, but we understand they hesitate for fear the release may endanger the John McGowan dam, and in turn the C. P. R. bridge.

Rev. Mr McCausland and family have been made comfortable in the home of Mr and Mrs John A. Graham till normal conditions prevail. Mrs Cowardine for the same reason is with her daughter, Mrs John McDougall.

The Roll Call

THOS. SWALLOW.

A telegram sent to Undertaker Allen Bell on Sunday last contained the sad news that Thos. Swallow, well-known in this town was dead at his home in Transcona near Winnipeg. The remains were to be shipped on Monday and should arrive here on Wednesday evening. The funeral will take place from Mr. Bell's undertaking parlors at 2 p. m. Thursday for service first in the Baptist church, thence to Durham cemetery where his parents lie.

No particulars are to hand as to cause of death. He went west three years ago, and has been reported to be doing well. Late letters indicate that his wife is not well and much sympathy will be felt for her in her affliction.

Mr. Swallow "Tom" as everybody here named him, was a capable barber and had a hearty genial way with him, that made him liked. He served for a time in Durham Town Council and was in his 42nd year. He was a member of the L. O. Foresters and under their auspices the funeral will take place.

"He Is Risen"

[From Painting by Ploecheret, 1883.]

EASTER 1913.

The Great Christian festival of Easter is with us once more. The memory of the risen Lord sheds a halo over the world only second in intensity to that of Christmas. A Happy Eastertide to all our readers.

Messrs Wm. Weir, Robt. Lindsay, Jno. M. Latimer, Geo. Noble and N. Whitmore went to Owen Sound Tuesday to act as jurymen.

Miss Cranston, who has been visiting her cousins, the Binnie's and Cranston's in and around Durham for the past couple months, left Wednesday last to return to her home at Antler, N. D.

Mr Chas. Helwig, of Hanover, visited a friend in Durham Saturday last.

Mr Jas. Edge and sister, Miss Lena, of Edge Hill, left Tuesday for the West to stay indefinitely.

Miss Reta and Gertrude McComb leave next week for Owen Sound, where he has taken a position with the Doric Portland Cement Co. They have been residents of our town for about two years. Mr. R. being also an accomplished musician, and we regret losing such good citizens.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Maria and Mr. Herb Ritchie left for Bagot, Manitoba, on 4 p. m. train on Monday, 17th inst.

Mr Jas. Atkinson went to Toronto on Monday on business.

Miss Martha Elm of Hamilton, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Arch. McKechnie at the Rocky for a few weeks is at present visiting at her uncle's Mr. Wm. Collinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, cement chemist, leave next week for Owen Sound, where he has taken a position with the Doric Portland Cement Co. They have been residents of our town for about two years. Mr. R. being also an accomplished musician, and we regret losing such good citizens.

SPRING MILLINERY OPENING

Pattern Hats and Millinery Novelties

Our Opening on Saturday last was a big success. This season's hats are tasteful and beautiful and we cordially invite you to see our display.
