Mulock

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr and Mrs Wm Bailey in their sudden bereavement, by the death of the latter's mother, the late Mrs Kunenbuser, whose obituary appeared in last week's Review.

The home of Mrs Hopkins was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, March 5, at 4.30 p.m. when her only daughter Margaret J. Ashbury was united in marriage with Mr. Wm Hopkins. The ceremony was performed by Rev Mr Hartley under a bower of evergreens. The bride was attired in blue velvet trimmed with white silk all over lace and silk braid, and wore a bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. Miss Maud Cuff of Hutton Hill, cousin of the groom was bridesmaid and Mr Thos. Hopkins ably supported the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold bracelet, to the bridesmaid a crescent pearl brooch set with pearls, and to the groomsmen a gold tie pin.

After the ceremony and congratulations were over a dainty supper was served. The bride received a number of presents, among them being a check for $50 from her uncle, Mr David Hopkins, also a check from her brother Thomas. Mr and Mrs Hopkins left the same evening on a short honeymoon trip to Warton, the bride travelling in a suit of brown and a hat of cream braid. Upon their return Friday evening a reception was held when a number of friends assembled to spend an evening together before they left for their home in Saskatchewan the following week, with best wishes for a pleasant journey through life.

The same day the marriage took place at the parsonage, of Mrs Phoebe Yandt of Hanover, daughter of Mr and Mrs Thos Ledford of this place to Mr Edwin Disney of Hanover, the pastor Rev A R McDonald officiating. After a couple of days visiting friends Mr and Mrs Disney left for St Mary's and other points south after which they will reside in Hanover.

This will be a very busy village during the summer with two sawmills. It hardly seems enough.
